

BRYAN OPPOSES 4-POWER TREATY IN PRESENT FORM

By James E. Nease (By Universal Service)

Washington, Jan. 24.—Opposition to the four power treaty in its present form was expressed Monday by William Jennings Bryan, who visited the capital and conferred with democratic senators. Mr. Bryan counseled the senators to oppose the treaty unless a reservation is attached reserving to each the power in the treaty the right of independent action. He said: "I am strongly in favor of the treaty, that is, I favor the principle of it. But I would regard it as a grave mistake for the United States senate to ratify the treaty without a reservation giving this country the right to act independently in the event of trouble. Independent action is merely implied by the treaty as it now stands. It should be written into the treaty in strong terms that would leave no doubt as to their meaning."

DISCUSSES LEGISLATION
Bryan also consulted the democratic senators about several other matters of legislation including the bill and the anti-lynching bill now before the house. He condemned the anti-lynching bill and declared that if it were passed "the north will regret it as much as the south."

Regarding the soldier bonus measure Mr. Bryan said he favored the cash bonus plan, but was opposed to the idea of raising the money by a direct or indirect tax. He expressed the belief that action on the bonus measure should be delayed until there is money from the foreign debt with which to pay, or raise the bonus fund by general taxation, rather than levy a special tax for this purpose.

Bryan kept absolutely silent on the subject of whether he will be a candidate for the United States senate from Florida, where he now has his legal residence. He had a long conversation with Senator Trammell, present occupant of that seat, who is a candidate for reelection, but declined to indicate what his own plans are.

SEES DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

On the subject of political conditions generally, Bryan voiced the opinion that the democrats stand more than a good chance of winning "sweeping victories in the congressional elections next fall. He declared that reaction against the republicans is "quite pronounced" throughout the country. He added: "Take the three most important groups in the country and you will find them all dissatisfied. The farmers constitute one third of the population and they are in worse condition than they have been in 30 years. Laboring population is similarly situated; wages have come down quite generally, but there has been no corresponding reduction in the cost of living. In the third large group is business and business conditions are not good. The country is not so prosperous as it was two years ago. Many people are influenced by what the conditions are regardless of what caused them. The republicans always said that, if business was good no explanations were necessary. But business is not good now."

CONDENSERS REVENUE BILL
"The revenue bill is one of the strongest arguments against the republican administration. It was so bad that a republican caucus knocked off the retroactive appeal of the excess profits tax and the senate recommended the tax on large incomes. When the senate amendment came back to the house, the democrats took more than one third of the republicans with them and maintained the increase over the objection of the republican leaders."

"I notice down east a good deal of criticism of the 'agricultural bloc.' For 30 years to my knowledge, there has been a Wall street bloc that has unitedly voted against what the farmer wanted just as the farm bloc is now voting for

GRAND JURY SIFTS BRIBERY CHARGES

Pendleton, Jan. 24.—An Umatilla county grand jury convened here Monday for the purpose of sifting the charges made by a Pendleton newspaper against E. F. B. Ridgway, special prohibition officer for the county; R. I. Keator, district attorney, and members of the recently discharged grand jury, alleged to have whitewashed Ridgway.

The prohibition officer is accused by the newspaper with accepting bribes and "double-crossing" the county to the advantage of bootleggers. The district attorney is alleged to have directed a recent investigation of Ridgway in such manner as to return a "whitewash" for the officer.

The new grand jury is in charge of L. J. Liljeqvist, assistant attorney general. The members of the jury, most of them farmers, are Dan J. Kirk, Umatilla; William Steen, Millican; Kyle Guernant, Holdman; T. M. Johnson, Echo; Ben Simonton, Adams; LeRoy Wachter, Pilot Rock; George Woodward, Athena.

Child Killed While Coasting; Sled Runs Into Telephone Pole

Wenatchee, Wash., Jan. 24.—Little Jane Munson is dead as a result of crashing into a telephone pole while coasting Sunday afternoon near the Sunnyside school. With two other little girls she was sliding down the Baughman hill when, in some manner, the sled veered off at the foot of the hill, striking the pole. The Munson girl was at the front of the sled and her head collided with the pole with such force that she died half an hour later. The other two girls received injuries but are getting along nicely.

San Francisco Cantor Pleases Large Crowd

Reuben R. Rinder, captor of the Temple Emmanuel of San Francisco, gave a lecture recital at Temple Beth Israel Sunday night to a crowded house. Lucien E. Becker was his accompanist. Mr. Rinder has a very excellent baritone voice and sings artistically. His program was in Hebrew and included music from the earliest days. The affair was under the auspices of the Portland Council of Jewish women.
