Though the enthusiasm is no less great than before, the Parisienne now expresses it in a single blossom. Sometimes the flower, rooted somewhere near the hem, extends on a long stalk slantwise across the bodge. It is a strikingly stylish affair and can be worn only by a woman with both slenderness and verve.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoor contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH SKIN WHITE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

PLANS to bring to Portland Herbert H. Heyes, motion picture star, and players, together with a technical staff of well known members of the industry. are being completed this week by a group of Portland men headed by Fletcher Lynn,

The first step in the plan was to bring to Portland Robert E. Wells as chief of production. Wells has had much experience in movieland as a production and distribution official with two of the larger picture corporations and he has already set about the task of preparing for local production of at least one feature motion picture drama.

The new company, which will base its primary effort on the one picture, for which the scenario has already been prepared, will be known as the Herbert H. Heyes Productions company and, according to present plans, the company will employ facilities of the Fred H. Kiser studios on Milwaukie street. The success of the original production probably will determine the scope of the company's future activities.

Added interest attaches to the plan of the new company because of the fact that Herbert Heyes, a recognized star in pictureland and leading player in a number of notable productions, is a Portland He left the home town several years ago to make his way in the pic-tures and his rise has been rapid and Heyes was born at Little Falls, Wash., but came to Portland as a youngster. He was schooled at Hill Military academy here and entered upon a stage career that kept him for nearly 12 years in various productions and stock companies as juvenile, leading man and pany here. He starred on the road in "Truxton King," "The Man on the Box," "Girl of the Golden West" and "Civilian Clothes."

Entering the film realm, Heyes was leading man for Helen Keller in "Deliverance"; co-starred in Rex Beach's 'Heart of the Sunset"; Robertson Cole's The Heart of Rachael," and was a featured player in Fox's "Queen of Sheba" and Universal's "The Evil Half" and The Dangerous Moment.

The new company, with Heyes at its head, will get into action early in July, it is expected, and the first scenario will employ the natural scenic environments of Portland extensively.

Plan to Show Film 'Wild Oats' in Local Theatre Hits Snag

Two members of the city council to-day executed a sudden "about face" on their former decision that the moving picture, "Wild Oats," was worthy of being seen by the public. At an informal Reddy was soon half way out of hearing granted to Joseph A. Brandt, manager of a local movie house which is seeking permission to override the refusal of the censor board, Commissioners Mann and Pier announced they would vote against any ordinance giv ing the theatre permission to show this film, in spite of the refusal of movie board. Brandt said in face of this objection

he would not present an ordinance since it was apparent this would be a waste Mayor Baker, Commissioners Barbur and Bigelow expressed no opin-ion. The censor board refused permis-sion for the picture to be shown in Portland at all when the question was first referred to it, but the city council overruled the board and gave permission to show it at The Auditorium. Brandt asked permission from the cenor board several days ago and received
