Mrs. J. F. Logan Dies Unexpectedly, After Attack of Tonsilitis

Fulton car.-Adv.

Complications following an attack of tonsilitis resulted Friday afternoon in the death of Mrs Margaret Logan, wife of John F. Logan, attorney, at the family residence, No. 629 Thompson street. Mrs. Logan was taken ill about 10 days ago, but no alarm was felt for her condition until about three days before her death. The body is at the Edward Holman & Sons undertaking establishment.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 9 a. m. at the Church of the Madeleine. Rev. Father Thompson will say requiem high mass. Interment will be made in Riverview.

Mrs. Logan was born November 25, 1879, in Illinois, and came to Chehalis, Wash., with her parents when she was a child. The family later lived a short time at Hillsboro and then moved to Portland. She was married October 23,

Immediate surviving relatives are the widower, two children, Dorothy and John Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Amy Dobson. Mrs. Dobson arrived in the city Friday, and Miss Logan is expected to arrive Sunday. Mrs. Dobson has been in San Francisco for the past school year with Miss Logan, who completed her course at the Hamlin School for Girls last Wednesday.

Court Dismisses Charges Against Manager of Cafe

The last of the charges placed against Bab's restaurant, No. 326 Stark street, growing out of a raid three weeks age were dismissed in municipal court yesterday by Judge Ekwall.

Frank Muzzi, manager of the cafe, was exonerated from allegations that he possessed liquor at the time of the raid and that he maintained a nuisance. John Holbart was acquitted on a charge of maintaining a nuisance.

In giving his decision, which has been pending for two weeks, Judge Ekwall stated no evidence had been submitted to show that Muzzi possessed three bottles of liquor which were found in a

Fire Patrol Tax Law Held Invalid By Judge Hamilton

Roseburg, May 27 .- Circuit Judge J. W. Hamilton Friday handed down a decis-ion to the effect that the fire patrol tax law, in effect since 1914, is unconstitutional. The decision was made in the case of the First Bank of Sutherlin against Kendall Brothers. The Kendall Brothers refused to pay the fire patrol tax levied by the state, and certificates of delinquency were issued. These were purchased by the State Bank of Suthern, which later brought suit to collect the amount, held as a judgment. Rice & Orcutt appear for the defendants.
