To Meet Monday

The May meeting of the Portland Ministerial association will be held Monday at 10:45 a. m. in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. The Rev. Edward Constant, Y. M. C. A. The Rev. Edward Constant, president, will preside. A session of the cabinet will precede the general meeting. The meditation service this month will be in charge of the Rev. S. Earl Dn Bois, pastor of the Church of the Strangers. The speakers will include Bishop W. T. Sumner, who recently returned from the East; J. J. Handsaker, who will present the coming Near East relief drive, and two representatives of the Y. M. C. A. from Eugene and Corvallis.

At 2 p. m., in the same auditorium, the clergy will review several Bible films at the request of the management of the Rivoli theatre. All clergymen have been invited to attend and bring two representative laymen, including the Sunday school superintendent, and to pass judgment upon films depicting the creation, Cain and Abel, the flood and other Bible steries.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOUR At a meeting of the Sunday school su-perintendents of Multnomah county last Tuesday night a committee was appoint-Tuesday night a committee was appointed to cooperate with a similar committee from Clackamas county, in an effort to secure a special Sunday school hour as a part of the Gladstone Chautauqua program. The Multnomah county committee included E. C. Galloway, W. E. Daut and Miss Ruth Clement. About 55 Sunday schools of the city were represented. A larger representation is anticipated at the next quarterly meeting, as the Methodist superintendents could not attend, owing to the unled gospel crusade services which they are supporting.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SURVEY An effort is being made by the International Sunday School association to gather a statistical report from every state in the union showing the Sunday school registrations, in order to have a census report for its quadrennial covention, which is to meet in June. Work of gathering the figures in Oregon is in charge of Miss Georgia Parker, acting general secretary of the Oregon Sunday School association, with headquarters at 509 Abington building. In 1918 Oregon reported 1159 Sunday schools, 11,603 teachers and officers and 87,041 pupils.
