and $50,000 surplus, with total resources of about $3,200,000. The name and charter of the Bank of Oregon City will be continued, and Will T. Wright, president of the Bank of Oregon City, will continue in that office.

Large Franc Crop Forecast—The outlook for the prune crop in Clarke county, Washington, is good, and, according to the opinion of various growers, a bumper crop will be harvested. The crop without the late and incessant rains without any damage, and, as far as can be ascertained, the frost which struck that part of the country at a critical time did not hurt the blossoms, which were unusually numerous. The yield for the county is estimated at about 19,000,000 pounds.

First Shipments of Salmon—The first shipments of the 1922 pack of Columbia river salmon to go to the Atlantic seaboard were loaded at Astoria last week on two steamers and comprised 10,000 cases. The Andrea F. Luckenbach loaded 5000 cases and 75,000 feet of lumber and sailed for New York via Seattle. The Kennecott loaded 5000 cases of salmon and a consignment of flour, sailing for New York and Philadelphia via way ports.

Direct connection with all stages to and from The Dalles. Phone Main 8611.—Adv.

Lot Owners Oppose Paving—Prospects for any street paving being done in Vancouver county, Arthur Hanzall of the city of Vancouver, is president. There was a good attendance at the initial meeting last week.

Portland-Tillamook Cadillac Stage—Stage depot, Park and Yamhill streets. Daily at 8:15 a. m., 12:30 and 3:30 p. m. Special arrangements made for fishing parties. Main 8611.—Adv.

Strawberry Season Week Late—While the Hood River valley strawberry crop will be later this year by a week than in normal seasons, reports received from other districts are to the effect that other Northwestern areas will be proportionately late, and the market for the Hood River product, which is sold mostly in Montana and the Dakotas, will in no way be upset by weather conditions. The tonnage will reach nearly 100,000 crates, and the fruit will be of excellent quality.

Holiday Excursion Fare—Don't forget the excursion fares via the Union Pacific system to Columbia river points when planning your outing for Decoration day.
Astoria—$1.20, Cascade Locks—$2.10, Bridalveil—1.25, Herman—2.20, Mt. Hood—1.50, Yreath—2.40, Oregonia—1.50, Vento—2.70, Dodson—1.70, Hood River—3.05, Warrenton—1.75, Clatsop—2.30, Bonville—1.90, Rowena—3.85, Eagle Creek—1.50, The Dalles—4.10.

Above round trip fares on sale at Consolidated Ticket office and Union station today and tomorrow, good for returning Wednesday.—Adv.

Bar on Scotch Broom—Autoists and pedestrians should remember that it is unlawful to gather Scotch broom along the public highways. A warning has been issued from the county commissioners' office. Several persons were seen over the week-end gathering the broom on the approach to the Interstate bridge, this calling for the warning.

St. Johns Church Picnic—A picnic under the auspices of the St. Johns church of Milwaukie will be given at Crystal Lake park Tuesday, Decoration day. Dancing and a patriotic program featuring amplified radio concerts, will be held. Races and various contests will be staged for which prizes will be given. A special prize will be awarded the largest family present.

Leave on Sad Errand—Arthur S. Benson, clerk of the state supreme court, and his mother, Mrs. Henry L. Benson of Salem, have gone to Hollister, Cal., to attend the funeral of N. C. Briggs, a son-in-law of Mrs. Benson. Mr. Briggs died suddenly a few days ago.
