

Oregon Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER... PUBLISHED EVERY WEEKDAY AND SUNDAY MORNING... OFFICE: 223 1/2 First Street, Portland, Oregon.

Subscription Rates: Daily, 10 cents; Weekly, 60 cents; Monthly, $1.50; Quarterly, $4.50; Semi-annually, $8.00; Annually, $15.00.

Advertising Rates: One inch, 10 cents per week; Two inches, 15 cents per week; Three inches, 20 cents per week.

Copyright 1922 by The Oregon Journal Publishing Company, Portland, Oregon.

The habit of looking on the best side of everything is worth more than a thousand pounds a year.—Dr. Samuel Johnson.

OREGON'S BOND INTEREST

The Oregon World war veterans' state aid commission made an excellent sale of the first block of $5,000,000 of Oregon soldier's bonus bonds.

Bond prices continue to advance steadily, which is the same thing as saying that interest rates are continuing to decline.

The Canadian Rockies are imposing either as a spectacle or as a railway advertising subject, but if Multnomah falls, Crown Point or some of the other features of the Columbia River highway could be borrowed for them they would be matchless.

THAT RED HEADED GIRL

INCLUDED in a group waiting to apply for units of an irrigation project in Idaho were several ex-service men.

"I'm going to be," was the answer. "Could you bring the girl to see me?" asked the manager.

"The day was nearly over when, with obvious pride, the young man brought into the office a slip of the red-headed girl."

There is a well-defined limit to the credit of any individual beyond which he cannot expect to borrow. The same rule holds good with respect to the bond-issuing capacity of a state or municipality.

THE SALVAGE FARM

COME one pointedly observes that town is no place for a boy or a dog. The dog if homeless has an organization dedicated to his care and his protection against inhumanity.

and more organization than the wait without a home? The public spirited and timely answer of the Oregon W. C. T. U. is "Yes!"

The W. C. T. U. has accompanied its protest with action. Sponsored by this body of mothers and aided by many kindly disposed people throughout the state, a farm home in prospect.

A "real home on a real farm" is the objective of the promoters of the timely enterprise. Many a boy with a lift would have been transformed from wallflower into sturdy citizenship.

Should we not be charitable with Miss Prevost's faulty memory? It has been several weeks since the last trial and in so long a time couldn't San Francisco fogs have done their deadly work?

Perish the thought, in this case, but there have been cases when memories and statures have been shocked and stunned beyond recovery by large worldly possessions on the other side.

Perhaps some day there will be judges and a code by which there will be a sufficient term in jail for liars who say in court that they can't remember.

The Canadian Rockies are imposing either as a spectacle or as a railway advertising subject, but if Multnomah falls, Crown Point or some of the other features of the Columbia River highway could be borrowed for them they would be matchless.

INCLUDED in a group waiting to apply for units of an irrigation project in Idaho were several ex-service men. It was necessary for each applicant to show that he had some resources and some experience.

"I'm going to be," was the answer. "Could you bring the girl to see me?" asked the manager. The day was nearly over when, with obvious pride, the young man brought into the office a slip of the red-headed girl.

There is a well-defined limit to the credit of any individual beyond which he cannot expect to borrow. The same rule holds good with respect to the bond-issuing capacity of a state or municipality.

COME one pointedly observes that town is no place for a boy or a dog. The dog if homeless has an organization dedicated to his care and his protection against inhumanity.

But the boy, if homeless, what shall he do? Shall the dog have more friends than the boy?

he would have with him his wife, his children, and his books and that all would have about them the things that they love.

he would have with him his wife, his children, and his books and that all would have about them the things that they love.

ISSUE DRAWN IN FRANCE

Perplexities of the French. Torn Briand in the way of peace and the French people's desire for peace.

From the New York World. The ministry of Aristide Briand has always wished to be more moderate than it dared to be.

Though he was opposed to the military, Briand had to compromise with them at every step of his policy.

At Cannes the British prime minister put that wedge into the hands of French moderates.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

By this act he has turned the political situation in France upside down. Until yesterday Briand was on the defensive.

THINGS THAT WERE

IT HAS been so long since Portland had a tag day that being stopped on every corner by importunity has almost become a forgotten pleasure.

Drives have become so infrequent that business men have almost lost account of the time they spent yielding to appeals for cash or making appeals in behalf of some worthy cause.

With the bother of annoyance has also gone the 15 to 35 per cent that it once cost the philanthropies of Portland to collect their money.

The overlapping and duplication of agencies have likewise been listed among the things that were.

We have even begun to look upon all these senseless inanities of charitable administration as belonging to barbarity of the middle ages rather than to a period in Portland's life not much more than a year gone.

In place of the hodge podge of charitable efficiency comes the Community Chest with its first annual report and its second appeal. It has collected the money for relief of need and for character building at a cost of about 4 per cent.

It has furnished Portland agencies have likewise been listed among the things that were.

We have even begun to look upon all these senseless inanities of charitable administration as belonging to barbarity of the middle ages rather than to a period in Portland's life not much more than a year gone.

In place of the hodge podge of charitable efficiency comes the Community Chest with its first annual report and its second appeal.

It has collected the money for relief of need and for character building at a cost of about 4 per cent.

It has furnished Portland agencies have likewise been listed among the things that were.

We have even begun to look upon all these senseless inanities of charitable administration as belonging to barbarity of the middle ages rather than to a period in Portland's life not much more than a year gone.

In place of the hodge podge of charitable efficiency comes the Community Chest with its first annual report and its second appeal.

QUOTES PROMISES ON ROADS

Corvallis, Jan. 22.—Editor of The Journal.—In yesterday's Journal appeared an editorial on roads and road bonds, headed "A Sixty Million System."

The first man who stepped out in the mouth, so to speak, was Jonah. If our present information is correct.

Now that the Newberg Commercial club and others have endorsed the 1922 fair, maybe they can tell the legislators how to finance it.

The trouble with the castles we build is that we put them on a foundation of black coffee or a midnight lunch.

Mary Garden slipped a conductor. Except that her victim was an orchestra conductor, she did only what scores of other women would very much like to do.

Oscar Hayter, who helped mix the first mud to make Dallas, is at the Portland hotel. He is in the city on a business trip.

Rev. E. T. Simpson of the Church of the Good Samaritan of Corvallis was a recent visitor in Portland on church business.

E. B. Gabriel of Eugene is at the Portland. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor are visiting in Portland.

W. W. Shepard is up from Siletia and is at the Portland. Frank R. Prince is here from Bend and is registered at the Portland.

H. N. Coon of Westport is here on business. P. Nelson of Bend is a business visitor in Portland.

H. J. Overturn is down from Bend and is transacting business in Portland. Mrs. E. M. Miller of Paisley in Lake county is visiting friends in Portland.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE. The man who can resist the attractions of the automobile will be a better man than I am, Gangs Din!

It is becoming increasingly easy to forego the pleasure of doing so cents' worth of merchandise for $1.

The first man who stepped out in the mouth, so to speak, was Jonah. If our present information is correct.

Now that the Newberg Commercial club and others have endorsed the 1922 fair, maybe they can tell the legislators how to finance it.

The trouble with the castles we build is that we put them on a foundation of black coffee or a midnight lunch.

Mary Garden slipped a conductor. Except that her victim was an orchestra conductor, she did only what scores of other women would very much like to do.

Oscar Hayter, who helped mix the first mud to make Dallas, is at the Portland hotel. He is in the city on a business trip.

Rev. E. T. Simpson of the Church of the Good Samaritan of Corvallis was a recent visitor in Portland on church business.

E. B. Gabriel of Eugene is at the Portland. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor are visiting in Portland.

W. W. Shepard is up from Siletia and is at the Portland. Frank R. Prince is here from Bend and is registered at the Portland.

H. N. Coon of Westport is here on business. P. Nelson of Bend is a business visitor in Portland.

H. J. Overturn is down from Bend and is transacting business in Portland. Mrs. E. M. Miller of Paisley in Lake county is visiting friends in Portland.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

SIDELIGHTS

There are two kinds of home brew—the better sort being Oatmeal, which you before you drink.

Another fine thing about rural life is that you can't hear the neighbor's daughter playing the musical talent.

Baker and Haines have got acquainted again and the big town on the Willamette is getting acquainted with both of them.

The reports on lumber begin to make the little sawmills look over his shoulder and prepare to sharpen his saw.

There are many things that Eugene Debs has said that we do not like. But he made war to fight in the trenches.

Fifty people were converted during the recent revival meetings at Jefferson. That should mean that the chuck holes of the city are being filled up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lusk of Missoula, Mont., are visiting in Portland. Missoula is near the Bitter Root valley, famous for its red-checked apples and beautiful scenery.

Mrs. Ralph White of Salem is in Portland to help her fellow dancing instructor to get the new dancing school started.

C. P. Bishop, pioneer woolen man, is down from Bend. The Bishop boys have followed in their father's footsteps and are operating woolen mills.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Peterson of Roseburg are greeting old-time friends in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brody of McMinnville are sojourning at the Cornwell.

J. H. Dunston of Baker is visiting in Portland. Mrs. J. Christ of Albany is a Portland visitor.

Leland Finch of Baker is transacting business in Portland. Mrs. A. Lynch of Salem was an over-Sunday guest at the Hotel Portland.

C. M. Brewer is here from Albany. Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors.

The Oregon Country

Northwest Newspaper in Brief Form for the Oregon Country.

ORIGON. Doctors and physicians of Bend declare there is not a single drop of blood in the city.

City 32, Tex. of Central Point has been re-nominated postmaster of that city by President Harding.

Benjamin C. H. H. Manning are leasing the machinery at the old Knight mill building.

Benjamin C. H. H. Manning are leasing the machinery at the old Knight mill building.

Salem's unemployed at present total about 1000 persons, according to Police Judge Rouse, who conducts a free employment bureau.

The Hall Lumber company's mill at Tualatin, which has shut down for nearly a year, started work this week with a full crew.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

Unusually early snow has been reported in the Oregon country. The University of Oregon was in session for the first time in 1921.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Random Observations About Town

Russell Hawkins, registering from Killebrew Point, is at the Portland. He is in the city on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor are visiting in Portland. W. W. Shepard is up from Siletia and is at the Portland.

Frank R. Prince is here from Bend and is registered at the Portland. H. N. Coon of Westport is here on business.

P. Nelson of Bend is a business visitor in Portland. H. J. Overturn is down from Bend and is transacting business in Portland.

Mrs. E. M. Miller of Paisley in Lake county is visiting friends in Portland. Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors.

C. M. Brewer is here from Albany. Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

Harry Hutton and F. L. Kinney, both of Eugene, are Portland visitors. C. M. Brewer is here from Albany.

OBSERVATIONS AND IMPRESSIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

By Fred Lockley

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

General McCarver should have a larger place in Oregon history than is accorded to him.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on one side of the paper.

SENATORS REBUKED Oregon Senators rebuked for their conduct in the Senate.

SENATORS REBUKED Oregon Senators rebuked for their conduct in the Senate.

SENATORS REBUKED Oregon Senators rebuked for their conduct in the Senate.

SENATORS REBUKED Oregon Senators rebuked for their conduct in the Senate.

SENATORS REBUKED Oregon Senators rebuked for their conduct in the Senate.

CURIOUS BITS OF INFORMATION

Gleaned From Curious Places. The grasshopper would seem to have nothing in common with the sea.

The grasshopper would seem to have nothing in common with the sea.

UNCLE JEFF SNOW SAYS

When Ab Tolliver picked him up an old maid in Chicago year 'fore last and tuck her to his chicken ranch on the Sucker, he thought he had him a wife.

When Ab Tolliver picked him up an old maid in Chicago year 'fore last and tuck her to his chicken ranch on the Sucker, he thought he had him a wife.

THE INTOXICATED MOTORIST

From the President's Journal. The intoxicated motorist cannot be dealt with too severely.

From the President's Journal. The intoxicated motorist cannot be dealt with too severely.