

HALL IS REPORTED INDORSED IN RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

The gubernatorial candidacy of Senator Charles E. Hall of Marshfield has been given the indorsement of the convictees of delegates of the Federated Patriotic Societies, according to the rumor which comes from the headquarters of that organization in the Pythian hall.

POLITICIANS AMUSED

This modest statement of the Coos county senator is a little bit amusing to the politicians, however, since it has been generally known among them for some time that Senator Hall has been campaigning on the trail of the indorsement ever since it became known that the Federated Societies, or those in command of that adhesive organization, intended to pick a gubernatorial standard bearer.

WILLIAM MAY BE OUT

The story was gaining volume during last week that George H. Kelly did not, and does not, intend to be a candidate for governor at this time. He is said, by his close friends, to have been "kidding" among the boys on the theory that publicity hurts no man, but with the inner conviction that the political waters are too murky just at this time to warrant his getting into the pool.

CAKE THINKING IT OVER

William M. Cake of Portland is "thinking it over," and has no statement to make at this time. Judge Cake, however, is not influenced by the indorsement given to Senator Hall, for the problem

EVA BOOTH GETS OVATION; TROOP HEARS ADDRESS

A capacity audience gathered at the Auditorium Sunday night to hear Commander Evangelina Booth of the Salvation Army deliver her world famous address, "The World's Greatest Romance." Hundreds were turned away from the building by uniformed police, who stood on the outside to prevent incessant rattling of the doors.

OLCOTT IS SILENT

Governor Olcott is still silent as to his intentions, though it is accepted as certain that he will be a candidate. Judge Lowell of Portland is expected to start out almost any day. J. D. Lee is hot-footing it about Multnomah county in his own interest, and Adjutant General George A. White is supposed to be bound to stay out because of the indorsement given him, if that rumor is true.

LEANS TO CORPORATIONS

Hall, however, has been closely connected with a manager and directing head with the telephone company in the past, and he is now engaged in the banking business. He has, in his service in the state senate, been conspicuous as a well wisher of corporate business and politicians are arguing that he expects to build up the fortunes of his political strength upon these corner stones.

Revival of Odessa As Trade Port, Plan Of Russian Soviet

(Special Cable to The Oregon Journal and the Chicago Daily News.) (Copyright, 1922.) Constantinople, Feb. 13.—The Ukrainian republic, together with the Southern Russian soviet, is preparing to re-open Odessa as a trade port, and make it again the foremost Black sea port and trade center. The idea of the revival of Odessa occurred to the soviet government when they were compelled to reorganize the harbor to receive the seed wheat sent by the American relief organization.
