MUCH WORK AHEAD

My position als frankly and trutithat our docket at this time is so gested that I cannot campaign with neglecting my duties as a member chairman of the public service comasion. Barring unforseen complica-na I had hoped, with the assistance nd coordination of my colleagues, to my office to my successor at the

of the present year. "The last three years have been mois as a period of reconstruction, f it could hardly be expected, after fomentation of a World war, that we would be the same unanimity of ion respecting regulation of utili-and for that reason it requires coordination and cooperation from public than has ever been exercise

In the Buchtel complaint it was allegde that 1500 or more of the 32,000 year ago. A large number of these, he mames on the recall petitions were declared, have died since signing the peterged, that 1500 or more were fictitious. oo or more were illegible, that 1500 state and were no longer legal voters of the state at the time the petitions were entation and that 500 of the names on field. the petition were those of persons re-siding without the territory included in Buchtel's district, which comprises all that part of the state west of the ascade mountains.

It was also alleged that 12,650 names, ecording to the verification of the renittee itself, were affixed to lower lights rates, it being so reprethe petitions prior to August 1, 1921, and that stace that time it was reasonable to suppose that many of the petitioners the recall committee had, after securing a large part of the signatures to the whereas the recall law contemters of the state at the time the

ADDED NAMES ATTACKED

It was also contended by Hurst that the act, of depositing the petitions with the secretary of state's office here on April 18 constituted a formal filing of the documents and that on that date the petitions lacked approximately 1800 agnatures of the number required to place Buchtel's name on the recall ballot. He was ready to go to trial at any time, he stated, and the case could be Hurst had previously served notice on urst had previously served notice on determined in time to permit of the calling of the special election on May 18 if the court should hold that the petitions as lied with him on pril 18.
