Ousting of Striker

From Cabin Sought

Klamath Falls, April 15.—Proceedings to dispossess J. W. Vernon, a striker, from a cabin owned by the Algoma Lumber company which he had occupled previous to and after the plant was closed by the strike, were instituted in the justice court here today by Mat Egan, manager of the company, who declared Vernon refused to leave when requested, although not employed by the company. Decision in the case was postponed. No further developments have occurred in the strike situation.

To REACH PEOPLE

"It was to obviate these objections that we desire that the constitutional amendment, which we will submit, will definitely take up one-half of the state load each year whether times are good or bad and whether incomes are large or small. We will also specifically provide that the total amount which can be raised through an income tax and the present general property tax will be limited by all of the provisions which now limit the total amount of state expenditure.

"One of the greatest reasons for the tremendously increased burden of state expenditure is that only one person in five pays any direct property tax. Through the imposition of a state ining held in Portland yesterday decided to initiate a constitutional amendment requiring that one-half of all state ex-

of an income tax which is now a de-batable question. Its proponents contend it will provide a definite relief to tax-payers of the general property tax by providing that one-half of the state ex-penses shall be borne by an income tax each year whether times are good or bad and whether incomes are large or small. Although the details of the law, its exemptions, methods of coffection and such things will be left to the legislature, it will be incumbent upon the legislature to pass an income tax the legislature to pass an income tax law, should the amendment be adopted, because only one-half the state expenses for public officials to spend and will not result in a definite relief to those who pay real estate taxes. Secondly, it is argued that an income tax will raise large funds in prosperous years when the corry of expenditure, and when times are hard and incomes are small there will only be raised a small amount and consequently there will be a shortage of funds to carry out the extravagant protection of the state had committed itself during prosperous years. Further, that during prosperous years, when the merce announced today.

Flashing Lights on River Held Signals Fish Warden Near

Astoria. April 15.-Flashing signal ights operated by watchers on the Columbia river near Vancouver are used by men engaged in illicit fishing as warnings against the approach of the fish wardens, according to Deputy John Larson, who returned to Astoria today from a cruise up the Columbia as far as Multnomah Falls in the patrol boat Governor Olcott.

as Multnomah Falls in the patrol boat Governor Olcott.

Larson declared that he believed positively that extensive fflegal fishing is being carried on near Vancouver and that he observed the signal lights, one of which was but a bonfire of newspaper, before he reached the drifting grounds. His patrol was fruitless save for the arrest of Ori Jaret, who was taken to St. Helena, where he was fined $50 for fishing out of season.

PIEDMONT

lots to be sold at AUCTION

We have received instructions from the Piedmont Company to sell their unsold lots in Piedmont at Absolute Auction Sale to the highest bidder,

150 CHOICE RESIDENCE LOTS

PIEDMONT is located on the north side, starts at the corner of Union Avenue and Killingsworth Avenue, extends to Portland Boulevard on the north and on the west to Commercial street.

PIEDMONT

has a large frontage on Union Avenue and on Killingsworth Avenue. Union Avenue is the important business street on the East Side and the lots on Union Avenue are especially desirable for store purposes. There are a few lots on Killingsworth Avenue also available for store purposes.

PIEDMONT

is a well built-up community with over four hundred attractive homes. The restrictions are very moderate. Piedmont is only a few blocks from the Jefferson High School and the North Portland Library is opposite Piedmont on Killingsworth Avenue. Peninsula Park adjoins Piedmont on the west.

PIEDMONT

has exceptional car service and is only about twenty minutes from the business district. The Vancouver, Woodlawn and St. Johns car lines pass Piedmont and the Williams Avenue car runs to Union Avenue and Killingsworth Avenue, the southerly side of Piedmont.

ARE YOU ENTITLED TO A SOLDIER'S BONUS?

If so, remember that Piedmont values have been established and will stand up under appraisal and also, remember, if you buy a lot worth $1500.00 for say $1000.00 or maybe less, you should not encounter any difficulty when the lot comes up for appraisal. Also, remember, the restrictions in Piedmont are only $2500.00, so you can build a moderate priced home in Piedmont,
