Community News in and Near Portland

MILWAUKIE

W. B. Perry made a business trip to Eugene and Harrisburg on Tuesday.

Mrs. Maggie A. Johnson, realtor, has been engaged in circuit court duty the past week at Oregon City.

Floyd Lovelace has purchased a lot on 24th street, and will erect a new home at once.

The De Moss entertainers gave an entertainment at the Evangelical church on Tuesday evening.

The P.-T. A. held its annual meeting in the high school building and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. R. Froman; first vice-president, Mrs. M. S. Shrock; second vice-president, Mrs. H. R. Winchall; secretary, Mrs. B. S. Wakefield; treasurer, B. S. Wakefield. The meeting was dadressed by the state president, Mrs. J. F. Hill.

The commencement exercises of the high school will take place Friday evening. The grammar school graduation will occur at the Gladstone Chautauqua park some time in June.

The Rev. F. M. Fisher, pastor of the Evangelical church, has been returned for another year, the action being taken by the annual conference which convened at Tacoma, Wash.

Irva A. Smith has been elected teacher of English in the Franklin high school of Portland.

Dalbert Olds, a well known young man who suffered severe injuries several years ago while engaged in bridge construction with his father, underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital recently.

A Portland-Salem stage narrowly escaped a serious accident with its 12 passengers on Monday, at the Johnson creek bridge, when something gave way. The quick action of the driver saved the bus from going over the embankment.

OSWEGO

The Oswego Commercial club members decided to adjourn for the summer months at the meeting held last Monday night. If any business of importance comes up before fall, the president, Fred Normand, will call a meeting by posting notices.

The water committee is to go before the Portland water bureau to see about the possibility of getting Bull Run water for Oswego. A committee was appointed to see the S. P. about beautifying and parking off the property along Main street from Oswego to Wilsonia. All standing committees will remain active. At the general mass meeting to be held Monday night, the club urges all members to be present at the city hall, at 8 o'clock.

The summer season is here at last. It is slightly delayed, but hundreds of machines and visitors are coming out, and each day the lake shores are the scene of many picnic parties. The Oregon Iron & Steel company is making many improvements. A water line is being laid to McLean's Camp. The company is making preparations to build several summer cottages on the slope overlooking the lake. The streets from the county road are being cleared of underbrush and it is understood that work on the lake shore road, which was started last fall, will soon be under way again.

The present school term will end with an interesting program on Thursday evening. The entire student body have been working hard under the careful training of Miss Blanch Cohen and the school faculty. The entertainment, which will be held in the play shed, will be up to the usual standard of past performances.

On Friday morning when the school children come to get their report cards, it is asked that the mothers bring lunches and prepare to enjoy a few hours with the kiddies as an old fashioned school picnic will be given. Games, races and contests are to be held and practice of the boys and girls who will take part in the field meet at Gladstone will be going on.

Mrs. Campbell was a visitor at the home of her brother, George Bullock, last week.

Mrs. Lewis E. Smith met with a painful accident Tuesday, her hand being torn by a chain.

Thursday evening was regular business night for the Artisans.

Mrs. J. W. Bickner and Mrs. Albert Rosentreter were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, Tuesday.

The luncheon of the Women's club which was given at the home of Mrs. William Gray on Wednesday was a delightful affair, well attended by members and visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bickner entertained Stuart Mason of Portland on Sunday.

Mrs. Leonard Hollinan motored over from Redland the first of the week.

Mrs. James T. Walls, Jr., of Powers, Or., is here with her children visiting her mother, Mrs. Clancey, and he sisters, Mrs. Robert Fulton and Mrs. Grace Burke.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson, Jr., on Wednesday evening. A household shower was given the young folks and the large gathering of friends and relatives enjoyed "500" and refreshments. Mrs. Lord and George Bullock won first prizes. Mrs. Campbell and Leslie Savage took home the consolation prizes. The home of David Nelson, Sr., was decorated for the occasion with spring flowers.

Gladys McDonald was hostess Saturday evening at her home, entertaining the seventh and eighth grades of the Oswego school. The guest of honor was Miss Mary Bickner, school principal, who leaves the school for a year's vacation at the close of the present term. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed by the young people and later refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock were in Canby Sunday, as the guests of Mrs. Blanch Eccles, Mr. Bullock's sister.

Mrs. John Bickner has gone to Wallport, where she has been called by the illness of her father.

Frank Anderson has gone to Alaska for the summer.

Mrs. George Bullock will be hostess next Thursday for a luncheon given for the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church.

The boys of American Legion Elston-Harrington post, will give a dinner and entertainment Friday, May 26, at Odd Fellows' hall. Dinner from 5:30 to 7:30. Funds will go toward the building of the new club house, which the boys are working hard to erect.

Miss Esther Kessler, who was ill, is better.

Dana Rebekah lodge met Friday. An interesting program was given, Frank Whitten being in charge. Mrs. Lehman, Mrs. Bruce, Miss Lillian Bickner and Mrs. Boyd were prize winners at "500."

Mrs. Pfaff and daughter, Miss Lucile, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott on Sunday last.

WOODSTOCK

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet in the social room of the church Wednesday afternoon, May 24. Mrs. J. E. Myers will be hostess.

The W. C. T. U. will hold an all-day meeting Tuesday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Cook, No. 5804 40th street.

Mrs. Dale Kelly of Roseburg is visiting at the home of Mr. Kelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Thompson, No. 4111 56th avenue.

The Rose Festival float committee will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. A. T. Blachly, No. 4411 Woodstock avenue. All who are interested in Woodstock having a float in the Rose Festival parade are requested to be present.

The Epworth league of the M. E. church elected the following officers last week: President, Francis Kelly; first vice president, Alice Nelson; second vice president, Frank White; third vice president, Bessie Nelson; fourth vice president, Sylvia Powell; secretary, Ruth Snyder; treasurer, Louise Van Fleet; chorister, Lawrence Snyder; 24-hour-day secretary, William Cole; institute manager, Nellie Hall. Installation of officers will take place at the public service Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Calendar club of the Methodist church will give a cafeteria dinner at the church Friday, May 26, from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fisher and children, No. 6512 63d street, went to Rockwood, Or., Friday to visit Mrs. Fisher's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. L. F. Smith.

Mrs. Joseph Deters is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Warmuth, No. 6106 48th street.

Mrs. G. A. Schumacher of Newport, Or., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Teft, and her sister, Mrs. J. E. Horner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Witham celebrated their 52d wedding anniversary at their home on 49th street, all their children being present. Their children are: Dr. A. A. Witham, Mrs. Ethel Ward, Mrs. Wilbur Morris, Mrs. George Reynolds, Herman E. Witham of Portland, Fred W. Witham, Everett, Wash., Herbert Witham and Bertram Witham of Rainier, and Walter Witham of Paisley.

The Woodstock Fire company ball team defeated the Doernbecher company team Sunday by a score of 23 to 3. Woodstock will play the Milwaukie Volunteer Firemen May 21 on the Woodstock grounds.

Miss Josephine Pease, No. 4206 56th avenue, and Mr. Morrise C. Kaegi, No. 1405½ Sandy boulevard, were married Thursday evening, May 18.

Mr. Spurrier, who has been ill at his home, is able to be in his hardware store again.

S. T. Englesgaard, No. 5311 45th street, has gone on a ten days' fishing trip.

The Woodstock Junior baseball team has joined the Portland Junior Baseball league.

OAK GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks enjoyed a visit from their daughter, Mrs. C. Vernon, and little son of Portland.

Mrs. Negra Hall has returned from the hospital, where an adjustment of broken bones took place.

Last Saturday Con Johnson, who lives alone in a shack, was found in a helpless condition by his neighbors, from a stroke of paralysis.

Last Friday Mrs. Mary F. Hobkirk fell in the basement of her store, breaking a wrist and sustaining severe bruises.

A meeting of the Federated Women's clubs of Clackamas county was held Oak Grove on Friday afternoon. An address on public health was given by Miss Campbell of the Milwaukie sanitarium. The following officers were elected: Mrs. V. G. Bauvin, president; Miss E. K. Matthews of Oak Grove, vice president; Mrs. O. E. Freytag of Gladstone, secretary, and Mrs. Parnau treasurer.

Mrs. John Unis of Portland was an over Sunday guest of her sisters, Mesdames Paul and Palinblad.

Mrs. A. Hall is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Barnett.

Mrs. John Waldron, state treasurer, and Mrs. John F. Risley, state secretary of the Oregon P.-T. A., attended the national convention at Tacoma.

Appropriate Mothers' day exercises were held at the Oak Grove church last Sunday.

Mrs. Jessie Cavitt of Roseville, Cal., has arrived at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Calliard of Duncan, Victoria, arrived to attend the wedding of their daughter, Mary Colliard, to Rene Darway, which was solemnized at Oregon City last Thursday.

Frank Fowler has returnd from Eastern Oregon, where he has spent several months.

The Oak Grove Good Fellowship club held an enjoyable meeting at the community church Wednesday night. A program consisting of music and a reading by Gladys Palmer was followed by refreshments.

The card party held in Green's hall by the local P.-T. A. for the scenic curtain and stage fixture fund for the school auditorium was largely attended.

GLADSTONE

Rev. G. E. Williams, who has arrived from Foster, Wash., to act as pastor of the Christian church, is staying temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gault. When the repairs on the parsonage are completed he will be joined by his wife and family.

Mrs. A. B. Wingate of Portland was a guest of Mrs. F. D. Ellis on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clay, Mrs. Moore and son Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker motored to Cornelius and spent Sunday with the Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Clay.

Paul W. Schuman of Gladstone died early Friday morning, at the family home, after an illness of several months. He was a native of Germany, and with his parents came to America when but four years of age. He is survived by a wife and son, Edson, both of this place.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Dunmire were held Saturday at Oregon City, in charge of Holman & Parr.

Mrs. Chester Parker and mother, Mrs. Moir, entertained at luncheon Thursday Mrs. K. E. Bauersfield, Glunria Bauersfield and Alice Freytag.

Mrs. C. M. Aurim and son of Los Angeles are the guests of Mrs. E. M. Conway.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Eby entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hess of Omaha, Neb.; S. M. Eby of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. O. B. Taylor of Portland.

The European club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Miranda last Thursday. The ladies of East Gladstone entertained the ladies of West Gladstone. At 1 o'clock luncheon was served, after which the opera "Carmen" was studied, led by Mrs. Thomas E. Gault. Mrs. Gord sank two selections from the opera. Mrs. Victor Gault had charge of the study hour, the artist Duver being the subject.

Mrs. Gilbert Russell entertained the King's Daughters of the Oregon City Episcopal church at her home on Wednesday afternoon. The Russell home was decorated with apple blossoms. The afternoon was spent in needlework, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

LAKE GROVE

The largest crowd of the season attended the bi-weekly dance held at the community house last Saturday night. Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Kennedy were the hosts of the evening. The affair was a great success in every way. The next dance will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bischoff as sponsors.

Mrs. Charles Zahn and her little daughter, who have been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Kennedy, have returned to their home in Spokane.

Mr and Mrs. E. R. McLaughlin of Sedro-Woolley motored down to visit their daughter, Mrs. L. C. Commons. Their visit will extend into next week.

Mrs Russell Robertson and Mrs. Fred Bischoff were hostesses at a charming garden party Wednesday. The day was ideal and the grounds of the Robertson home, with large shade trees overlooking the lake, lent themselves as a beautiful background to the many guests. The afternoon was spent at cards with Mrs. Gerald Dayne Bert as winner of the high prize and Mrs. P. M. Newcomb recipient of the consolation prize. The ladies present were Mesdames Luce, Harris, Bert, Newcomb, Nock, Carpenter, Soule, Payne, Stanton, Buxman, Wells, Shreve, Commons, Randall, Simonton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Ashton of Portland have rented the Commons cottage at Lake Grove. They will move out this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson are now domiciled at Olympia, having left Goodin last Monday. Their absence will be deeply felt by all their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams entertained several of their friends at a "500" party last Monday evening. After a few rounds of cards the guests were charmed with music. Mrs. Williams is a gifted pianist and Mr. Jarvis the possessor of a wonderful voice. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Commons, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stoetzel, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ryder, Mr. Butts and Clifford Snyder.

Mrs. W. E. Simonton entertained The Dalles club on Thursday at a delightful luncheon. The table was decorated with iris and camas, the blues and purples making a rich color scheme. Seated at the table were Mesdames J. T. Peters, W. Abrams, E. M. Wingate, Earl Muller, H. S. Wilson, W. Fordyce, J. W. Hill, B. S. Huntington, F. Clark, E. Anderson, R. Soule, W. S. Myers, M. Harden, T. J. Suefert, R. H. Guthrie and F. Deitvel.

The next meeting of the club will be held June 1 with Mrs. J. T. Peters as hostess. It is planned to have a picnic at The Oaks.

CENTRAL EAST SIDE

John Cummings is repainting his home on East Ankeny street. He also planted eight rose bushes on the side of the house.

Miss Nettie Thompson, East 13th street, has been absent from work since last Tuesday. She is suffering from poison oak, resulting from a trip to the country last Sunday. She first felt it in her eye, but it has spread all over her body.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coningsby, East 22d street, are being congratulated over the arrival of a baby girl last Sunday. She is to be named Nellie Katherine, after Mrs. Coningsby's sister, who was killed during the war while she was abroad as a nurse.

Kenneth Rouchey purchased a new bicycle Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning a reckless driver ran into it as it was parked in front of Kenneth's home, East Couch street. Kenneth could not find out who the culprit was, but has started to save for a new one.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Simpson, East Ninth street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Kohn at a week-end party. The guests are all from Corvallis. They went to see "Ragged Robin" at the Heilig Saturday evening, and stayed over for Elks week.

Mrs. Bert Hoskins, East 18th street, gave a linen shower in honor of Miss Estelle Greenwood, who is engaged to be married to Herbert Hotchkiss of Seattle. Miss Greenwood received many useful and beautiful articles. The couple are planning to spend six weeks in Yellowstone park, after which they will return and settle down in Seattle, where Mr. Hotchkiss has built a five-room bungalow.

Frances Stockton celebrated her fourteenth birthday at her home Wednesday afternoon. Eight of her school friends were present. Three of the girls presented a very clever skit. Two sang a song that they themselves had composed. Games and refreshments finished the day. The girls present were: Marion Strube, Gertrude Haake, Carolyn Schilling, Agnes Riebling, Frances Mokowsky, Helene Robertson, Corinne Richards and Sarah Knowles.

Merle Thompkins severely sprained her ankle Tuesday afternoon when she fell off a ladder. She was climbing up and attempting to cut some lilac branches when the ladder jerked and knocked her to the ground.

PARKPLACE

The local P.-T. A. held its annual election of officers at the school building Friday afternoon. The following ladies were chosen: President, Mrs. Clara Breyger; vice-president, Mrs. Pearl Brennir; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Marie Brunner. Mrs. Effie Smith is the retiring president and has shown much interest in this department of school work. A committee, composed of Mrs. Mingur, Mrs. Glass and Mrs. Smith, was appointed to investigate the several playsheds throughout the neighboring districts and to submit their report at the annual board meeting, which will be held June 3.

The members of Meade post, G. A. R., of Oregon City, will visit the schools Friday, May 26, at 10:30 a. m. The high school of Park Place was the first to be organized in Clackamas county and has taken its place in the ranks of patriotism.

Sam Jones is impaneled on the circuit court jury.

Miss Malo spent the weekend at her home in Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rosabraugh were in Oswego Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Braneir was the delegate from Abernathy grange to the state grange, which convened at Tillamook May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith were out-of-town guests Sunday.

Miss Helen Huff, superintendent of the Sunday school, is preparing a program for Children's day exercises.

Mrs. Clara Rosabraugh and daughter Helen were in Portland Friday.

The board of education has elevated Carl Minder to succeed Oswald Janson as principal of the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Malo has been retained as primary instructor, Miss Barnatt, who has successfully taught the fifth and sixth grades, has resigned to complete a course of study at Monmouth. No appointment has been made for the third and fourth grades, owing to the illness of the present teacher, Mrs. Marie Brunnear.

MONTAVILLA

The B. Y. P. U. of Grace Baptist church took a hike to the top of Rocky Butte Friday evening, May 12, under the chaperonship of Dr. Huckleberry Jr. and wife. All returned home tired but happy.

On Tuesday evening, May 16, the superintendents and workers of the various Baptist churches of Portland, numbering 75, enjoyed the supper hour at the Grace Baptist church, after which an interesting program interspersed with music and singing was rendered. Several ministers gave brief readings on their church work.

Mrs. W. H. Paddack of Oregon City and her niece, Mrs. Clinton Powell of Portland, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Faulkner, Salmon street, Wednesday, May 17.

Monday vening Mrs P. E. Dutton, No. 38 East 76th street, gave a reception honoring Mrs. John Barcroft. Those present were: Mrs. L. Giles, Mrs. E. G. Carlson, Mrs. Milton Wolfe, Mrs. L. V. Dickson, Mrs. Ralph Ball, Mrs. George Frances, Mrs. W. G. Parsons, Mrs. William Goddhart, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Howes, Mrs. Paul Konkle, Mrs. Connan, Mrs. P. E. Dutton, Mrs. John Barcroft. Music and "500" furnished amusement for the evening. Mrs. William Goddhart caried away first prize for "500" and Mrs. Ralph Ball the "booby" prize. Luncheon was served. Dr. and Mrs. Barcroft are newcomers in the community. They are welcome additions.

Four delegates from the Montavilla Methodist Episcopal church attended the district home missionary meeting at the University Park Methodist Episcopal church, Tuesday, May 16.

I. T. Boehm and wife have opened a grocery store in the new building recently built at East 82nd street and Hawthorne avenue.

Hudson Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting Wednesday, May 17, at the school. Officers for the coming year were elected. Plans were laid for a basket picnic on the school ground the evening of June 2. They have also engaged the Montavilla school auditorium for Friday evening, May 26, and they will give a moving picture show for the patrons of Hudson school. Funds raised are to be used to finance the picnic.

A large delegation of Epworth Leaguers attended the league convention at Centennary-Wilbur church, East 8th and Pine streets. Montavilla league received the pennant for attendance.

CLACKAMAS

The "500" club of Clackamas met as usual on Saturday night.

H. Kraushaar was a visitor of the Bakers on Sunday.

E. A. Streit, George Hudson, R. Johnson and H. Nelson were in Oregon City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Elkin and Mrs. Stack were visitors of R. Johnston and family Sunday.

W. F. Haberlach was in Portland on business Monday.

The C. A. C. meets at the Hornbuyer hall every Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miles Deakins, a prominent farmer, died Tuesday of pneumonia at the Oregon City hospital. A widow and three small children survive.

COLLINS VIEW

The Parent-Teacher association of Capitol hill school will meet May 23 for the election of officers. The speaker will be the dean of the polytechnic school, who will give a talk on the girls' work.

Dr. M. M. Reid of Capitol Hill and his wife made a trip to Lyle, Wash., last week-end to attend a family reunion in honor of Mrs. Reid's youngest brother, Edward Cromwell, whom they have not seen for 28 years.

Margaret and Georgia Hartman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman of Collins View, are joining the class of "Brownies," a junior branch of the Girl Scouts, now being formed by Mrs. R. Bruce Horsfall of Kilpatrick Collins tract.

W. F. Bennett of Rupert, Idaho, brother of Mrs. E. E. Ewing and Mrs. Versett of Collins View is visiting his sisters and looking around with the intention of settling in Oregon.

Mrs. A. T. Mims of Collins View recently fell down the steps on leaving church and badly sprained her knee.

New officers of the Southwest Portland Improvement league are: M. L. McGraw of Alta Park, president; E. B. Magee of Kilpatrick Collins vice-president; Mrs. George Hartman of Collins View secretary-treasurer. An executive committee of five will be elected June 12. The changes in the by-laws and constitution were left open for discussion. A committee of three was appointed to present the electric lights petition to the light and power companies.

SELLWOOD

Donald Junor, No. 1117 Ogden avenue, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Sellwood hospital Saturday of last week. He is getting along nicely.

Stanley Poole, son of A. T. Poole, underwent an operation for appendicitis last week at the Sellwood hospital.

An electric bakery has opened its doors in the new building at East 13th street and Miller avenue.

Wrecking operations have been in progress for the past week on the building erected 10 years ago by the Christian church on the triangular lot at East 17th street and Nehalem avenue. The structure had not been used for several years, and has been without windows and doors for a long time. It was a commendable move to tear it down.

John W. Keeler, No. 1460 East 13th street, was in Seattle the past week on a business trip.

Jack Herman, No. 1540 East 13th street, has been very successful as a salmon angler at Oregon City, but one day last week, after he had a beauty in the boat, by a sudden jump, it jerked a hook almost through his thumb. A physician removed it, but not without quite a little pain.

A real up-to-date strike has been in full fledge at the Oregon Worsted Mills, East 25th street and Umatilla avenue, the past few days, the night crew of boys having walked out in protest over a 12-hour night shift. All employes were laid off temporarily, but the plant is likely to resume operations next week with day crews only.

City View I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges will send their patrols to Eugene next week to contest for the prizes at the annual grand lodge sessions, May 22, 23 and 24. Last year the Rebekahs won the cup, and hope to repeat. The subordinate lodge patrol was second last year, and hope to land the cup the coming week.

Work is under way on the concrete basement of the new Moreland Presbyterian church.

Morgan's dry goods store is in its new location, in the Griessen building, corner of East 13th street and Spokane avenue, having moved from the Nolf building, two blocks south.

Frank Copell and daughter are here from Los Angeles, visiting relatives and friends. Frank is engaged in the garage business in the Southern metropolis and is doing fine. The family formerly resided at No. 544 Rex avenue, and Frank was for many years a valued employe of the East Side Mill & Lumber Co.

The Westmoreland district seems to be coming into its own with a rush these days. Fifteen new houses are under construction. A new grocery store has opened its doors at No. 1442 Milwaukie street, and rumor has it that a moving picture house will be erected near the corner of Milwaukie street and Bybee avenue in the near future.

Dr. J. W. Lehman made the trip by boat to Astoria last week with Professor Whitney and his corp of assistants and 200 boys, members of the Whitney chorus. Stops were made overnight for a concert at Kelso, where they were royally entertained, and at Cathlamet. Dr. Lehman went in the capacity of medical adviser and he was needed.

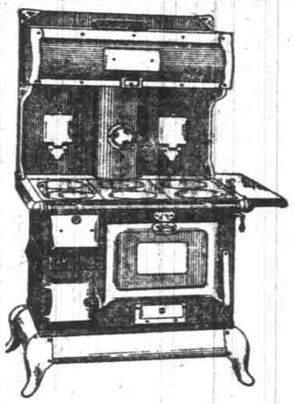
A little son of Mrs. Charles of No. 1773 East 11th street returned to Spokane this week after a visit at home.

Mrs. Roy Brown goes to Eugene next week to attend the Rebekah grand lodge session.

Quality Counts Now As Never Before

Better Furniture, Better Prices, Better Terms

LIBERTY RANGE



The Liberty Range on sale this week needs no introduction. We have been selling them for 10 years. Has six 8-inch covers, sectional plate, top polished, large Oregon fire box; plenty of room for wood and coal. This range is fully guaranteed by Gadsbys'. Special..... $54.75

Wedgewood
QUALITY FUEL ECONOMY SERVICE

COMBINATION GAS RANGE AND KITCHEN HEATER

A quickly kindled fire in the coal and wood heater at the end of this Wedgewood, warms up the atmosphere faster than any furnace and at a fraction of the cost.

This practical combination makes it an absolute pleasure to cook with gas at all times.

Made of rust-resisting ARMCO Iron.

White Porcelain enamel door fronts, splasher and dirt pan.

Most economical range you can buy.

Guaranteed by the Manufacturer.

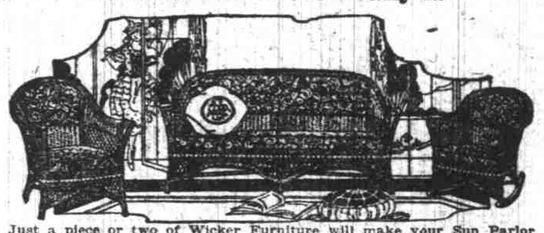
NOTICE—We will take your old cook stove or range in exchange on one of these new Wedgewood Ranges and allow you all it is worth.

Our Rug Department

In our large Rug Department, the most extensive display in the city, you will find just the right patterns and colors to faithfully carry out your ideas for a truly "better home." Prices also are very moderate.

9x12 Seamless Brussels	$21.85
9x12 Axminsters	$37.75
9x12 Woolfiber	$17.50

Come and See How Inexpensive Summer Comfort Really Is



Just a piece or two of Wicker Furniture will make your Sun Parlor or Porch a pleasant place to while away sunny hours. We have a sale this week of Willow Furniture, in old ivory and frosted brown finishes.

Gadsby Sells Overstuffed Parlor Suites For Less

If you have not visited the department devoted to overstuffed living room suites lately you will be amazed to find such an extensive variety of different styles represented at the new low price levels. There are handsome two and three-piece suites in tapestry, others in beautiful velour and combinations, while still others will be found in genuine mohair. Prices on three-piece suites as pictured above start as low as..... $150.00

Tapestry Davenports as low as $63.50 and $72.50.

Notice the Prices Below on Bedroom Suites

We find our stock of bedroom furniture is considerably larger than ordinarily at this time of the year and consequently have made sweeping reductions on practically every suite shown. The suite pictured above, including a full-length vanity dresser, is a beautiful Queen Anne period design, finished in American walnut. It is a quality suite through and through and the special reduced prices on these pieces are as follows: Large Vanity Dresser, $49.50; Bowfoot Bed, $36.00; Dresser, $36.00; Chiffonette, $23.00. Price complete $154.50

Special Sale of Dining Room Suites

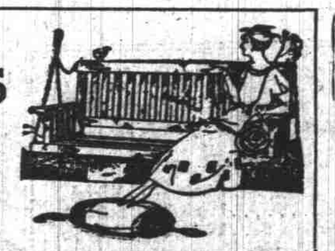
We have just placed on display a solid carload of the newest period styles in complete Dining Room Suites. While many of them are in the latest Italian Renaissance designs, there are also included many patterns in Queen Anne and other popular period styles. The complete suite pictured is one of the most attractive values we have had in many a day and its price complete, with six chairs, is only $139.50

EASY TERMS AT GADSBYS'.

PORCH SWINGS With Chains Complete

Similar to Cut

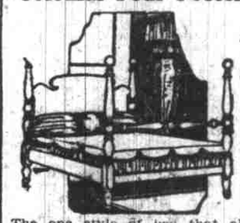
$5.95



SPECIAL Top Icer Refrigerator $19.75

A great sale of these top icer refrigerators at a bargain price! The case is finished in golden oak, with thickly insulated walls. A spacious food chamber, warranted to keep food perfectly, is full white enameled. Just 40 of these refrigerators to be sold tomorrow at this special price. Be early!

Colonial Four-Poster



The one style of bed that always is in the best of good taste. This is an exceptionally handsome pattern, finished in rich mahogany and special- ly priced at only..... $45.00

$2.25 Delivers This Rocker

Deeply upholstered fireside rockers with coil spring seats and heavy roll arms are priced now at a genuine saving. Upholstered in the very finest grade of brown imitation Spanish leather. These rockers will sell fast at special sale price $22.50

Couch Hammocks

No other single piece of furniture you can buy will give so much real satisfaction this summer, as a couch hammock. We have a wide variety of the more popular new styles at real economy prices.

Baby Carriages

All the latest styles and finishes are represented in the spring opening. Mothers will be sure to find the type of carriage wanted at prices as low as $29.50. Go-Carts as cheap as $10.

No Interest Charged at Gadsbys	$ 50.00	WORTH OF	FURNITURE,	$ 5.00	CASH,	$1.00	WEEK	For Portland and Suburbs
	$ 75.00	WORTH OF	FURNITURE,	$ 7.50	CASH,	$1.50	WEEK
	$100.00	WORTH OF	FURNITURE,	$10.00	CASH,	$2.00	WEEK
	$125.00	WORTH OF	FURNITURE,	$12.50	CASH,	$2.25	WEEK
	$150.00	WORTH OF	FURNITURE,	$15.00	CASH,	$2.50	WEEK

WM. GADSBY & SONS

CORNER SECOND AND MORRISON STREETS