

SMELT RUN WILL SOON BE PASSED

It's the smelt run for Columbia river smelt this season so far as liberal supplies are concerned. Wholesalers say that the end of the smelt run is showing in the Sandy river and soon the extremely low priced fish will be but a memory. In the meantime those whose neighbors have not smelt dipping can purchase supplies in the retail shops at 5 cents a pound. A dime's worth will be more than sufficient for the average family.

Salmon is very scarce. Even the coast streams are reporting very limited catches, and as the Columbia river will be closed until the first of the month, very scant supplies will be available in the retail shops for a couple of weeks.

Usually at this time of the season the fish trade is well stocked with frozen salmon of excellent quality, but at present there are few frozen fish available. Halibut prices are way up in the air, but there has been a sudden increase of supplies, and lower values are expected. Razor clams are in very small supply, around 45 cents a dozen for the better sizes.

Crabs continue scarce and high priced, but with more moderate weather both razors and crabs should be more plentiful.

Retail market prices generally show: Eggs—Fresh creamery, 41¢ @ 46¢ pound. Fish—Salmon, 50¢ @ 40¢; halibut, 40¢; perch, 16¢; smelt, 10¢. Shell—Clams, 25¢ @ 2.25 per 49 pounds. Potatoes—Butter, 22.00 per sack. Onions—15¢ @ 18¢ per pound.

Yamhill street prices:
Vegetables—Carrots, 20 pounds; dry beans, 15¢ per bushel; lentils, 50 pounds; apples, 50 per bushel.
Meat—Chest, 25¢; quart, 25¢; pint, 20¢; poultry—Heavy, 24¢; light, 20¢; turkey, 25¢; chicken, 20¢; eggs—Fresh market, 27¢ per dozen, 23¢ @ 28¢ per dozen.
