Shriners, With Big EightFoot Drum, to Pay Portland Visit

"The biggest bass drum in the world" will be in Portland Saturday, June 10, for El Mina temple, Mystic Shrine, of Galveston, Texas, which will have a special trainload of wearers of the red fez on their way to the national convention at San Francisco the following week Arrangements have been made to arrive here at 5 o'clock a. m. and after an 18nour stay, depart for sunny California. Herman Von Borstel, chairman of the intertainment committee of Al Kader emple, will be assisted by a special comnittee to entertain the visiting Shriner and the bass drum, which is eight feet in diameter, is expected to put forth plenty of noise for the occasion. *In Old Galveston," a catchy, swingy song, written by two Galveston members of the nobility, will be distributed here. If time and occasion permits, the "famous bathing girl revue" which made such a distinct hit when the national convention was held in the Rose City two years ago, will be put on. First in the parade will be the costume which won first prize at the recent bathing girl revue on Galveston's beach.

Heating elements are inserted between the walks of an electrically heater water tank, which, because of insulation, keeps its contents hot many hours after the current has been shut off.
