THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, OREGON. MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1922. row encape when his light coupe went through a bridge spanning Reck creek, near West Lebanon, and landed in five feet of water during the storm. Dick broke a window in the car and crawled to the top, where he perched two hours in a vain hope of aid reach-ing him. Finally he grabbed a float-ing log and drifted to shore. Only minog damage was done in Williamsport, but the damage to farm buildings in the community was heavy. water, except a dining room. Rainstorms during the night added to the suffering of hundreds of families who had been divided to families who halis, Dryad, Pazil, Klaber, Adna, per Cowiliz, Ethel, Toledo, Napay at as the synthesis of allied wis outside aid is needed, he said. lows of the Car Winlock and Knab. ONE MILLED AND ONE FATALLY HURT BY CYCLONE had been driven from their house and LENIN MAY APPEAR Heavy rains were reported at Spring field, Mo., while at Montrose, Mo., a small tornado late yesterday destroyed Paris, April 17 .-- (I. N. S.)--The rum Newton, Ill., April 17.-(I. N. S.)-One an was killed and another fatally in-red by a cyclone which struck in the centry of Ross Hill, a village seven vere living in tents. at Lenin is going to make a dramatic ne and injured several persons

erty damage was done.

uts appearance at the Ge ference still persists, according tewspaper dispatch from Genos t . The Russian soviet leader is t led to be anxious to take part ell, Mrs. John Ratt. ectively. Friday night at the Lewi nty declamatory contest at Napa

Contestants were entered by Che- Irving

HAIL STORM BREAKS MANT WINDOWS: DANAGES CROPS Kansas City, Mo., April 17.-(L N, S.) Hhil, wind and rain storms swept over Eastern Kansas and Western Missouri

Sixteen Years After and Still Sweet Sixteen

Lastern Kannas and Western Alissouri last night and heavy damage was re-ported from various sections. In this city the halistones, driven before a high wind, broke hundreds of windows. Jola, Kan., reported nearly every win-dow broken by hall and heavy damage to fruit blossons. ILLINOIS FLOOD WATERS CONTINUE TO GO HIGHEB Springfield, IIL, April 17.--(U. P.)--Flood waters along the Illinois river con-tinue to rise today. Levees broke near Beardstown, flooding thousands of acres of form hand in success the water to fruit blo of farm land. In some Fayette co was 15 feet deep on fertile soil. Heavy

MANT UNROOFED HOUSES

MARK TRAIL OF CYCLONE msport, Ind., April 17.--(L N man was kill swept across Warren county night, leaving a trail of unrooted he in its wake. He was John Hasty, ed when the

Charles Dick of Judyville had a nar-

the night and nearly an inch to nearly six Inch ain on a rampag

STORM IN CENTRAL INDIAN

Brazil, Ind., April 17.-(L N. S.)ial rains, swept against Clay ng a house and uprooting orchard and forest trees. Many wir dows were broken in Green Castle heavy property No one was injured, ac ulidings in the community was heavy. PROFERTY DAMAGED BY STORM Green Castle, Ind., April 17.-(I. N. S.)-Heavy storms early today swept

STORM LIKE TORNADO

dows were broken in Green Castie. More than an inch of rain fell during -hucks that were the pride and awagger of all Portere destroyed by fire which d the Fashion stables. East 11th Finnders streets darly Sunday. In Fred Day, assistant fire mar-this morning completed an sett-of the loss and an inventory of the rty destroyed. The total loss will so man were badly burned, 25 au-oblins distroyed and a quantity of erry fixtures owned by the Soaly-eer company entirely ruined. Four-horses were rescued from the flames great peril.

IN $50,000 FIRE

MEEPER RESCUED

EPER RESCUED illiam J. Thompson, night watchman, vered the fire on the floor above the above the bands and head. Jask er, formerly a hostler employed by am Webster, owner of the stable, seriously burned before firemen-ted bis rescue from the third floor a he was sleeping. He had been b permission to sleep there, oper hung by his hands from a ow until firemen raised a hadder, was taken to Webster's home. His and arms are burned.

and arms are burned. CKS BURNED

acks destroyed are relics of the when spanking trotters reigned Since the time they were and notables from all over the world have been moldering to room of the stable idering away in the orthiess, and still in every detail te and wrought with excellent

The fire marshal's office is investigat-to determine the cause of the fire, lich is thought to have started from a from the office stove. According solution of Cannes-all underng to abstain from aggression—will superflous inasmuchings it merely icates Article 10 of the League of tions' covenant.

centinued From Page One)

PROBLEMS DESCRIBED

question arises whether it would while to duplicate an important of the covenant of whether ission of Germany and the Bolsheviks Article 10, pending their admission to Longue wouldn't meet the case. Be-es limitstion of land armaments is not sparable to limitation of saval arma-It is difficult to maintain a secret but it is less difficult to maintain Again, a more platonic eugageo refrain from aggression is use-

Concrete provisions against infractione cated an intern ice force under the auspices of s for the purpose of uphold-ements. This proposal would be regived if it were sought offect to the sixth Cannes reso-or to propose that military holi-

HEVIKS MASS TROOPS

while the Bolsheviks, who, acto Tohltcherin, are anxious to every proposal tending to lighten burdens, are rushing troops to estern and Southern frontiers. he protext of military exercises the protext of milliary exercises ensive mobilization has been car-it. Trotsky has inspired the Polish in making inflammatory speeches. Issars Fruns and Kameneff in-d the garrisons at Kelff and a ns well as the Crimean army, language was the same as be merely the military back-Tchitcherin's protests against in the Par Bast. But it may pan's in the Par East. But it may the have another purpose-to stop food uplies of the American famine relief othern, which are mainly concentrated forms in Western and Southern Rus-Confiscation of these stores for the set forces would be a natural develop-ent in case of a Bolshevist campaign. The treaty forms provide for the orest economic cooparation especially the regard to the construction of Rus-mards against the colonization of Rusagainst the colonization of Rus-treaty contains a most favored

ECTURES WELL ATTENDED. countries who con If has been done, overlook the time int fact that progress has underla-est made towards political and so-scognition of the Bolshevitz, who now firmly established themselves hiters of the conference. If de fure nition of the soviet system is still anding the Bolsheviki have at least of social recognition by lunching the British prime minister.

he British prime minister, ovsky's daily lectures to the press mations is one of the most crowd-actions connected with the confer-while the British, French, Italian, wen German, talks to the confiding ts are more or less sparsely at-the brilliant allocutions of the to-Bulgar Bolsheviki from the e attract such suffocating multimand for respirators in that the atmosphere of th impregnated with Signs of irritation are ble in some unexpected quarters in the Italian pross. But these ity process from men of little who have grown wearly in pur a great ideal between Saturday's con at Lloyd George's vilin and Litovak peace negotialions are the it is urged in many quar-the allied conversationalists we imitated Hoffman, the Gerral, who, after hearing an in-talement from Trotaky, ratiled and said approximately : talking as though you were ors and we the vanquisted inverted our positions. Come to take the consequences." who would have the allies take unian tons toward the Bolshevisi ak the Initial difference between and Brost-Litowak. It from Fact's declaration that as neither victor nor vanquished, nor counties, but "only men." and footing, the allies can iters. The Bolshe liciy proclaim it

RESTATION FELT

T IS FITTING that sixteen years after the foundation of "Sweet Sixteen" was laid in San Fran-L cisco by Mr. L. Harris, we celebrate with all the zeal and spirit that has made "Sweet Sixteen" the most successful women's ready-to-wear specialty institution in America, doing the largest business of its kind on the coast through our stores in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

We have provided for this occasion the smartest styles and the most remarkable values ever offered in Portland.

Our New York establishment, through our Mr. A. Harris, with his corps of assistants, and the co-operation of New York's most notable manufacturers, who are vitally interested in "Sweet Sixteen's" progress, have collected the very best for this most magnificent presentation.

"Sweet Sixteen" has not been without her struggles in gaining her supremacy. Even through the war period we worked valiantly in keeping "Sweet Sixteens" at a high standard and at $16, just as before and after the war. And today our ambition is to make "Sweet Sixteen" Bigger, Better and More Sought After through greater values than ever.

And here we picture a few of the thousands of these delightful, inspiring and fascinating Suits, Capes, Wraps, Dresses, Coats and Costumes

Developed in the very highest grades of materials, the greatest variety of charming styles, the richest in color variety and the finest of craftsmanship for misses, juniors and women of all ages, in sizes 16 to 44.

E ASTER AND THE DAYS FOLLOWING, being the time when Fashion calls for the first of the glorious spring frocks, this event seems especially timely, affording the women of Portland the opportunity to provide the entire spring wardrobe of the most lovable and meritorious garments ever offered in such stupendous variety, at

SIXTEEN DOLLARS

While these garments at $16 have become famous, and are always to be had in limitless variety, we apply the same incomparable styling and value-merit to all our other garments priced the "Sweet Sixteen" way at $25 to $75

Portland-Edward Harris, Mansger. Los Angeles-Henry Harris, Manager. San Francisco-L. Barris, Gen'l Mgr. S. L. Smith, Administration, Manager. Seattle-Mortimer Harris, Manager. New York-Albert Harris, Manager. Costs and Wraps-full silk-lined in Velours, Bolivias and Polo Cost materials, esses Willow and Crepe Sport

Crepe Dresses-for graduation and confirmation with many new enchantments.

3-Piece Knicker Sport Suits-in silk-lined tweeds and home-

Afternoon, Party and Street Dresses-Canton Crepes, Taffe-tas, Tricotines, Satin-back Crepes and Georgettes -- all pastel shades.

Suits—for dress, business and travel in Tricotines, and Silk-lined Tweeds, and Homespuns.