

CITY EDITION
It's All Here and It's All True
WILSON AND LANSING--Why did President Wilson appoint him to be his successor? The story will be told in 'The Mirrors of Washington' in 'The Sunday Journal' tomorrow.

Journal
DAILY
WITH HER
SHE FLIES
OWN WINGS

CITY EDITION
It's All Here and It's All True
THE WEATHER--Tonight and Sunday, fair; heavy frost Sunday morning.
Minimum temperature Friday:
Portland, 28; Oregon, 28;
Pocatello, 28; New York, 40;
Los Angeles, 50; St. Paul, 55

RUSSIA URGED TO RECOGNIZE INDEBTEDNESS

Stubbness of Soviet Delegation at Genoa Leaves Big Question in Doubt; Lloyd George Guiding Negotiations.
Genoa, April 15--(U. P.)--Final consummation of an agreement reported to have been reached regarding Russia's recognition of her pre-war debts was placed in doubt this afternoon.

Easter to Be Frosty But Fair

In spite of a sudden thunder storm, with lightning accompaniment, which bobbed up soon after 3 p. m. today to complicate the weather meander, Forecaster Wells announced that he could see no reason to amend his forecast of probable frost and clear weather for Easter.
"Conditions may develop with our night report," he said, "that might change the forecast, but it looks favorable to me now."

AGGUSATIONS AGAINST FIRE CHIEF STAY

C. C. Brown Withdraws Attack on Young Only to Have A. C. Pullen, in Marshal's Office, Renew It; Full Hearing Ordered.
Charges against Fire Chief John E. Young, which have been subjected to a rapid fire of retraction and reiteration within the last 24 hours, will be pressed and an investigation that will settle "once and for all" the trouble that has been brewing in the department for the last two years, will be carried out.

STOCKS SENT SKY-HIGH IN WILD TRADING

New Records Established in New York Market Through Frenzied Efforts of Brokers to Fill Orders; Sales Are Enormous.
New York, April 15--(U. P.)--An enormous accumulation of overnight buying orders, due to the holiday in the stock market yesterday, led to one of the most frenzied trading days on the exchange today that has been witnessed in many years.

McCormack, Tenor, Is Very Low

New York, April 15--(U. P.)--The condition of John McCormack, Irish tenor, took a sudden turn for the worse today, it was announced at his home this afternoon.
A second operation was resorted to. Anti-toxin was also administered by the attending physicians, who are making a desperate effort to save the singer's life.

MAN MISSING 8 DAYS FOUND IN HOSPITAL

L. Vincent, Promoter Who Disappeared April 7, Wandered in as Mysterious Patient April 12; Mystery Hides 5 Days of Life.
A mantle of mystery, which has not been penetrated either by police or friends, envelops the life of Laurence Vincent, well known promoter, within the last week.

Where Was He? LAURENCE VINCENT, business man who was found at hospital today after being mysteriously lost to family and friends for more than a week.

MANAGER OF BEAVER TEAM IS SUSPEDED

Commissioner Landis Wires President McCarthy That Kenworthy Must Not Play; Failure to Obey Order Is Cause; Suit Likely.
San Francisco, April 15--(U. P.)--Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, today wired President William H. McCarthy of the Pacific Coast league, instructing him to take steps necessary to prevent Manager Bill (Duke) Kenworthy of the Portland Beavers appearing in Coast league games.

RUSSIAN BREAK GENOA PROMISES

By Edgar Snow, Moscow. (Special Cable from the Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1922.)
Genoa, Italy, April 15--The conference in its danger of being disrupted as a result of the Russian break in the hopes of Europe seem to be on the verge of being frustrated by the wild conduct of the Bolshevik delegates. Friday these delegates met and informed the allied promoters that they not only withdrew their previous scheme of counter-proposal contained in the report of the London experts, but flatly refused to accept the program of the Cannes resolutions which they had previously accepted.

$1,000,000 ROAD BIDS ARE OPENED

The opening of bids for construction was continued today by the state highway commission. Proposals were received on seven more jobs involving a mileage of 119 miles and an estimated aggregate cost of one million dollars.
The projects were as follows:
Coe and Douglas counties--Rock surfacing 34.8 miles. Myrtle Point-Camas Valley section of Roseburg-Coe Bay highway.

HOUSE MEETS FOR MAY SHOWDOWN

Washington, April 15--(U. P.)--With President Harding and his leaders in the lower branch of congress in an open split on the issue of the "treaty navy" should be, the house met today for a showdown as to whether the sea forces should be cut to $5,000 or $7,000.
The former is the figure urged by Harding.

WAREHOUSE BURNS; SUSPECT FIRE BUG

Pendleton, Or., April 15--Fire believed to have been incendiary origin totally destroyed the warehouses of the Pacific Elevator company, property of the Portland Flouring Mills and of H. W. Collins of this city, at Pilot Rock, early Saturday morning. A third warehouse, a four-story building, was also destroyed by the fire.
In a report the loss will run into the thousands of dollars.

Fair Weather Due For Pacific Slope

Washington, April 15--(U. P.)--Forecast for period April 17-22, inclusive: Pacific states--Generally fair weather with temperature near or somewhat below normal.

City Asked to Buy Base for Statue of Theodore Roosevelt

The proposal that the city spend $5000 to provide a base for the equestrian statue of Theodore Roosevelt presented to the city by Dr. Henry Waldo Coe was considered by the city council Friday afternoon. After discussion City Attorney Grant was asked to determine by what means the city might legally appropriate or acquire the $5000.

Printing Bureau to Reopen; Inquiry by Board Is Completed

Washington, April 15--The bureau of engraving and printing, shut down since last Saturday following President Harding's dismissal of bureau chiefs, will resume operations today, it was announced at the treasury department.
The investigation committee headed by Assistant Deputy Treasurer Tate and assisted by several hundred bureau employees, has completed the count of bank notes, bonds, stamps, and other financial paper stock in the bureau as the first step in making a complete inventory back to 1917, when James L. Williams became head of the bureau. It will require a week or longer for the investigating committee and staff of accountants and bookkeepers to assemble these figures and check them against the book records of the bureau before it can be determined what, if any, irregularities exist.

Walter Bartholomew Is 15th Victim of Septic Sore Throat

Walter Bartholomew, customs officer, who resided at No. 710 East 16th street, died at 9:15 Friday evening as a result of septic sore throat, followed by meningitis. This was the first death reported to the health bureau in two days and the fifteenth since the infection began. No new cases were reported today.
Mr. Bartholomew was 47 years old. He is survived by his wife, Minnie Bartholomew. Funeral services will be held Monday in Heppner, Or.

Coalition Ticket Lively to Appear in Chamber Election

The prospect of a coalition ticket in the latest bit of excitement in the campaign which is preceding the annual election of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.
Max Hirsch, Roy Bishop and Ralph D. Burnside as nominees of the nominating committee, are said to have joined forces with Arthur Callan and H. A. Whitney, the last two having been nominated by petition. The regularly nominated trio thus abandon the candidacy of James F. Clark, who was proposed to represent the building trades in favor of Whitney. Clay S. Morse may become a candidate on an independent ticket and O. M. Clark may be selected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Whitney L. Boise. A few days ago petitions circulated on the subject of holding a "convention" next Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. when a members' ticket opposed to the "board ticket" may make its appearance.

Three Boys Sprawl On Rail Track for Fun; All Are Killed

Fort Worth, Texas, April 15--(U. P.)--Three youths from Columbus, Ohio, were instantly killed by a Texas & Pacific passenger train west of this city shortly after midnight.
John Shoemaker, Carl Vance Riggs and Elmer Thill.
According to Edward Minor, a companion of the boys, Judge Burton, despite his indomitable will, Mr. Wilson has obeyed his physician's instructions implicitly and has not attempted to engage in public controversy or debate.

Wilson's Health Improves Walks Without Cane or Aid

By David Lawrence (Copyright, 1922, by The Journal.)
Washington, April 15--Former President Woodrow Wilson is in better health today than at any time since his breakdown in September, 1919. He is able to walk around his home, for instance, without the assistance of a cane or the support of a companion. His voice is clear. He does more work every day.
This constant improvement has surprised physicians. Not long ago Dr. Charles Mayo of Rochester, Minn., visited Mr. Wilson and pronounced his condition as remarkable. He attributed the restoration almost entirely to Mr. Wilson's indomitable will. Mr. Wilson has obeyed his physician's instructions implicitly and has not attempted to engage in public controversy or debate.

Clifford Thorne to Run for U. S. Senate

Chicago, April 15--(U. P.)--Clifford Thorne, president of the American transportation and legal counsel for the American Farm Bureau Federation, resigned today to enter the United States senatorial race in Iowa. Thorne was formerly commissioner of railroads in Iowa. No successor has been appointed to take his place on the federation.

U. S. Senators Match Gallantry in Storm On Lillian Russell

Washington, April 15--(U. P.)--Senators turned "gallants" today when Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore, former stage star and recently special immigration commissioner to Europe, became the center of a series of clashes in the senate during debate on removal of the 2 per cent restriction law.
Senator Moses (Rep.) of New Hampshire charged Senators Reed (Dem.) of Missouri and Harrison (Dem.) of Mississippi with "ungentlemanly conduct" for their discussion of Mrs. Moore's qualifications as an immigration commissioner. Senator Harrison in turn charged the Republicans with "discourtesy" toward Mrs. Moore in ignoring her report on the immigration situation.

Clifford Thorne to Run for U. S. Senate

Chicago, April 15--(U. P.)--Clifford Thorne, president of the American transportation and legal counsel for the American Farm Bureau Federation, resigned today to enter the United States senatorial race in Iowa. Thorne was formerly commissioner of railroads in Iowa. No successor has been appointed to take his place on the federation.

U. S. Senators Match Gallantry in Storm On Lillian Russell

Washington, April 15--(U. P.)--Senators turned "gallants" today when Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore, former stage star and recently special immigration commissioner to Europe, became the center of a series of clashes in the senate during debate on removal of the 2 per cent restriction law.
Senator Moses (Rep.) of New Hampshire charged Senators Reed (Dem.) of Missouri and Harrison (Dem.) of Mississippi with "ungentlemanly conduct" for their discussion of Mrs. Moore's qualifications as an immigration commissioner. Senator Harrison in turn charged the Republicans with "discourtesy" toward Mrs. Moore in ignoring her report on the immigration situation.

Clifford Thorne to Run for U. S. Senate

Chicago, April 15--(U. P.)--Clifford Thorne, president of the American transportation and legal counsel for the American Farm Bureau Federation, resigned today to enter the United States senatorial race in Iowa. Thorne was formerly commissioner of railroads in Iowa. No successor has been appointed to take his place on the federation.

American Aid Breaks Famine in Russia, Says Relief Worker

London, April 15--(U. P.)--"America has broken the back of the biggest famine in the history of the world," declared Walter Lomas Brown, director of the American relief administration of Russia, in a message of Easter greetings to the American people today.
He added:
"We have not yet reached the end of our troubles, but, at any rate, we are feeding four times the number of the American army in France during the war."

Today's Games

Portland at Salt Lake, postponed.
Seattle at Sacramento, two games.
San Francisco at Oakland.
Los Angeles at Vernon.
Brooklyn at New York, cloudy, 3 p. m.
Boston at Philadelphia, clear, 3 p. m.
Chicago at Cincinnati, cloudy, 3 p. m.
Pittsburg at St. Louis, clear, 3:15 p. m.
American
New York at Washington, clear, 2:30 p. m.
Philadelphia at Boston, postponed, rain and 3 p. m.
Detroit at Cleveland, cloudy, 3 p. m.
St. Louis at Chicago, clear, 3 p. m.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.

Wife Hocks His Unmentionables, To Bob Her Hair

Detroit, Mich., April 15--(U. P.)--She pawed my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."
With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeannette, for $25 a week alimony today.
"Ye suffered enough already," Judge Burton declared, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charges, and refused the award.