THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL East Side Baptist Church Converts Sunday School Into Theological Seminary

4 BIBLE SCHOOLS HELD ON SUNDAY

Overcrowded conditions at the East Side Baptist Sunday school have made it ecessary for the church trustees to provide additional equipment to care for the rapidly growing school. Last Sunday $10 were present. A modern two-story sight-room house on East Salmon street, adjacent to the church, has been purchased and remodeled by the trustees at a cost of $7000. The first floor of the building will be psed by the beginners' department, which numbers 90 children, and the second floor rooms will probably be used by adult

This chapse means that four simultaneous Bible schools will be held hereafter on Sunday mornings. The intermediate, senior and adult departments will meet in the church auditorium under the supervision of General Superintendent A. Smith: the junior department will I. A. Smith; the junior department will meet in one-half of the church basement under the supervision of Miss Iva Shel-ton; the primary department in the other half of the basement under the direction of Mrs. Crossett, and the beginners' department in the new house under the lirection of Mrs. C. O. Stevens. Each direction of Mrs. C. O. Stevens. Each department will meet as a separate Bible school, having its own opening and clos-ing exercises. A covered passageway connects the church and house.
