PLANS TO EXTEND FRONT STREET TO BE THRESHED OUT

mittee consists of E R Mac-Naughton, E. A. Doyle and O. Laurguard, city engineer. Officials of the to have met with the committee, but that has been postponed until Monday.

The plan under consideration now is extend Front street north from Nicocrossings on the railroad tracks, of which there are two lines at present the street will be built on the east side

Extension of Front street itself is regarded as impractical, for north of Nicolai the Portland Vegetable Oil company and the Willamette Iron & Steel would be the street area if extended. To prevent any difficulty it is propose Front street shall be made to merge with Sherlock avenue and then go north to the terminal. Here again difficul eifie Lumber mills are built so close to the railroad tracks that there is no soom for the proposed 60 foot street. As the tracks from the terminal to the depot will have to be rebuilt sooner or later the committee is considering mov ing the present tracks some 100 feet to west as a means of solution of their troubles. The rail officials will discuss neeting to be held Monday. Plans for the improvement of Fron street provide for its being widened to with 12 foot sidewalk strips on each side. The street will be paved from Glisan north to the terminal.

BASEBALL TEAM DENIED EXCLUSIVE USE OF PARK regularly. With diamonds being built at Pier, Irving, Vernon, Montavilla, Brooklyn Woodstock parks, in addition to the ones now at Buckman park, C. P. Keyser, superintendent of parks, announced today that Sellwood and Columbia parks could not be used exclusively by one haseball team this summer. A request was made through the Sellwood Board of Trade for the exclusive use of Sellwood park for a local baseball team. This, Keyser said, was against the polley of the park bureau. Residents of the districts around the parks where the diamonds are now under construction are exerting every effort. said to make them a success. G. M. Ridd of the Alberta district donated the umber for the construction of a clubuse at Vernon park, while the boys of Montavilla have agreed to remove all condition if the park bureau will build a backstop.

"The folks that get things are those that are willing to help," Keyser said. Those willing to sit around and watch others accomplish results breed nothing but a feeling of being slighted."

Fiend Pours Acid In Seeking Revenge AMERICA NOT TO

By David Lawrence (Copyright, 1922, by The Journal)

Washington, March 10. - America meant no threat to England and France at a nearby grocery. in her note about the Genoa conference they must be applied to the groups, particularly those headed by Hugo Stinnes shock that lasted for a period of six in Germany, which seek exploitation in

This interpretation of the Hughes note came from official quarters today following the spread of rumors to the effect that America, in the note declining invitation to the economic conference at Genoa, had warned France and Great Britain that exploitation of Russian re by their respective national was not likely to bring funds in lieu of German reparation payments.

SENTENCE SIGNIFICANT The truth is the United States did Not aim its note at any particular nation, but expressed itself on the whole economic situation in Europe without regard to nationalities. There is deen significance, however, in one sentence of the American note which probably will cause some to ponder. It reads

"It is also the view of this govern ment-and it trusts that view is shared by the governments who have called the conference-that while awaiting the establishment of the essential basis of productivity, in Russia • • nothing should be done looking to the obtaining of economic advantages in Russia which would impair the just opportunities of others, but that the resources of the Russian people should be free from such exploitation and that fair and equal opportunity in their interest as well as in the interest of all the powers should be preserved."

SEES POLITICAL TANGLE Even if the United States had decide to take part in the Genoa conference. nothing more expressive of the Ameribeen spoken. America gives as her reason for staying away from Genoa the fact that political entanglements in Europe are involved, but there is recognition in executive quarters here, nevertheless, the certain economic develop-ments affecting the United States are inescapable. Because America believes

t is to the interest of the allied governments to have the same view, the American note deals publicly with one For, while it is true that the United States will be physically absent from the Genoa conference, there is no intenbasin territory. INSISTS ON PUNDAMENTALS

The United States government feels that on economic questions there are certain fundamental laws and problems which the allied governments must follow if they want to restore Russia and the remainder of Europe. America will for the present confine herself to emphasis on those fundamentals, but expects Europe to recognize them first and put them into operation. The Genoa noet may mean hands off so far as participation in the actual conversations may be concerned, but officials say it has been entirely miscon-strued if it has been accepted as isolation from instead of experation with Europe. When the fundamentals of Europe's economic troubles are straightened out, America will gladly help. And by that time the treaties signed at the Washington arms conference will have been rejected or ratified, as the case may be, and American spokesmen will be more certain of what they can say and do.

FEAR GENOA CONFERENCE MAY FAIL WITH U. S. QUT (Special Wireless to The Journal and the Chicago Daily News) (Copyright, 1922) Berlin, March 10.—Secretary Hughes' announcement that the United States has decided against accepting the invi-tation to the Genoa conference is con-sidered here a grave handicap which may cause the complete failure of the meeting, which was to find ways and means of reconstructing the world's shattered economic situation

The refusal is a heavy blow to the Wirth cabinet, which had placed great same time Germany feels that France and Italy will be even more disappointed, as the absence of the United States will preclude the discuss the allied war debts to the trans-Atlantic republic, thus forcing these coun tries to carry on direct negotiations. In recent speeches President Ebert and Foreign Secretary Ratheneau referred to the graveness of the German sit-uation and indirectly expressed the hope drawing from European affairs, would again take an active part in them. Ratheneau even came out with the flat statement that the Genoa conference and others to follow it this year and next will come to nothing without American

In American business circles it is declared that the United States stands to loss out on Russian trade, as the soviet deliberators at the Genoa conference will get in touch with representatives of Germany and other industrial countries, but will meet no Americans.

Los Angeles, March 10 .- (I. N. S.)-Madalynne Obenchain resumed the stand for cross examination today when court was called in her trial for the alleged murder of J. Belton Kennedy, for an ordeal that was admittedly to decide the outcome of her case.

Determined to break down h of her ill-fated romance with J. Belton Kennedy, and her account of his murder by "two shabbily dressed men," claims she saw fleeing from the scene of the slaying, Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes began a test of every sentence of her testimony. Keyes' aim was to smash the structure of Mrs. Obenchain's story in any one part, to undermine it so that it would come crashing down in a huge victory for the prosecution. Facing him on the stand sat Mrs. Obenchain, confident that her testimony would stand intact throughout the cross examination. It was obvious that both Keyes and Mrs. Obenchain realized that the outcome of the case depended almost
