bell's charge. CONFERS WITH HARDING

Attorney General Daugherty conferred with President Harding today, and it is understood the war graft prosecutions contemplated were discussed. Asked concerning the prosecution

Daugherty said: "There is faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is patience."

Daugherty decided it was said that the work would proceed more satisfactorily if he personally took charge, with number of "distinguished lawyers" working under him. Funds thus saved are to be used in "actual prosecution" of the cases.

HINTS AT INSIDE CROOKS

Hint that government officials emloved during the war are involved in the investigation to be made by the department of justice war frauds was given in a statement this afternoon by Representative C. F. Reavis of Nebraska, who resigned in order to assist Attorney General Daugherty.
