

AL KADER IS TO MEET IN SCOTTISH RITE CATHEDRAL

The regular monthly meeting of Al Kader temple, Mystic Shrine, will be held Saturday night, but not in the customary building. A special invitation from the Scottish Rite bodies to meet in the Scottish Rite cathedral, Lowndale and Morrison street, has been accepted by the Shriner and Potentate A. L. Teta issues instructions for all members of the nobility to take notice.

"Pote" Teta is in receipt of a telegram from the housing committee of San Francisco requesting that Al Kader temple send in its reservations for hotel rooms for the annual national convocation of the Mystic Shrine next June, as soon as possible. The Southerners have sent a contract for one of the hotels. It is stated that the demand for housing facilities is more than was expected.

Portland and Oregon Shriners who intend taking in the convention next June are requested to get in touch with the recorder in the Pythian building or visit Potentate Teta at his office, 504 Imperial hotel, within the next 10 days. Negotiations are pending for the securing the steamer Great Northern or the Northern Pacific to transport the red sea wearers from Portland to San Francisco, but an active response from local Shriners is urgent to complete the deal. The transportation committee composed of Harvey Beckwith, chairman; Earl D. Walker and Frank M. Walker is working with "Pote" Teta in settling the financial end of the program.

Saturday night's meeting will be the first one presided over by the new potentate since his election last month and several important matters will be up for discussion. Herman von Borstel, chairman of the entertainment committee, may have one or two acts to put on if the meeting proper does not take too long.

Officers Are Elected By Electric League

The Hydro-Electric league Thursday night elected the following officers for 1922: F. E. Beach, president; J. L. Dunn, first vice president; W. W. Harrah, second vice president; George L. Cleaver, secretary; Emmet Drake, treasurer.

The following were named on the executive committee: Rufus Holman, Walter M. Pierce, Charles Cooney, T. A. Ward, Charles W. Gates, Fred H. Kiser and the five officers.

Resolution Seating Newberry Is Rotten, Says Senator Reed

Washington, Jan. 27.—(U. N. S.)—In seating Senator Newberry of Michigan with a resolution in which the lavish expenditure of campaign funds was strongly condemned, the Republican majority "committed a measurably stupid and measurably idiotic act that was black with infamy," Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, declared in the senate this afternoon.

"Crimson in its crime" and "degrading in its iniquity" and "reeking rotten in all its parts" were some of the expressions applied by Senator Reed to the passage of the resolution by which Senator Newberry was retained in his seat.

22nd Raid Has Fatal End for Store Thief

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 27.—(U. N. S.) The first 21 times his store was robbed, F. J. Dunkle, merchant, of Berwick, a suburb, stood for it. When a bandit entered the store early today and attempted the twenty-second robbery, Dunkle rebelled, however, and shot and killed the intruder. The slain man has not been identified.

RANLET STILL IN LEAD FOR HAND OF KITTY GORDON

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 27.—(U. P.)—Cupid dealt Kitty Gordon, actress, a tough hand in her three-cornered matrimonial match—but today Kitty was raising all bets.

Ralph Ranlet, New York broker, and Jack Wilson, stage star, are both playing strong hands, but Kitty still avers she holds the trump card.

In long distance love talks to the pretty actress early this morning Ralph Ranlet, New York broker, and Jack Wilson, stage star, crossed wires—Kitty emerged with a smile and repeated today with added emphasis:

"I am going to marry no one but Ralph Ranlet."

"I feel complimented, but I am not going to marry Miss Gordon," Ranlet is reported to have said in New York.

And down in Chattanooga, Tenn., Wilson, a former stage partner of Miss Gordon's, is reported as saying that he, and he alone, was engaged to the beautiful Kitty.

As for Kitty, she is weary from three days of insistent declarations that she is going to wed the New Yorker, only to have them denied in Gotham. And when told of the report from Chattanooga that Jack Wilson had indignantly declared he himself was going to marry her, Kitty merely laughed, and predicted that her English husband, Honorable Henry Beresford, would probably take the next hand in the bidding.

"Mr. Ranlet asked me not to say anything more about our engagement until I have secured my divorce," said Kitty today. "But he denied that he ever said we were not engaged. As for Jack Wilson, he knows that I am going to marry Ralph. And he, too, denied that he has ever said I would marry him."

Kitty plunged back into a volume of Strindberg's "Married" and admitted the problems of matrimony were huge and kept her "guessing."

Mexican Garrisons At Many Points Are Reported in Revolt

Laredo, Texas, Jan. 27.—(U. N. S.)—Only meager details reached here today of the revolt of the Mexican garrison at Camargo, 100 miles south of this city, on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande river.

Mexican authorities in Nuevo Laredo declined to make a statement other than it was an "inspired affair."

At last reports the soldiers of the garrison, numbering 150 well armed men, were in possession of the post and had no idea of surrendering.

Garrisons at other points in the state of Tamaulipas were reported to have revolted today and similar reports came from points in the state of Coahuila.

Fingerprint Method To Be Supplied All Sheriffs of State

Every sheriff's office and district attorney's office in the state will be supplied with instructions for the taking of fingerprints and the keeping of records. The instructions will be prepared by J. M. Hunter, expert from Portland police headquarters, who this morning addressed the state convention of district attorneys at the courthouse on fingerprint methods. When Hunter had completed his talk, he was asked if he could not write out his address and give it to District Attorney Myers of Multnomah county, who would prepare mimeographed copies and send them to all sheriffs and district attorneys in the state. This was agreed upon.

Hunter explained that the lines on the balls of no two fingers are exactly alike and that when records of the fingerprints of criminals are taken these men can never disguise themselves so they cannot be identified.

Following Hunter's talk the district attorneys took up a discussion of the non-support laws, led by George Neuser Jr. This afternoon at 2 o'clock a business session was called and resolutions introduced. At 2:30 District Attorney Myers was to lead a discussion of the divorce problem.

Highway Commission And Foresters Meet

With a view of formulating financing and construction plans for the coming season the state highway commission is today in conference with representatives of the federal forest service and bureau of public roads relative to the question of federal aid. It is expected to reach an agreement on the projects to be undertaken this year in cooperation with the national government. Up to noon no definite decision had been reached.

J. N. Davis Has Eye On Circuit Bench of Multnomah County

James N. Davis, a lawyer with offices in The Journal building, is planning to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for judge of department 5 of the Multnomah circuit court, according to political rumor. Judge Gatens is now the incumbent in this department and is expected to be a candidate to succeed himself. Judge Gatens is a Democrat and has held his position during two six-year terms, and a fraction, having been appointed to the bench by Governor George E. Chamberlain prior to his leaving the governor's chair following his election to the United States senate by the legislature of 1909. Gatens was private secretary to Governor Chamberlain during his tenure as chief executive. Davis was a candidate for circuit judge at the primary election of 1918.
