

AUTOMOBILE SHOW—Fourteen pages of vital information for motorists and buyers of automobiles. The show opens Monday will compose the automotive section of The Sunday Journal.

Oregon Daily Journal

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 21, 1932.—FOURTEEN PAGES.

THE WEATHER—Tonight and Sunday, rain; southerly winds. Minimum temperature, Friday, 40. Portland, 45. New York, 43. Los Angeles, 33. St. Paul, 23.

PRICE TWO CENTS

3 NORTHWEST MILLS PLAN OF LONG-BELL

First to Go Up at Location Not Yet Selected as Soon as Cost of Labor and Material Decline; May Choose Astoria for One.

Astoria, Jan. 21.—The Long-Bell Lumber company will build at least three huge lumber mills in the Northwest. The first will be constructed at a location not yet decided on and only when the price of labor and material have declined below their present figure, Astoria presents several advantages for lumber milling, and it is possible that one of the Long-Bell units will be located here. The company's tract of land near Kelso may be used for the erection of a mill. That has not yet been determined. The location can be put to other uses, if a sawmill is not built there.

SHIPYARD BOOKS TO OPEN FOR U. S.

Washington, Jan. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—Details were learned today of the agreement between the department of justice and attorneys for the Northwest Steel company and Columbia River Shipbuilding corporation whereby a stipulation was entered in the supreme court to dismiss the department of justice's remaining of those contempt cases against officers of these companies to the district court in Oregon for further proceedings.

Rain and Snow Are Expected in Oregon

Washington, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—Forecast for period January 23 to 25 inclusive: Pacific states—Generally fair except for much cloudiness and rains and snows in Washington and Oregon. Cold.

Girl Mayor for Bobbed Hair She Likes Short Skirts, Too

By Kenneth W. Clark. Fairport, Ohio, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—Charges against the modern, girl all wrong, Dr. Amy Kaukonen, pretty girl mayor of Fairport, told the United Press in an exclusive interview today.

'Dearie, I'm In Jail,' She Writes Hubby

"Dearie—I'm in jail." "LUCILE." Herbert Bowe, 4908 East Fifty-eighth street southeast, found this note in his wife's handwriting, scrawled on a piece of paper and on the library table when he got home this morning.

PREMIER POINTS OUT WAY TO PEACE

By David M. Church. London, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—"There can be no peace unless there is understanding followed by a considerable reduction of armaments," said Premier Lloyd George, addressing the coalition-liberal political convention today.

WANT END OF WARS

"We want an end to wars and to rumors of wars," declared the premier, "I appeal to all men in power and all rulers to come to Geneva in a spirit of peace, and then peace will ensue."

TRADE IS DEPLORABLE

"Trade is the worst now in the history of the world. Restoration depends upon confidence in government and confidence in the future, the better it will be for trade and the governments, too, the faster will all governments be established."

Two Lions Escape And Terrorize City; Killed on Street

Thermopoli, Wyo., Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Two giant mountain lions escaped from their cages at Hot Springs, Thermopoli, for several hours today. The wild beasts raced through the main street of the town while citizens fled and barricaded themselves within their homes.

FREEZING TEMPERATURE STILL AT THE DALLES

The Dalles, Jan. 21.—The minimum temperature here Friday was 10 above, and in the evening the thermometer registered at the freezing point. Due to a jam at Crates Point, the Columbia river is still frozen completely across in several places.

QUIBBLING BY JAPAN HALTS CONFERENCE

Settlement of Shantung Dispute and Signing of 4-Power Pact Are Delayed by Tokio Demands; Delegates Becoming Irritated.

Washington, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—After a two-day debate in which Japan and France both voted vigorous objection, the Washington conference today applied the Hughes resolution, requiring the world powers to bring into the open their various commitments, treaties and agreements in China, whether secret or otherwise.

CALIFORNIA AGAIN GRIPPED BY COLD

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Southern California was again in the grip of a cold wave last night and early today. Minimum temperatures in the citrus growing belt ranged from 22 to 30 degrees.

TEMPERATURES MOVE SNOW IN LOWER RIVER REGION

Astoria, Jan. 21.—A southeasterly wind and rising temperature gave Astoria's blanket of snow short shrift Friday, and will take high rank in the fire nation's melting. The thermometer stood at 38 above zero from 10 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon. The barometer remains high and fairly steady, giving small hope of a continued rising in temperature.

COLD AT REDDING

Redding, Cal., Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—The coldest day in the history of the worst last night. The thermometer dropped this morning to 21 degrees above zero, or four degrees lower than reported at any time during this cold wave.

New Texas Oil Well Reported Gushing 30,000 Bbls. Daily

Orange, Texas, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—The widest flow in the history of the Orange oil field prevailed today. Chevron well No. 2 of the Gulf Production company, came in during the morning with an estimated flow of 30,000 barrels daily, although pinched down to prevent running wild.

URGES LONG TERM CREDIT FOR FARMER

Recommendations of Agricultural Inquiry Commission Included in Lenroot Measure; Would Be Aid to Producer and Consumer.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Two important moves were made today by the senate "agricultural bloc" in carrying further the program which its leaders declare is intended to benefit the consumer as well as the farmer.

CRIMINAL ACTION ON CHINESE, PLAN

No more municipal court fines for Chinese lottery agents. This was the declaration today of Stanley Myers, district attorney, who believes that much of the financial support of the tongs is derived from money accrued from lottery tickets.

REVOLVERS DRAWN IN Fight at Session of Hungarian Assembly

Berlin, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Turbulent scenes, marked by fist fights and the drawing of revolvers, accompanied debate in the Hungarian national assembly on Friday, said a dispatch from Budapest today.

Portland's Position As a Wool Center

Portland's fast growing importance as a wool market and woolen manufacturing and shipping center is related today in a compelling article on the Saturday industrial page. Other informing articles of an industrial nature will be found on page 5 today.

Benedict XV and Temporary Successor

MOST recent photograph of the pope, whose death was reported to have occurred today in the Vatican. This picture was taken last June and shows Benedict talking with a secretary. Note the small size of the pontiff. Below is Cardinal Merry del Val, papal chamberlain, who will direct affairs of the Catholic church in the time intervening between Benedict's death and the election of his successor.

BIG INTERESTS TO FIGHT FORD OFFER

Washington, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—A preliminary canvass of congress reveals that a majority of both houses favor acceptance of Henry Ford's comprehensive offer for Muscie Shoals nitrate plant.

SILVER PLATE MIRROR SHOWS POPE'S DEATH

Rome, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—The utmost precautions are taken to prevent any premature official announcement of the death of a pope. After the attending physicians pronounce death, members of the papal family attend the traditional ceremony of holding a small silver plate mirror close to the mouth and nostrils of the deceased.

12TH RESERVE BANK IS THIRD IN RANK

San Francisco, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—The Twelfth district federal reserve bank, with headquarters here, now ranks third in size among the 12 banks of the nation, according to announcement made public here today.

SEATTLE GRIPPED BY INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

Seattle, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—Seattle is in the grip of the worst influenza epidemic since the winter of 1918-19. Twenty-five victims of the epidemic, which is in mid stage, are reported by one city official. Sheriff Matt Starwick and 12 deputies are confined to their homes with the scourge.

POPE VAINLY TRIED TO END WORLD WAR

Rome, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Pope Benedict XV, who is dying here today, rose to the supreme head of the Catholic church September 6, 1914, less than six months after he was elevated to the cardinalship. He was born of noble parents at Pegli, near Genoa, Italy, November 21, 1854. His father was Marchese Della Chiesa.

DUBLIN RED LEADER STRANGELY MISSING

Dublin, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—P. O'Hanley, organizer of the unemployed forces which had planned a series of red flag demonstrations, and several of his followers, were reported missing today. It is not known whether or not they were kidnapped.

UPTON'S NOMINATION TO BOARD IS HELD UP

Washington, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—President Harding's nomination of George W. Upton of Warren, Ohio, to membership on the federal trade commission was held up by the senate committee on interstate commerce today because of objection of Senator Pommeroy (Dem.) of Ohio.

JNO. KENDRICK BANGS, HUMORIST, IS DEAD

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—John Kendrick Bangs, noted author and humorist, died at 8:50 p. m. today. He had been critically ill more than a week following an operation for intestinal trouble.

PHYSICIANS SAY POPE STILL ALIVE

News Agency Flashes Death Report to London, and Following Receipt of Rome Report Westminster Cathedral Bell Tolls.

Rome, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—The following bulletin on the condition of Pope Benedict XV was flashed here today today by physicians who visited his holiness at 5:30 p. m.:

"Pope Benedict XV is now in a comatose condition. He grew worse during the day. His heart was steadily growing weaker and he was breathing with the greatest difficulty."

Pope Benedict was conscious during the early part of the afternoon and at his request a statue of St. Agnes was placed on the altar in the papal chamber. His holiness also directed that a telegram should be sent to Genoa, where a celebration had been planned in his honor for next Sunday.

The above direct United Press "urgent" cablegram was filed in Rome at 6 p. m. Rome time today.

Press agency dispatches from Rome today sent out by Edward Strutt, correspondent of the International News Service, gave the first report of the death of Pope Benedict XV. Similar dispatches were later received in London by the Reuters News Agency (the leading European news agency) by the London Express and by other London papers.

Up to noon, Pacific Coast time, no official announcement had been made in Rome of the death of the pope. He was acting on the press reports the bells of Westminster cathedral in London were tolled. The Irish delegation attending the world conference of Irish in Paris were notified the pope was dead. Official announcement of the death of a pope is usually withheld for hours after the death has been pronounced dead by his physicians, to prevent the performance of ancient rites of the church which require the presence of all high dignitaries of the Catholic church who are in the Eternal City.

London, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Westminster cathedral received official news of the pope's death. The tolling of the cathedral begins tolling at 5:45 o'clock this afternoon proclaiming the death of Pope Benedict XV at Rome. Cardinal Bourne had received official news of the pontiff's death just a few minutes before.

The official announcement of the pope's death came direct from the Vatican. It did not give the hour of the pontiff's death, but it is believed to have occurred at about 4 o'clock (Rome time) today.

Cardinal Bourne will leave for Rome tomorrow to attend the funeral of Pope Benedict XV. The funeral will be held at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. The cardinal's departure was made at Westminster cathedral this evening shortly after the cardinal received official advice direct from the Vatican that the pope was dead.

Paris, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—The delegation from Ireland attending the world conference of Irish in Paris received word at 4 o'clock this afternoon (Paris time) that Pope Benedict XV is dead.

Paris, Jan. 21.—(U. P.).—The International news agency tonight prints a dispatch from its Paris correspondent, which says the pontiff's death just a few minutes before.

Paris, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—A dispatch from Rome received here at 7:30 p. m. stated that Pope Benedict XV died at 4 o'clock (Rome time).

London, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—The Reuters news agency received a Rome dispatch at 5:30 o'clock (London time) that Pope Benedict XV is dead.

London, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—"Pope Benedict XV is dead," said a Rome dispatch to the Daily Express, received at 5:15 o'clock this afternoon.

London, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—A Central News Agency dispatch from Rome this afternoon said that Pope Benedict XV was dead.

Rome, Jan. 21.—(L. N. S.).—Pope Benedict XV died today. Death was due to pneumonia and heart weakness, complicated with bronchial catarrh and influenza.