PEACE IS IN SIGHT FFN WORKERS

By Alexander F. Jones United News Staff Corresponder Chicago, Jan. 24.—Representatives of ,500,500 railroad employes are here considering the proposition of getting back to oldtime relations with their em-The grand chiefs of the 16 standard railroad unions, meeting jointly for the first time since the strike threat last October, are trying to get together on the suggestions of Herbert Hoover, sec-retary of commerce, to bring about peace in the railroad world for the first time since the carriers were returned to pri-vate awhership.

vate ownership. Secretary Hoover has suggested that unions and the individual roads settle their troubles locally through regional arbitration boards, made up of their own numbers, instead of going to the United States railroad labor board. FAVORED BY BROTHERHOODS

The four transportation brotherhoods are in favor of this plan. More than 90 railroad executives, meeting here,

Now all that remains is for representa-tives of $00.000 shop men to do so. If this is done, and it was stated Monday night by high authority that success looked bright, the United States labor board will become a minor factor n settlement of railroad disputes in the future. It will be a court of last resort. The railroads are hostile to the board, as constituted at present, and the transportation brotherhoods are also disnclined to bring their troubles before it. GENERAL MEETING PLANNED

It is understood that as soon as the union chiefs get through here, a general meeting of railroad executives, union eaders and two members of the railroad board will be called to confer in New York, and that the groundwork of the new arrangement will be laid there. The brotherhoods have always had these regional boards and have resented having to come to the labor board. The shopmen and their allied unions have never used this method, however, and have had to rely on the labor board. Timothy Healy, president of one of the shopcraft unions denied Monday that the railroad unions have any incention of joining the miners in a threatened walkout April 1. He said the subject of a meeting with the miners this week was not before the conference. The union chiefs are considering taking an active part in the congressional election in November and will support all candidates favoring the Plumb plan of railroad ownership, it was learned

"We are intensifying our efforts to inforce prohibition," he said. "The big centers of the country like New York and Chicago are our particular objects of attack in this new drive. We are mobilizing for our aid every moral and law-enforcing agency in the country." In a speech before the New York min isterial alliance the prohibition com-missioner declared "magnificent progress" has been made in the work o enforcement the country over.

"Prohibition cannot be nullified," he said, "without tearing the very heart out of our system of government. "I make bold to state that because of the existence of this law no the world was or is so well fortified t stand the test of the strain to which moral fibre, financial and industrial structures and government systems have been subjected. There never was any law in any civilized country as drastic as this law which has been so early and successfully enforced." The commissioner warned against th insidious, clever, unpatriotic, false, wet propaganda under way, that has as its object the delusion of the American people into the belief that the prohibiion law is a failure; that it is unpopular; that it was 'slipped over' on them; that it is not being enforced and cannot

Posts of Receiver And Registrar to Be Consolidated Here

Washington, Jan. 24. - (WASHING-TON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)-A new complication arose in the Portland land office situation today when Senators McNary and Stanfield received notification from Assistant Secretary Finney of the interior department that the receipts at Portland having fallen below $4000 the department will consolidate the position of registrar and receiver. The senators are asked to desgnate their choice for the consolidated office. Previous to this the senators were tangled up over appointment of the receiver, in which a vacancy will occur in the regular course at the end of January. Edward B. Baldwin, secretary to Repesentative Sinnott, and F. G. Northup of Portland had been promised the two places, but a misunderstanding was found to exist as to which should be receiver. Today's development makes only one office instead of two to be filled and the senators will have to reach a decision between the two candidates. While Northup was believed to have the inside track for receiver it is uncertain whether he or Baldwin will receive the consolidated job.

Washington, Jan. 24.-(I. N. S.)-Democratic leaders intend to start this year's congressional campaign, it was disclosed today, with a dinner at Dayton, Ohio, tomorrow night, at which James M. Cox, Democratic presidential candidate in 1920, and Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi will be among the central figures.

The dinner, while held ostensibly to launch the candidacy of Senator Pomerene of Ohio for reelection, is expected to result in Democratic leaders defining some of those national issues on which they are planning to wrest from Repub-licans seats in both the house and senate in the fall elections.

Democratic National Chairman Hull

The chief senatorial contests this year are believed to have narrowed down to York, France of Maryland, and Sutherland of West Virginia, all of whom; Republican leaders fear, may be defeated, while Ashurst of Arizona, Gerry of Rhode Island, Hitchcock of Nebraska, Kendrick of Wyoming and Pomerene Ohio are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded "not present" in the next senate
