

POLICE RAID ON DANCE SCHOOLS IN WHITES, NEGROES

General carousing, white girls of tender years clutched in the arms of drunken negroes, high school boys whirling negro belles in dancing—such was the scene at the Nevada house, notorious negro resort at 220 Fifteenth street north, when 11 members of Sergeant Oelener's vice squad raided the cafe early Sunday morning and arrested 23 negroes and whites.

Several young men, said to be high school students, were arrested for disorderly conduct, and held for bail at the city jail.

Police swooped down on the dive shortly after midnight, when almost 80 whites and blacks of both sexes were mingling in drunken disorder. Boisterous dancers were fighting for places on a dancing floor in the center of the cafe when the officers broke through the doors.

CONFUSION FOLLOWS RAID

The room was thrown in confusion when the police entered, and many boiled pell mell for the door, only to be stopped by police. Others succeeded in escaping and soon Dartkown was in wild disorder from fleeing guests of the peace.

One negro, Jess Halsell, 20, ran from the building and sprang into Patrolman Pierce's automobile. He was pursued in the stolen machine and captured at Seventh and Northrup streets. The fugitive was jailed on a charge of auto larceny.

Wine, whiskey and moonshine was in evidence everywhere, according to officers who conducted the raid. Every table had some sort of liquor on it, they said.

The body of William O. Ritter, 25, 428 East Ankeny street, missing since Wednesday, when he left the steamer Claire at Municipal terminal No. 2, where he was employed as cook, was found on the top of Rocky Butte Sunday afternoon by two Boy Scouts. A bullet wound was found in his head, where he evidently shot himself with the .32 calibre revolver which lay near his side.

A note in the dead man's clothing stated that he committed suicide because of ill health and inability to work.

PATROL KEPT BUSY

The police patrol wagon was obliged to make three trips in order to handle the arrested guests of the place. Many negroes were permitted to go without being arrested.

The following names, given by those arrested in the raid, appear on the police blotter:

'TYPO' UNION CHIEF IS VISITOR IN CITY

John McParland

STATE FREE FROM STRIKE TROUBLES, SAYS UNION HEAD

Comparative freedom from dissension between printers and publishers in Oregon was revealed Sunday afternoon by John McParland of New York, president of the International Typographical union, who spoke before members of the local organization at Labor temple. McParland spent Sunday in Portland, stopping here on his way to San Francisco from Seattle.

While 7242 typographers, or roughly 10 per cent of the union, are on strike benefits in United States and Canada at present, he said, but four strikers, or approximately one half of 1 per cent of the state membership are out in Oregon.

McParland told of the success with which the union is having with its present contest for the 44-hour week. Funds totaling $7,802,492.64 have been raised by the union for payment of strike benefits to striking members, of which $8,884,844.48 has been expended. "The union is stronger today," said McParland, "in the midst of its strike for the 44-hour week than it was at the end of the strike for the 48-hour week. It seems that the harder the struggle is the stronger it makes the union."

Sunday morning McParland, who was on his first visit to Portland, was conducted on a tour of the Columbia river highway. "It certainly is wonderful," he commented.

Following the union meeting in the afternoon a banquet for printers and representatives of Portland publishers was held at Bab's restaurant, 326 Stark street, at 4:30 o'clock. McParland spent the evening in conference with local union officials, the nature of which was not revealed. He left shortly after midnight for San Francisco, where he expects to be for some time.

ECONOMY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT IN BEAN'S PLATFORM

INLAND EMPIRE TO JOIN IN CAMPAIGN ON COLUMBIA BASIN

Eugene, March 6.—Retrenchment, economy, law enforcement were the keynotes of Representative L. E. Bean's banquet speech here Saturday night before a big crowd. Great enthusiasm was manifested when his platform was read.

Bean said: "Oregon lacks but 15 per cent of adopting Henry George's single tax, since 85 per cent taxes are from land, which in some cases pays full rental value. Oregon's debt is $312,000,000, almost one-third of the assessed valuation. The war debt is $121,000,000; bonds, $141,000,000, and mortgages, $52,000,000. Personal taxes, notes, bonds, accounts amount to only 3 6-10 per cent of the total. The state's bank deposits are $300,000,000.

"Oregon lost its chance for irrigation when the federal government transferred to the general fund $9,000,000, while the state paid in $11,000,000 for national reclamation.

"State taxes have increased 244 per cent in 10 years, from $12,000,000 to $41,000,000. Oregon's enormous tax burden is the greatest question faced by any state in the nation. I oppose invariable government. Law enforcement is the paramount duty of the chief executive. Women have made good with their use of suffrage."

Other speakers were David Graham, toastmaster; Frank Jenkins, who declared that "Election of Bean is a community enterprise"; W. V. Calkins, who said he was associated with Bean in the legislature and that "Bean was held in great respect for his integrity and ability" and that "all Lane Democrats should register Republican."

Rev. E. V. Stevers declared that "Bean will stand for right and will enforce the laws." Dr. Harris, who has been 14 years in the legislature with Bean, said he possesses moral rectitude and plenty of common horse sense.

Judge Skipworth, associated in the law business with Bean for 20 years, asserted

Give It to Them— This trial tube—watch their teeth improve

If you prefer, let your children make this test. Let them brush their teeth a few days in this modern way. Then look and see what film removal means.

This is a way to whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. Millions now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. Let someone in your home this week show the benefits it brings.

[Why teeth look dingy]

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. It dims and may ruin teeth.

Ordinary tooth pastes do not effectively combat it. So film-coats have been almost universal.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film, and, despite the tooth brush, they have constantly increased.

Must remove it daily

Dental science has long been seeking a daily film combatant. Now two effective methods have been found. Authorities have proved them by many careful tests.

A new-day tooth paste has been perfected, to comply with modern requirements. And these two film combatants are embodied in it. The name of the tooth paste is Pepsodent.

Millions of people of some forty races now employ it daily, largely by dental advice.

Two other new effects

Pepsodent brings two other effects which authorities now deem essential. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva. That is there to digest starch
