Paris, May 30 .- (I. N. S.)-Germany has consented to the creation of an allied control commission to supervise German finances on condition that it does not violate German sovereignty. does not interrupt the administration of government affairs and does not violate private business secrets, it was revealed this afternoon when the reparations commission made public the tex of the German reparations note. Germany, in her note, promised:

1-Vigorous efforts to reduce the float-

2-To prevent the exportation of cap-

3-To attempt to secure capital which may have been sent out of the country. 4-To submit a legislative program be fore June 30 enforcing the demands of the reparations commission. As regards reduction of the floating debt. Germany says this is only possible if an international loan is granted. The German note contained long tables of statistics which will be made public

United News Staff Corresponden Washington, May 30.-The soldier onus bill will be favorably reported to This was determined at a meeting of the entire committee Monday. Democrats, invited for the first time to take part in the bonus discussions, said they would support the proposal of Senator McCumber for a modified form of the house bill. The minority was invited by McCumber when the Republicans found themselves divided and the fate of the bill was endangered.

The committee will meet again

The committee will meet again Wednesday, at which time it is expected final action will be taken.
Senator Simmons, ranking Democrat, said he believed the McCumber bill would be favorably reported. While he did not approve all details of the measure be favored it over the plan of Sen ator Smoot to issue paid up insurance certificates. PLAN LOAN SYSTEM

McCumber's bill, like the measure that passed the house, would provide would have an immediate loan value Simmons is prepared to offer certain amendments to the bill but it is believed these will be defeated in committee. Senator Waish, one of the Demo-cratic members, said the service men may be assured the bill will be passed

Senator Smoot said that if the Me Cumber bill is reported by the commit-tee, he will renew efforts on the floor to have his plan substituted. He will propose a sales tax.

McCumber has not yet evolved means for raising funds which President Hard-The Dalles, May 30 .- A warrant charg- ing has insisted is necessary. The presing perjury was sworn out Monday ent intention is to pay for present ex-without reaching any conclusion as to what shall be done. Three ideas are advanced: To omit all forms of land settlement, to take the house bill provision as written, and to substitute for the house bill the McNary-Smith bill.

Representative Mondell, Republican house leaguer, masse a long address advocating acceptance by the senate of the bouse provision, which he declared would be most satisfactory to the soldier, as it includes all kinds of reclamation and establishment of projects anywhere.

Representative White of Kansas spoke in opposition to putting any kind of reclamation into the bonus bill. Senator McNary told the committee he would prefer to postpose the discussion until prefer to postpone the discussion until the committee decides whether it wishes to include reclamation in the bill, wherelast March.

Divorces were granted in the case of Silvia against Ray H. Schilling, married in Seattle, October 5, 1919, and Cleo-against Olive M. Mansfield, married in to appear and present his views.

The committee adjourned with this understanding and probably will reach some decision Wednesday. Representa-Vancouver, May 31, 1917. Suits for divorce filed were: Laura B. Kapphan against James P. Kapphan, married in Marion county, March 3, 1915; Helen H. against Paul V. Black
