FARM AND TOWN

HERE ARE two true stories. They are linked together, but the reader is to determine how. After one young man came home from the World war he married the girl who had been waiting for him...

This is the situation today: Prices of farm products have dropped from 50 to 75 per cent. Flaxseed that sold for $6 a bushel brings now only $1.50...

The wife, talented and ambitious, would like to go on with music and art study. The young man would like to feel less pressure on the nose to the grindstone...

ment to prove that the builders of Oregon, whatever might be other characteristics, held in common the great quality of vision. Even Washington Irving, in his "Astoria" carrying away the impression left upon a visitor by the earliest comers...

THE Root rules for submarine regulation adopted by the arms conference sound far more like preparation for the next war than its prevention. After failure of the conference to in any way limit submarine construction...

AT THEIR PORTLAND POW WOW THE eloquence of the American Indian has been recounted in border tales and more pretentious American literature. It was not a myth. In the pow wow held in The Journal auditorium over claims some of the Oregon Indians have against the federal government...

WEST BUILT THE WEST AN IMPRESSION prevails in the eastern part of the United States that the pioneers of the West did their pioneering for a woman's reason. "Because."

New Year Reflections, Retrospective and Prospective—The Tourist Traffic's Possibilities Illustrated—Marrying Early and Staying Married—Weather—Trucks, Tracks and Taxes—Soldiers' Bonus and Gasoline.

Blue Mountain Eagle: Old 1921 was a pretty good year after all. We lived and we have memory of many pleasant days spent with our families, friends and neighbors...

Heppner Gazette Times: The past year has been a pretty strenuous one for the business and industrial affairs of Morrow county. It depends here on the success of the farmer and stockman, and these two lines of endeavor have been hard hit during 1932...

Coquille Valley Sentinel: The one thing in which this Christmas differed from all the other Christmases of the past 1900 and odd years is that a conference of nations at the world level is now in session to promote a "peace on earth and good will toward men"...

Merchandise Marine's Workaday A NAVAL holiday and the scrapping of battleships doesn't mean that America is out of the shipping business. We have yet to $3,000,000,000 merchant marine to account for...

Curious Bits of Information Gleaned From Curious Places The darning needle, or devil's darning needle, is one of the names given to the dragon fly, which belongs to the oriole family...
