"Duke" Kenworthy Gives Out More Inside Dope on Tangled Coast League Ball Question

4-Base Swat In 11th Wins For Oakland

By George Bertz

PUNCH. That's what wins ball games and that's what was behind Marriott's home run drive over the right field wall that sent Portland down to defeat in an 11-inning game Thursday. The score was 3 to 2, after a long drawn out contest, but one that was full of thrills and snappy fielding save for a couple of occasions.

Portland outhit the Oaks nearly two to one, but the punch was not there at the right time, although had Wolfer's head been up on Thorpe's long drive to centerfield in the third inning there would have been a different story to relate. The fault was not entirely Wolfer's, however, for it appeared as though Cooper was going to snare the drive.

That play, together with Portland's fuzzy attempts to break up a double steal in the third inning, resulted in the loss of the game. The Beavers had several other chances to score but could not seem to get the breaks in the hitting department, while Oakland had a punch in their blows.

SUTHERLAND GOES WELL

"Suds" Sutherland, despite the fact that he was a trifle wild, pitched great ball except in the third and fourth. "Suds" had a lot of stuff on the ball and several of his walks came as a result of wide breaks on his curves.

"Lefty" Winn started on the mound for the Oaks, but he was unsteady and talked himself out of the contest early, and it was for the best, judging from the result. Winn struck out in the third, and protested the third strike with a mean remark that resulted in his banishment, and in the tenth frame Umpire Byron gave Wille permission to take his shower early, and later told Hod Eller to join him. Wille was nipped off first base by a snap throw by Elliott, and he started to crab, and was reinforced by Eller.

Jones, who relieved Winn, was hit hard, but somehow the Beavers could not manage to bunch their bingles effectively save in the sixth and eighth innings.

Portland had 17 men left on the bases. Time after time opportunities to score came up, but it seemed to be in the cards that no hits were to be made when they would ring the old gong.

COX CAUGHT AT PLATE

Cox was caught at the plate in the second inning following his walk, Sargent's double and a grounder to Marriott, and in the third Wolfer's failure to get beyond second on Jim Thorpe's terrific drive to center field which Cooper nearly caught, prevented the Beavers from scoring, as Poole followed with a long fly to left field that would have let Ike walk across the plate, and Cox smashed one too hot for Brubaker to handle a moment later, filling the sacks. Sargent's line drive was snared by Brown ending the inning.

Oakland scored its first run in the third without the aid of a hit. Cooper and Wille walked, and Brown's forceout put Cooper on third. The double steal sign was flashed, and it probably crossed up the Beavers' signal and Cooper scored without much effort. Doubles by Marriott and Howard gave the Oaks their second run in the fourth.

PORTLAND BREAKS ICE

Portland scored its first run in the sixth on Elliott's walk, a sacrifice fielder's choice, and High's drive to center field. Sutherland's single, High's hit to Lafayette and a boot by the "Frog" followed by Thorpe's Texas leaguer to right field resulted in the second run in the eighth.

Portland had a chance to score in the ninth and again in the tenth. Thorpe doubled with one down in the tenth, and after Poole skied out and Cox walked, stole third, but Sargent could not deliver.

The Beavers fielded without a miscue. There was snap and dash in their defensive, but somehow they can't seem to get their offensive machinery working together.

In the absence of Hale, who was injured Wednesday, Wolfer played second and Sargent covered third base. Score:

Washington Wins Triangular Meet

Washington high, Benson Tech and Lincoln high held a triangular relay meet on the East 12th and East Davis streets track Thursday afternoon, Washington finishing with 23 points, Benson with 14 and Lincoln high with 11.

The Colonials won four events, Lincoln one and Benson one. Two junior races were staged, but the points were counted in the total score. Four athletes were on each team and the coaches were able to obtain a line on the athletes who will compete for their respective schools in the annual Portland Public High School league relay carnival on Multnomah field, May 3.

The results:

880-yard—Washington, first; Lincoln, second; Benson, third.

440-yard (Junior)—Benson, first; Lincoln, second; Washington, third.

One mile—Washington, first; Benson, second; Lincoln, third.

440-yard—Lincoln, first; Benson, second; Washington, third.

Two-mile—Benson, first; Washington, second; Lincoln, third.

880-yard (Junior)—Benson, first; Washington, second. Lincoln was leading up to the last 150 yards, when the anchor man pulled a tendon and was unable to finish.

Medley (110, 220, 440, 880)—Washington, first; Lincoln, second; Benson, third.

Shot-put relay (four men)—Washington, first, average 38 feet; Benson, second, average 34 feet. Lincoln did not enter a team.

East to Send but Two Net Stars West

New York, April 21.—(U. P.)—Only two players, William Tilden and Vincent Richards, probably will be sent to California to represent the East in the East-West tennis championships, it has been learned.

The United States Lawn Tennis association has definitely decided on Tilden and Richards and if Lawrence Rice, Boston star, does not reconsider his decision not to make the trip the team will consist of only two players.

Dempsey and Carp Meet in Banquet Hall

By Damon Runyon
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, April 21.—Jack Dempsey last night again met his opponent of last July at Boyle's Thirty Acres—Georges Carpentier. This time they were not in fighting togs with gloves on their hands but in dinner jackets, and their contest was mainly gastronomical.

Dempsey was an easy winner, as Carpentier is training and had to eat sparingly.

The occasion for the meeting was a dinner given by Major J. Arnold Wilson, a well known English sportsman, and now the chief fistic promoter of England.

CARP IS FAVORITE

Major Wilson is putting on a bout next month between Carpentier and Ted ("Kid") Lewis, former welterweight champion of the world, and now the holder of the welter, middle and light-heavyweight title of England.

Carpentier is a 3 to 1 favorite over Lewis in the betting, but many English boxing enthusiasts say they will take the short end, figuring that Carpentier's form in his recent battle against Cook shows that Dempsey slowed the Frenchman down badly.

Carpentier arrived in England a few days ago, and is training at Maidenhead, where Frank Moran prepared for his fight with Joe Beckett.

Major Wilson saw Dempsey and Carpentier fight in America. He is a great friend of the champion. Many men prominent in the London sporting world were present at the dinner.

CHATS WITH BECKETT

Dempsey and Beckett rode in from the Epsom races together yesterday. The champion was advising Beckett to go to America.

"How would you like to fight Dempsey?" I asked Beckett. I was riding in the cab with them. Beckett, a thorough Englishman, who is a thick and stodgy looking fellow, blushed and said:

"I should like nothing better."

There is little likelihood of any match being made for Dempsey with Beckett or anybody else over here, because Jack Kearns figures that he can get much more money in America for a go with Harry Wills.

"What sort of a fighter is Wills?" Beckett asked Dempsey. "I have never seen him in action."

"I have never seen him fight," replied Dempsey, "but he is a big, strong fellow, and I guess he must be pretty good."

NEW GREENS OPENED

Four of the permanent holes—second, third, fourth and fifth—of the Rose City Golf club will be opened for play Saturday morning. Temporary greens, which are considered very good, have been installed on these holes. By opening these holes, the fairways on the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth holes, which are located in the bowl of the track, will be widened considerably. Work on the permanent greens of the other holes is being carried on under the supervision of C. P. Keyser, superintendent of the park department.

MAJOR LEAGUES

(By United News)

WITH bands puffing feeble music into the shrill chill winds of a very evil April day, the Yankees and Dodgers each held a formal flag raising and grand opening in New York Thursday.

The Yanks pleased a small crowd of 10,000 by trouncing the Washington club, 10 to 3. In Brooklyn the Dodgers displeased a still smaller gathering by losing to the Giants, 8 to 1.

The Red Sox marred the Athletics' grand opening in Philadelphia by a score of 15 to 4. The Indians nosed out the Tigers as the start of a New York-Detroit series, 5 to 4, and the White Sox called on the Browns in St. Louis to beat them, 4 to 1.

Cincinnati incurred another defeat at the hands of the Cubs, 3 to 1. The Pirates hit three Cardinal pitchers as they pleased, and beat the St. Louis team, 10 to 5, in Pittsburg.

Burns Says Wills Only Man Who Has Chance With Jack

By Henry L. Farrell
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(U. P.)—Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion, is now using his right to write powerful pieces for the London papers. Tommy's opinions are largely printed and generally respected when he talks about ring things.

Experting about the present condition of the heavyweight class in one of the London papers received today, Burns says:

"The only fighter who has a good chance to win the title from Jack Dempsey under 'protect yourself at all times' rules in Harry Wills, the American negro fighter.

"Probably no boxer knows Wills as well as I do, as I refereed two contests for him—one against San Langford and one against Jim Johnson. Wills won both fairly easily.

"Wills is as big as Jim Johnson and a better natural fighter than he ever was, but not as good in defense. Wills is another Peter Jackson.

"Carpentier would have a good chance with Dempsey in another fight in a clean breaking contest, but if Dempsey were allowed to hit in the clinches, as in their previous fight, it would be 'good-night, Georges,' in a few rounds."

Burns says that Carpentier and Beckett ought to fight again, as the one-punch victory of the Frenchman in their first encounter was a fluke.

Tommy thinks he has something left himself, as he suggests that he be given another chance against Beckett if the Frenchman will not meet the British champion again.

WOMEN GOLF PLAY TODAY

Women members of the Portland Golf club will tee-off today in the qualifying round of the spring handicap tournament. A flag tourney is also scheduled by Captain Mrs. Pat Allen.

Injunction Suggested As Next Move

By George Bertz
Journal Sports Editor.

STATEMENTS made Friday by William J. Kenworthy, who is being kept out of baseball by the failure of Judge Landis to reach a decision in his appeal from the National association ruling in refusing to grant his free agent's claim, indicate more strongly that he is being made the "goat."

Kenworthy's statement is as follows: "I agreed on terms to manage the Seattle club for a period of two years with Jim Boldt October 11, 1921. He told me that he had not yet been elected president of the Seattle club, but would be named at the next meeting of the directors, and that I could consider myself as good as signed. I left Boldt and he instructed me to meet him at the Buffalo meeting.

RECALLS VERBAL OFFER

"In the meantime Bill Klepper, former president of the Seattle club, purchased the Portland team, and then Walter McCredie gave out the statement that I owned stock in the Portland club. Boldt telegraphed me regarding this, and I immediately denied it by wire.

"Then Boldt wired me again and stated that the papers were carrying stories to that effect and offered me a one-year contract, with the understanding that I would be retained if my club finished in the first division this season.

"This was not in accordance with the verbal agreement of last October, and I wired him to that effect, and also informed Bill Klepper, who had control of the Portland club, as I was under the impression that my side agreement with Klepper and Brewster would make me a free agent in case the Seattle club failed to retain me as manager.

CLAIM TURNED DOWN

"After getting my wire, Boldt made me another offer; and at the time I received his second offer I got another message declaring that the board of directors of the Seattle club has called off all agreements in regard to my taking charge of the Seattle club.

"I corresponded with Klepper regarding the matter and met Boldt and Klepper in Buffalo. Boldt brought Walter McCredie, former manager of the Beavers, to Buffalo with him, and that indicated to me that he did not intend to live up to his agreement with me.

"Prior to meeting Klepper at Buffalo, he wired me to hold out and make Seattle come to an agreement with me or give me my release. At Buffalo I placed my claim for release before the National association, and it was rejected. This was followed by an appeal to Judge Landis, who placed me on the ineligible list.

"An hour after the National association ruled against me Boldt announced the signing of McCredie as manager of the Seattle club. This certainly indicated that Boldt did not live up to his agreement."

Kenworthy admitted correspondence with Klepper after his claim was turned down, but was under the impression, as all other men connected with baseball were, that the sanction of the trade between Seattle and Portland for Kenworthy and Krug indicated that he was to be reinstated.

LANDIS HAS DATA

The fact that Landis authorized Kenworthy to train with the Portland club also was taken to mean that he was to reinstate the "Iron Duke."

President McCarthy took his message to have that meaning and so informed Kenworthy and President Klepper.

Kenworthy stated that he turned over all correspondence in the case to Judge Landis, including the written side agreement with the Seattle club, which was made in December, 1920.

President Klepper of the Portland club returned to Portland Friday morning, but has not decided on the next move. He was quite peeved at President McCarthy's statement regarding the case.

KLEPPER SILENT

Klepper has not received a reply from Landis to the telegram wired April 19 explaining in detail the motive of his message to Kenworthy in which, it is believed, that Landis considered tampering with a player under reserve with another club as against the rules of baseball.

A well known member of the Oakland club stated that Landis is carrying his methods too far and that some day the players will rise up and bolt organized baseball.

Several Portland fans have made the suggestion that the Portland club seek an injunction against Judge Landis to restrain him from keeping Kenworthy out of the Portland lineup.

Coast Crews To Race for Title Today

SEATTLE, Wash., April 21.—(U. P.)—Will Washington or California represent the West in the annual intercollegiate regatta in June this year?

The outcome of the Western Conference race this afternoon will determine the right to row in the eastern classic as western champions and for one year to hold the premier honors of the Pacific coast.

WASHINGTON FAVORITE

With a record of nine victories in the 12 races rowed on the coast, Washington will enter the regatta as the favorite.

Only in 1921 has California passed the northern rowers, when on two occasions Stanford won the triangular western regatta.

Washington has twice been represented in the Poughkeepsie regatta. The Purple and Gold crew rowed to fourth place in one race and sixth in the other entered. California represented the West last year and placed second in the annual crew classic.

More than the title and right to go east is in the minds of the Washington crew and coaches. The race is counted on to settle the long rivalry between the two schools which hangs in the balance this year. California's defeat of Washington in football overwhelmingly was only partly erased by a northern victory in basketball and only by a decisive victory among the crew, the closing sport of the season, can Washington redeem her honors for the year from the Golden Bears.

CREWS POWERFUL

Two of the most powerful crews in the history of western rowing will compete. Washington's varsity has bettered by one second the record of the three mile course. California's time is unknown on Lake Washington, but there is little to choose between the crews in weight and strength. The Purple and Gold shell has a drive of nearly two feet more on its stroke than the crew of last season. California is reported to have equally increased the strength of the rowing combination.

Letter men will occupy few places in the shells this year. California has only Captain Dan McMillan and L. Brown from the boat of last year. Washington vets now rowing are Captain Murphy, Bob Ingram and Sam Shaw. In both schools letter men in the sport will be on the shore during the race, having seen their seats go to new men with better form or more power.

WEATHER GOOD

Weather conditions will greatly alter the outcome of the race. The almost perfect weather of the past week has given both crews a chance to get into perfect condition, but should the wind come up just before the regatta it will be postponed until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The present record established in 1916, is 15 minutes 56 seconds for the three mile course.

The races are scheduled to start at 4:30 p. m. The freshman race, which has been won four times by the Purple and Gold men and twice by Stanford, will follow the varsity race.

Chicago.—Northwestern university will send but one contestant to the Drake relays April, 28-29—Ole Dahl, western conference champion in the shotput.

Local Golf Clubs To Play Inter-Club Match Saturday

PLAY in the qualifying round of the John G. Jemson inter-club team trophy competition between 20 teams representing the Waverley Country club, Tualatin Country club and the Portland Golf club, will be staged Saturday afternoon over the course of the Waverley club.

The sunny weather of the past few days has put the Waverley course in good condition and some close playing is expected, as some of the best players on the coast will be paired against each other in the event.

Have Any Luck?

Last week in our Sporting Goods ad we announced that we would give a leather-bound fishing basket to the first fisherman or woman to bring in a limit catch of trout. As soon as the doors opened last Monday morning two limit catches were brought in. Several others came in during the day. Many big catches were reported. Did you have any luck? If not, perhaps you didn't have the right kind of tackle. We have. The kind that gets 'em.
