completed. On Monday evening at 6:30 the congregation will have a supper at the church and an informal discussion of the plans and of ways and means for the erection.

At Sunnyside Methodst church Dr. T. H. Gallagher will preach Sunday morning and evening. In the evening a "song-fest" will open the popular service and the second sermon in the series on "The Seven Modern Devils" will be given. New members are being received almost every Sunday. The exection of a community house is now necessary beyond all doubt, says the pastor. Already $32,000 in three-year bonds has been taken. Five committees are canvassing the entire membership to bring the total to $40,000. The official board voted that all the money must be subscribed by June 30. No building shall be undertaken until the full mount the children reach their goal. Preparations are being made for the observance of Children's day on June 18. The pastor, who completed his work at Willamette university last spring, will go to Salem June 14 to attend the commencement exercises and receive his degree.

The board of hospitals and homes of mencement exercises and receive his degree.

The board of hospitals and homes of the Methodist church has been given 21 acres of land by the citizens of Colorado Springs to be used as a site for a tuberculosia hospital.

The semi-annual meeting of the board of bishops will be held at Indianapolis for five days beginning June 21.

Williams Jennings Bryan has given his home and grounds at Fairiew Neb to the board of and grounds at Fairview, Neb., to the board of hospitals and homes of the Methodist church.

It will be converted into a home for ministers. The home and 10-acre tract worth about $100,000.
