forces Sunday for the closing services of the united gospel crusade, which has been in progress here since March 30, hurches, and nearly all the foreign language congregations, have voted to suspend all activities except the Sunday school, and attend the four tabernacle tervices of the day. Many of the Sunday school sessions will be shortened to permit the workers to reach the tabernacle for the morning church service.

At 11 a. m. tomorrow Dr. Anderson will preach from the subject "Cleansing the Temple"; at 3 p. m. on "The White Robed Christ," and at 7:30 p. m. on "The Man Who Came Back." The fourth service of the day will be the union Epworth league service at 6:15 p. m. Ali the services Sunday will be open to the general public. The tabernacle is at East Third and Irving streets, near the east end of the Steel bridge.

If the audience arrives early, the Sun ay night service will be started ahead of cheduled time. Each of the three preaching services will be prefaced by a ong service under the direction of Walter R. Jenkins, with Bentley D. Ackley at the piano.

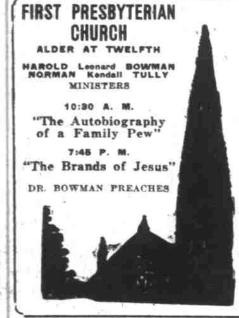

The offerings at the three main serv ces will be free-will offerings for Dr Inderson, who came to Portland to conluct the crusade without having any financial agreement with the local comnittee, except that he be given the offering of the closing Sunday. The offerings of the meetings to date will pay the expenses of the crusade, so the inance committee will not have to colect any money on the underwritings. small balance is anticipated from the salvaging of the building, which will
