

6 INCHES OF SNOW COVER WHEAT BELT

Kansas City, Mo., March 10.—(U. P.)—Another heavy snow, ranging from six inches to one foot in depth, lay over the southwestern wheat belt today. A flit and high wind, accompanying the storm in Central and Western Kansas, cut Salina and other towns off from wire communication with the outside world. Train schedules were dematerialized from the west and highway were blocked, temporarily closing rural schools.

CHERUBS MARRIAGE LICENSES
Chehalis, Wash., March 10.—Marriage licenses were issued Wednesday to Roy Miller, Pocatello, Idaho, and Lean Miller, Olympia, and Raymond L. Whistler, Altona, and Leona Belcher, Swiford.

SO easy to prepare

—so quickly cooked. No chance for failure. You are so sure to please. You just bless that little oyster!

"Dames of Olympia" recipes

Olympia Oysters—Fried.
Drain Oysters, fill in cracker or bread crumbs and beaten egg—about 1 egg to 1 pint of Oysters. Season with salt and pepper. Mould into small cakes; let stand awhile; then fry in butter until a golden brown. Serve hot (do not destroy plumpness in cooking) garnished with slices of lemon and parsley.

Olympia Oyster Pie.
Cover a deep plate with rich puff paste and bake. Then fill with Olympia Oysters, drained; season with salt and pepper and plenty of butter; add 2 hard-boiled eggs, sliced. Cover with just a sprinkling of cracker crumbs. Over all pour the liquor from the Oysters, and cover with puff paste, securing the edges well and prickling with fork. Bake 20 minutes in an oven not too hot (preserve plumpness of oysters).

So low in cost

In the home market (Puget Sound) the recipes above would cost for oysters per portion 13½¢ to 16½¢; in the distant markets (California) 19¢ to 24¢. Everything considered no other meat nucleus can be obtained at less cost. Every particle of Olympia Oysters is edible—no bones, no waste! they are all good!

So delicious

—simply "Class!" As poets would say: "Sea gods' kisses!" They are richer, tastier, than the famous Ostends which Shakespeare ate in his day, and upon which other intellectual kings of his and a later day feasted. And always fresh! In their virgin, native nectar! Fresh from the ice-cold waters of Puget Sound every day.
