By Westbrook Pegler United News Staff Correspond NEW YORK, May 26.—If any prize-fighter in all this cosmos of anything like his poundage can hang a knockout whack on Harry Greb's chin, that fighter must be Georges Carpentier. There's just a chance that Carpentier could catch the bouncing Pittsburger, who made such an unsightly mess of Gene Tunney in detaching Gene from the American light-heavyweight championship. The Frenchman hits harder and with more precision than Tunney hits, and he has had long years of ring experience, the lack of which was a handicap to Tunney in that memorable com notion in Madison Square Garden Tuesday night. A smash on the jaw such as Carpentier flung at Jack Dempsey in the second round at Jersey City, which stunned the mighty mauler and almost caused his knees to knuckle, would be a terrible burden to a little man like Greb. for Harry, after all, is just a heavy mid-

Carpentier is an elusive attraction. however, and the logical light-heavyweight fight between him and Greb for the world's light-heavyweight championship is still in the hat. He can gain nothing much beside the actual guaranwhipping Harry, for this victory would just confirm him as the world's champion at 175 pounds. And, if beaten, he would be unanimously declared a hasbeen, whereas he may take another beat ing from Dempsey and still use the word "martyr" on his business cards. There-fore, it will be no overnight matter of promotion to get the gallant. Gaul into anybody's ring with Harry Greb of Pitts-The man who beats Greb must knock im out, for there isn't a heavy or lightheavy in the ring this day who can strut perhaps 20 rounds. Beyond that, Greb might weaken and take a lacing from a strong, sturdy puncher; but the other man would have to be a giant in staying power to whirl through the first 15 periods and retain enough current to put out a hard thumping toward the end. It goes without saying that Tex Rick-
