Pitching Trio Joins Camp; Cox Is Signed

By George Berts
PARADISE, Cal., March 4.—Pitchers James Middleton, Harvey Freeman and Jimmy "Budd" Sutherland joined the Portland Beavers training camp here today. Jimmy was delayed 16 hours in reaching here because of the heavy snow in Kansas.

At the Training Camps

SAAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 4.—The work of Heinie Grob, playing third base for the Giants for the first time in 1932, was not as good as the world champion's workout. The Giant infield, regarded as the fastest in baseball, was lined up with Grob at third. Sutherland will start at second and Kelly Smith, subbing for Kelly, on first. Kelly has not reported yet, being ill in California.

To Determine New Rules in Pigskin Play

By Walter Camp
NEW YORK, March 4.—The character of the game of football which the public will see next fall will be determined next week. The football rules committee will meet Friday. It will have before it the suggestions which have resulted from sectional meetings of coaches and officials and action on these will be watched with intense interest by both the public and by the thousands of coaches who are waiting to conform their plans for next year to the modifications decided on.

P.C.C. Hoop Title Won By Vandals

MOSCOW, Idaho, March 4.—By defeating Washington State college here Friday night 31 to 21, the University of Idaho basketball team takes both the Pacific Coast and Northwest conference titles for 1931-32. Although the Vandals may drop tomorrow night's game to be played at Pullman to the Cougars, they still will head the percentage column in both conferences.

Bowling

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 4.—(U. N. S.)—Leading positions in the doubles and singles events in the international tournament of the American Bowling Congress in progress here are expected to be usurped by out of town bowlers, who banged the pins so lustily last night in the five man event that exceptionally high totals for this early stage of the pin joust were registered.

Women With Escorts to Go in Free

D. E. C. M'FARLAND, chairman of the Portland boxing commission, has announced that women will be admitted free of charge at the smoker scheduled for tonight in the Armory, but each must be accompanied by a man holding a $3 seal.

Turners' Exhibition To Be Held Tonight

The final dress rehearsal for the fourteenth annual exhibition of the Portland Social Turnverein was held and Professor Richard Bennett is ready to take the grand opening at 8:15 o'clock in The Auditorium tonight. Sixteen numbers are on the program and no waits or delays will be tolerated.

Dual Meet Depends On Examinations

Columbia, Mo., March 4.—(U. N. S.)—The University of Missouri will meet the University of California in a dual meet at Berkeley on April 15, if the Missouri athletic authorities succeed in their efforts to rearrange the examination schedule so as to enable the Tigers to make the trip.

Boxing

NEW YORK, March 4.—(U. P.)—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and Jack Kearns, his manager, will sail for Europe in about three weeks, the latter stated today. Kearns intimated that the trip abroad would set back the proposed Dempsey-Wills match until Labor day.
