CONCILIATION PLAN ADOPTED BY SHIP BOARD

Uncle Sam Will Ignore Waterfront Employers in Hiring Dock Workers Under Decision of Mediation Board in Strike.

The waterfront strike is over so far as the United States shipping board and the longshoremen's union, in its relation with the shipping board, are concerned. The decision of the state conciliation board was made effective today by shipping board officials and by union longshoremen in the handling of merchant marine vessels.

ABOLISH LIST SYSTEM
The longshoremen have abolished the list system. They have agreed to place Portland and Puget Sound on a strict parity in the matter of wages and working conditions. They have accepted the conciliation board's decision in favor of a neutral hiring bureau. They have met or original demands. There can be no further reason for continuing the strike.

Ben W. OLCOTT'S PLURALITY IS 510

Governor Olcott's plurality over Charles Hall for the Republican nomination for governor is 510. Every precinct has reported and while the official count in the few remaining counties yet to be reported may alter the unofficial figures, no considerable discrepancy is to be expected.

There are working agreements with the employers and longshoremen's association in Vancouver, Tacoma and Victoria, and none in Seattle and San Francisco. Future arrangements in Los Angeles and San Diego are being discussed by adjustments in the Portland strike.
