gate and take action at its regular meeting, February 1. GREETED WITH HISSES

The first hour was given over to the pronents of dancing.

Dr. Charles MacCaughey of Centenary-Wilbur church was the first speaker. He said the ministers' position is no reflection upon the Parent-Teacher association as such, but against all dancing in the schools whether supervised by the Parent-Teachers or not. He stated he had been laboring under a misappre-heaston that the P. T. A. undertook the supervising of all dances in the schools. He said it is unjust and unequitable for taxpayers who teach their children it s wrong to dance being compelled to see the property of their school district to subvert and destroy what they ave attempted to teach in the home. His statement that children were indirectly compelled to attend dances or he rendered conspicuous was greeted with laughter and bisses. MacCaughey said a danging suvervisor told him there was "nothing to" school supervision for of you are too lax they will run wild if you are too strict they will go some place where they can dance as they wers expected to go there to supervise, but not many of them went, "What kind of institution is it where 12 adults have to be?" he asked. it a proper institution to flourish in the building that is supported by taxes? We think not. We are going to attempt, if it lies in our power, to enforce our con-viction, if we have to carry it to the viction, if we have to carry highest courts in this land and to the Chairman Newill ruled that the names of men and women and schools should be given, but MacCaughey refused. "I am prepared to give it to any committee the school board," he said, "but not prepared to give names or sources of tonight. We are going to present our case to you gentlemen and expect you to take action. If that action is not favorable, there is still a court of final

"I think the people who are represented in that school have a right to reply," said Director Shull, "if there is explanation to be made. That court of higher resort does not affect us at

Dr. Clarence True Wilson read the objections contained in resolutions adopted by the churches that have interested themselves in the question. One statement he made, that the school buildings were not permitted to be used for Sun-day schools, temperance lectures or anything of a controversial nature, but were used for dancing, brought forth a correction from the board.

Instances were cited of Sunday schools and religious instruction being given in the schools and Newill said that on no sion was any application brought up of that nature that was not granted "But," protested Wilson, 'has it not always been the policy of the state to keep out any controversies?" NAMES INSTITUTIONS

"We are talking about school district No. 1."

Mahone, responsible for a statement at the first hearing that 400 high MAKES PROPOSITION school girls are now in Portland institujected to giving the names of the institutions from which he obtained his figures, but finally said they were the Salvation Army, the Cedars, Fraser home, Crittenton home and the Boys and Girls

"Do you mean to say the Boys' and Girls' Aid society has delinquents?" broke in Director Woodward. "That means they are wards of the juvenile court," explained Mahone.

"Are they there because of dancing in the public schools?" persisted Wood- they did not tell the truth," persisted ward. A ripple of laughter swept over
