Bruggy Balks At Coast Job Mate States

By George Berz
Portland Tribune Staff
Pasadena, Cal., March 21.—Frank Bruggy, the big catcher purchased from the Philadelphia club, is not anxious to come to the coast, judging from the remarks dropped by J. Sargent, Beaver third-sacker, who was Bruggy's roommate a couple of seasons ago. Bruggy is undoubtedly being sought by the Brooklyn Nationals, for Sargent declared to Scout Turner that the Dodgers were said to be willing to part with Fletcher Roy Gordon, a right-hander, and Larry, former New Orleans catcher, for the ex-Phillie.

By John B. Foster

STRAVANCE noises on the Texas plains, like the howling of the wolves in the timber, come from John Evers and Kid Gleason, laughing because of the victory over the Giants. Particularly long and rasping is the sneering yowl of Evers, who wasn't good enough for the National league and was let go by Chicago before he had played a game. He is helping them in the box. They have since 1919. Evers knew the Giants like a book, and has made his team play for all it is worth.

Hank Foster Gets Ass't Coach Job At U. of Oregon

Must Average 3 1/2 Miles a Minute To Win Big Race

WASHINGTON, March 21.—While French and British sportsmen are wagering large sums on the coming air race between Sadi Lecolne and J. Herbert James, in which the winner must fly at around 3 1/2 miles a minute the Amn air service is grooming a dark horse.

There is no chance of Portland trading Bruggy according to Manager Kenworthy, who says that BRUGGY will either play in Portland or not at all. If Portland wanted to dispose of Bruggy, it is believed that a big sum would be realized in a sale than Portland paid Philadelphia for him. St. Louis and Pittsburgh are said to be in need of a catcher who would be willing to pay for his services.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Moet Luis Firpo, the Argentine pug, is doing well ahead of the crowd. For Luis is going to be popular. As a matter of fact, the heavyweights last Thursday night got to take a great brace in the near future, just because of this guy. Who is Firpo? Why, Firpo is the Argentine scrapper who has been doing well in the ring down in South America. You may not recall it, but two years ago Gunboat Smith went down to Buenos Aires to hammer Firpo, and the result was that Gunboat's idea was that he was to give the Argentine fighter a boxing lesson. To his great surprise, at least he was surprised, he found that he was not so much as he was put away in the twelfth round.

A match between Harry Platt and Carl Vreeland, lightweights, will conclude the boxing program. Pyramid building by an outside boys' organization and weight-lifting will be the other features of the evening's entertainment.

Neumann is a strong hitter, while Kleffner is rather weak with the stick.

OLD PITCHERS START SLOW

Old pitchers are not showing up as well as they did in 1921. They aren't expected to be at their best until early in May; but if there was expectation that the good pitching of the world series last year was to be followed by contests in which the hits would be kept down to a midsummer minimum, folks had better get another opinion. In fact, for all games that have been played thus far the percentage average of hits as compared with 1921 doesn't vary one whit.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Lowell City, March 21.—(U. P.)—Aubrey Devine, pitcher of the first Scottish professional variety letter. He left the basketball squad for the track in an effort to win his ninth "I".

ORIENTAL SUPERSTITION?

Perhaps so—but at least an interesting relic of Asiatic antiquity, to say the least, is being worn by a number of our citizens. It is a small, round, flat object, usually made of wood or metal, and is worn on the finger. It is said to be a relic of the ancient Chinese, and is worn by many of the Chinese in the Orient.
