Arthur Middleton, American Baritone, Sings Here Monday

Arthur Middleton, great American baritone, will be heard in concert at the Auditorium next Monday evening and his coming is attracting much interest among concert devotees. Middleton is accorded to have one of the finest concert baritone voices now before the public. He appeared here in concert last season at the Heilig theatre, and so successful was the event that his re-engagement for this season was the result. Eminent critics have called Middleton the "John McCormack" of baritones, his fine big resonant voice, his pleasing manner and almost perfect diction making his concert events which are always looked forward to with keen interest. The concert will be under Elywna Conner bureau direction.

Of Pastors, Are Utilized by Kids

Brownsville, Or., Feb. 15.—When a local pastor bought several dozen corn cobs last week the purchase was innocuous enough. The results, however, are heartrending to this minister. The boys, to whom the pipes were given at a church community party that they might blow soap bubbles, are making normal use of them on the streets while the pastor cudgels his brains for a means of halting the epidemic of youthful smoking.

No better precautions can be taken than those which surround the production of Borden's EVAPORATED MILK. The average patient suffering from Bright's disease feels quite hopeless of returning to a good condition of health. But our Milk and Rest Cure combined with osteopathic treatment has given many of those sufferers benefits so far beyond their hopes we feel it is right to attract attention to our Sanitarium method of treating this disease. Inquiry invited.
