Large Company Present at Wedding

By Helen Hutchison. EASTER lilies and pink hydrangeas formed the altar decoration for the wedding of Miss Catherine Burnside and Mr. Edgar E. Piper Tuesday evening at Westminster Presbyterian church. The service, which was held in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives of the bridal couple, was read by Dr. Edward H. Penno, pastor of the church, at 8:30 o'clock. The bride was given in a simply fashioned model of ivory toned fabric made round length. Her hairdress was a wreath of silver leaves which held in place the wedding veil. Her flowers were roses with orchids and valley lilies tied with tulle in showered bouquet. The little flower girl, Patricia Carwright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carlwright, and her attendant, Jean Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Doyle, were quaint Kate Greenway frocks of pink and white and carried wreaths of spring blossoms. Mr. Robert S. Burnside, a brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Ralph E. Burnside. Following the ceremony a reception for a smaller number of guests was held at the bride's home in Irvington, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Piper, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Burnside receiving with the bridal couple. The wedding follows a series of functions given for the entertainment of the young folk, who share an unusually wide circle of relatives and other out of town visitors who came to the city to attend the wedding. The engagement of Miss Catherine Wilkeson, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Wilkeson of Tacoma, to Mr. Joseph Hamilton Lambert of this city, was announced by the mother of the bride- elect last week. Miss Wilkeson was a recent visitor in Portland and made many friends in the city. Her sister, Annie Wright, a student at the University of Oregon, is a graduate of Shattuck Military school at Fairbank, Minn. He is in business in Portland with his father, Mr. Albert Lambert. No announcement is made of the wedding date. Madame Yolande Mero, who will be soloist with the Portland Symphony orchestra this evening and who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, during her stay in the city, enjoyed a motor trip over Columbia river highway Tuesday afternoon as the guest of Mrs. Corbett. The party, which included besides Madame Mero, Mrs. Muriel C. Bailey and Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett and the hostess, lunched at Forest hall, Tuesday evening, and then returned to her home at a dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Corbett were hosts at their home at Dunthorpe. Covers were placed for 13. An interesting evening is promised to those who attend the lecture to be given Thursday night at Trinity parish house by Dr. Wherahiko Rawal, Polynesian traveler and raconteur. Dr. Rawal's adventures make a fascinating story and he has lived the story he tells and presents it with pictures and music to supplement his recital. His subject will be, "The South Sea Islands, the Paradise of the Pacific." The young people of St. Marys parish will entertain the lecture to be given Thursday evening at Columbus club auditorium. Cards and dancing will be the diversion of the evening.

FASHIONS REALM

Paris, April 18.—For afternoon parties the favorite costume is a silk dress with a cape to match. A gray crepe de chine gown, for example, will have a grey crepe de chine cape, unlined and with wide armholes, so that it may easily be laid on or off. The new capes are without trimming, and therefore the decorative impulses is obliged to look for in the hat. They are gray crepe de chine in a lacquered hat of taffeta. For brown frocks there are superb chamois hats, with pale lavender hats of petunia silk wreathed with sweet peas. London, April 19.—Wearied a trifle by the dazzling colors of early spring, the mode is now for rather somber shades. Grey, mole, black and navy predominate at present. These shades, however, are not permitted to be unrelieved; there are bright splashes of color in coral, geranium and royal blue rosettes. For summer the coolest looking, and most chic frocks will be made of dark gray taffeta alpaca or voile with perhaps a note of color in the collar and simple ligiera collars. Sometimes a lace fichu is used. About the only thing which can incur capital and labor never looking back to lockjaw.—Washington Post.

NAPOLION ITALIAN EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL

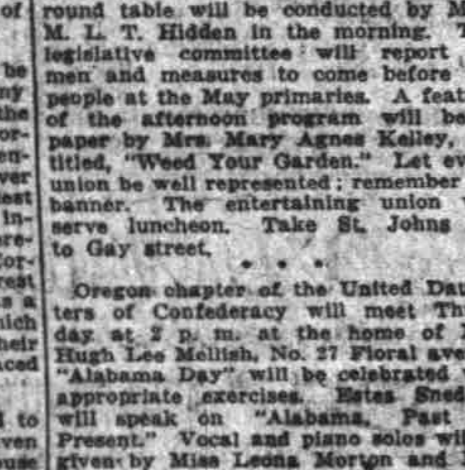

THE ONLY OIL WHICH CAN INCUR CAPITAL AND LABOR NEVER LOOKING BACK TO LOCKJAW.—WASHINGTON POST. PROGRAM BY REBEKAH BELIEF. To raise funds for relief work, the Portland Rebekah relief committee will give a musical program and dance Friday night at Vermont hall, East 17th and Alberta streets. The program will commence at 8 o'clock and will be followed by the dance.

Plan Campaign To Wipe Out Illiteracy

By Hazel Nandy. ILLITERACY is mental bondage. Free 5,000,000 souls, is the slogan of the General Federation of Community Service in Washington in its campaign against illiteracy. In some of the Eastern states the club women have pledged themselves to "teach one illiterate to read and write." It is estimated that if each member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs would pledge herself to do this, two fifths of the illiteracy in the United States would be eradicated. Mrs. Josephine Corbett, Praston of Olympia is sending out an appeal to the state chairman of General Federation of Community Service Washington, to hold conferences of club women in their sections that plans may be made for carrying on this work. Penco.—On Thursday, April 20 the W.C.T.U. will hold an institute at the First Unitarian church. Mrs. Maude Perkins, national worker, will speak. Business and organization work will take up the morning session. Mrs. Waters will present a practical working program for all departments. In the afternoon Mrs. Horward Warden will discuss the membership campaign. "Reverence for law will be the subject of an address by Rev. O. G. Shanklin of the Christian church. Deputy Sheriff Lee C. Henderson will talk on "How to Secure Enforcement of Federal and State Laws." Present M. Weston of the Institutional church. There will be special music in the evening. Oregon City.—That pans of biscuits, vegetables, boots and shoes have a tendency to stop up sewers, which must be opened at great expense, is the discovery of a group of Oregon people. As a preventive measure the Women's club of Oregon City has recently passed resolutions requesting the city council, to place a sign on the water main, to the effect of sanitation and stating the penalties for violation. They also promised to give employment to at least one person during the spring cleanup. The Oregon Health association in order to support the health nurses and to see that an American flag was in every school. The Mattie Bleeth union will entertain the county W. C. T. U. in the United Evangelical church, Willamette boulevard at Gay street, Thursday, April 20, at 8 o'clock. The evening will be conducted by Mrs. M. L. T. Hildren in the morning. The legislative committee will report on men and measures to come before the people at the May primaries. A feature of the afternoon program will be a paper by Mrs. Mary Agnes Kelley, entitled, "Wash Your Garden." Let every garden be well represented; remember the banner. The entertaining union will serve luncheon. Take St. Johns car to Gay street. Oregon chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy will meet Thursday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Malish, No. 21 Floral avenue. "Alabama Day" will be celebrated with appropriate exercises. Estes Snedecor will speak on "Alabama Past and Present." Local and piano solos will be given by Miss Leona Morton and Miss Mary Bullock. Since the idea of an Easter cake sale was abandoned, the women who were to have participated are asked to bring their donations in money and give to the chairman of the cake committee. Mrs. Rebecca Cambie, No. 723 Whitman street, Whitman station in the Market Street district, extends an invitation to all members of Winslow Meade circle No. 7, Ladies of the G. A. R., to spend Thursday at her home. The meeting is to be not only a fraternal social but a free will offering will be collected. The receipts will be applied to the "Delegates' Transportation Fund." The Capitol Hill Parent-Teacher association will meet Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Mr. W. F. Woodward, school director, will talk on the "Necessities of the Schools." Mrs. Bruce Horstall will talk on the "Girl Scout Movement." The school will give an exhibit of the domestic sciences. Tea will be served. All are invited to come. Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet at the home of Mrs. John H. Hall, 30, E. Lovejoy street, Wednesday, April 19, at 2 p. m. The board will meet at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has arranged a musical and social hour will be in charge of Miss Valentine Pritchard. The Woman's Guild of St. Michaels and All Angels church will hold a food sale at Vincents hall, 43d and Sandy boulevards Thursday evening. Cakes, pie and candy will be on sale, and refreshments will be served. Mrs. W. H. Hughes is chairman of the committee in charge. "Negro Spirituals" will be featured on the program to be given Wednesday evening at Y. W. C. A. building. The best negro talent in the city will be heard in these lovely old negro melodies. The public is invited.

Volcanic Burst Thriller at the Blue Mouse

Starting off with a terrific volcanic eruption which absolutely wrecks a very pretty South Sea island, the producers of "A Virgin Paradise" playing at the Blue Mouse theatre this week, lead one at a rapid rate through a series of tempestuous scenes to a haven of rest that's something like the popular conception of eternal bliss. The reaction is pleasing and the thrills possess all the tonic properties advertised in the best spring medicines. The inhabitants of the island are destroyed to the last man, with the bare exception of a nursemaid and her tiny charge, who is helpless to a lot of valuable property. The infant heiress grows up to be impersonated by Pearl White and to raise havoc with a number of designing suitors and persistent villains. An attack by hurricane South Sea natives a fire by night, an auto accident and other dramatic action hold one's interest in the thrilling tale and there is also a wealth of humor in the production, for the island heiress is taken to New York and finds that her simple honest fil fil with the hypocrisy of modern civilization. It is in the cards that nearly all of the problems which confront the charming maid shall be solved by violent methods and the rule holds good in New York as well as in the jungle. The principal settings for the production are laid in the tropics and the destruction of the charming little island by a flow of molten lava is one of the most spectacular thrills ever offered at the Blue Mouse. William Fox is responsible for "A Virgin Paradise," and an all-star cast supports Pearl White as leading lady. The play was filmed on a West India island, which is sufficiently similar to the "South Seas" of fiction for the purpose of the production. The charm of the entertainment offered at the Blue Mouse this week is greatly enhanced by the excellent musical accompaniment of an orchestra of unusual ability. A chorus girl doesn't need to have stage fright to be one.—Multnomah Chronicle.

Miss Dana Has Busy Time Here as Guest of Manager W. W. Ely

If you will step into the Hippodrome theater where Viola Dana is appearing this week in person and ask William W. Ely, manager of the house, who is the star of this week, he will tell you with big eyes and replies, "I am." Ely is self-appointed introducer of Miss Dana. That is, he has been with one of a rapid rate through a series of tempestuous scenes to a haven of rest that's something like the popular conception of eternal bliss. The reaction is pleasing and the thrills possess all the tonic properties advertised in the best spring medicines. The inhabitants of the island are destroyed to the last man, with the bare exception of a nursemaid and her tiny charge, who is helpless to a lot of valuable property. Santaella Remains Under New Contract

Despite offers which might have drawn him to San Francisco, Salvatore Santaella, conductor of the Rivoli theatre orchestra, has signed a new contract with Gus A. Metzger, owner of that popular motion picture theatre, and will remain in Portland, it was announced Tuesday night. Santaella has been directing the Rivoli orchestra for nearly two years and has made of his musical group an institution. His Sunday concerts have proved a charm to music lovers throughout the city and the series of special de luxe concerts in which he appears with other local artists are immensely popular. Another such de luxe concert is planned by Manager Metzger for an early date.

Ad Club Is Set for Big 'Follies' Show; Fun Is the Keynote

Portland Ad clubbers are set for the big "Follies" show Thursday night at the Auditorium. Full dress rehearsal will be held tonight and everything made ready for the big stunt Thursday. Costumes and new scenery have been completed and the cast is all lined up to the final rehearsal and then the big show. Members of the Ad club, their wives, sweethearts and friends have been working hard for the last three weeks on the parts and an almost professional perfection has been the result. More than 100 persons will take part in the "Follies."
