

MELLON IGNORED; CAUCUS AGREES TO PUSH BONUS BILL

(By United News)
Washington, Jan. 27.—House Republicans have agreed that a soldier bonus bill should be passed at an early date.

At the caucus Thursday night they adopted a resolution calling on the ways and means committee to prepare a bill without delay, and determined upon its enactment.

The caucus did not recommend the means by which it thought the necessary revenue should be raised and there was a wide difference of opinion on this. Some favored a sales tax which would utilize interest payments on the debts of foreign governments.

IGNORE MELLON'S WISH
The action of the caucus comes in the face of a letter from Secretary Mellon arguing against any sort of a bonus and declaring it would be futile to depend on foreign debt payments.

The house majority thus has put itself in line with the majority in the upper chamber, which also approved passage of a bonus bill at a caucus.

Leaders plan to have the house consider the bonus bill first, while the senate devotes itself to other matters. Republican party lines will be broken and Republicans will be defeated in the next election if a sales tax is levied by congress to pay a soldier's bonus.

Representative Fear of Wisconsin, declared in a speech in the house today.

He charged that sales tax legislation was to be "jammed through the house under a gag rule."

ARKANSAS MAN SURPRISED

Representative Oldfield, Democrat of Arkansas, a member of the house ways and means committee, said he was "surprised that the Republicans had united on a plan to impose a sales tax."

The Democratic plan for payment of a soldier's bonus—direct appropriation from the treasury backed by sale of government certificates of indebtedness—was presented to the house today by Representative Garner of Texas.

Reimbursement of the treasury would be made under the Democratic plan from receipts from interest payments on foreign loans or through sales of obligations received from foreign governments as payments on the loans.

Two Local Boys to Take Examination For U.S. Academies

Washington, Jan. 27.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Senator Stanfield today announced the following list of Oregon boys for the military and naval academies as the result of competitive examinations recently held subject to final entrance examination: West Point Military academy, Samuel Pickens Collins of Eugene and Jerry Brandom of Portland; Annapolis Naval academy, Spencer A. Carlson of Eugene; and Army Academy of West Point, Paul J. Shell of Astoria as first alternate.

"It always has been my ambition to go to Annapolis," said Aaron Touhy, Portland youth selected for the entrance examination for the naval academy. Young Touhy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Touhy, 1473 Oneonta street, was graduated from Jefferson high school last June. He is now employed by the O. W. R. & M. Co.

Jerry Brandom is a senior in Lincoln high school. He will be graduated in June. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brandom, 1085 East Alder street.

Western Pacific May Buy Oregon Line, Report Says

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—(U. P.)—Plans for extension of the Western Pacific railway's "feeder" lines into Oregon were being discussed in business circles here today following the return of C. M. Levy, president of the road, from a meeting of stockholders in New York. The speech was regarded as more than an explanation of Germany's new taxation policy. It was called a reply to the declaration of policy recently announced in the French chamber of deputies by Premier Poincaré.

Newspapers expressed satisfaction over the chancellor's declaration that Germany will not surrender to France the so-called "criminals."

German Press Backs Wirth's Firm Stand As to French Policy

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The German press today unanimously endorsed Chancellor Wirth's taxation speech delivered in the reichstag Thursday afternoon. The speech was regarded as more than an explanation of Germany's new taxation policy. It was called a reply to the declaration of policy recently announced in the French chamber of deputies by Premier Poincaré.

News papers expressed satisfaction over the chancellor's declaration that Germany will not surrender to France the so-called "criminals."

Altogether the speech was regarded as a clever political coup disarming the argument of the nationalists that the chancellor was showing weakness in dealing with France.

The proposed forced loan of forty billion paper marks from "big business" will bear no interest.

FAMED WOMAN WRITER DIES FROM PNEUMONIA

Nellie Bly

NELLIE BLY DEAD FROM PNEUMONIA

New York, Jan. 27.—(U. P. S.)—Nellie Bly, in private life, Mrs. Robert L. Sedman, one of the special writers on the staff of the Evening Journal, died today of pneumonia in St. Marks hospital. She became ill two weeks ago and shortly afterward was taken to the hospital from her rooms in the Hotel McAlpin. She sank steadily and yesterday no further hope was held out for her recovery.

Nellie Bly was 56 years old and had led a tremendously active life—for more so than falls to the lot of one woman in ten thousand. She was a newspaper writer from her early youth, managed two large corporations for a time and in her later life returned to newspaper work with as great an avidity as she had shown in her younger days. The thing that made her famous, made her name known not only throughout America, but all over Europe and in many other parts of the civilized world, besides, was her trip around the globe in 1889, in 72 days, six hours and 11 minutes—the fastest world circling trip ever made up to that time. She undertook the trip to prove that Jules Verne's famous romance "Around the World in Eighty Days," could be matched in reality and she did considerably better than the French novelist's hero. Her passage was followed with the greatest interest, not to say excitement, by newspaper readers here and abroad.

Wilson's Friends Unfurl Colors Foundation Drive Gaining Ground

Where are the friends of Woodrow Wilson?
They are answering, some of them, the urge of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

They are contributing, some of them, to the fund which is to form the basis of a fund recognizing the contribution to the cause of peace, democracy and human welfare.

J. G. Short came from Graham to Woodrow Wilson headquarters, Thursday, with his silver offering. Mrs. Mary Widmer of 555 East Stark street, brought her contribution personally in order that not a minute might be lost in the progress toward Oregon's still distant goal.

The last appeal was for a flood of dime, dollar and intermediate amounts from the many who believe that the welfare of humanity is closely related to the perpetuation of the ideals enunciated by Woodrow Wilson.

LARGES SUMS SOUGHT
There was simultaneously, an appeal for larger amounts which the flying squadrons headed by Dr. C. J. Smith is understood to be gathering. The most recent responses include the names of Mary M. Lash, Mrs. Percy Allen, G. A. Bennett, A. L. Runney, George H. Gray, Amalia A. Beach, C. W. Lewis, R. C. King, George M. Johnson, Dr. Robert L. Brown, E. D. Van Court, Edna M. Marsh, Garfield Marsh, Mrs. Eleanor Rockwell, Cynthia Osgood, Anna Lee McBride of Portland; Edward J. Harlow of The Dalles, Mrs. M. J. Baker of Lafayette, T. C. Shaw of Cottage Grove, G. Y. Wimberly of Klamath Falls, E. O. Larson of Yonkers; G. M. Walsman of Seaside, O. M. Sanford and Mrs. Sanford of Forest Grove, Walter D. Wood of Bay City, tion. Other county chairmen have been asked for progress reports.

Although the Woodrow Wilson Foundation campaign is strictly non-partisan, the interest which might be expected was expressed at a meeting of the Multnomah county Democratic central committee in the assembly room of The Journal building Thursday evening, with Dr. Elmer T. Hodgins in the chair. President committeemen were asked to be responsible each for contributions aggregating not less than $10. They will make returns this week.

Pharmacists Select Krohm as President

K. F. Krohm was elected president of the American registered pharmacists of Portland recently at a meeting in the Panama building. Other officers elected: F. X. Green, secretary; F. L. Coon, D. Harland and W. H. Schuler, directors. It seems that the first duty of a European cabinet is to crack under strain.
