MARRIAGE PLANS

THE OREGON SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 4, 1922.

H. F. McCormick Bows to Wish of "Oil King" and Withdraws Consent to Daughter's Wedding

Chicago, June 3 .- (U. P.)-Allah has poken-John D. Rockefeller tonight put the marriage of his baby granddaughter, Mathilde McCormick, under the ban. Harold F. McCormick bowed to the edict of the oil master when he withdrew, temporarily, consent to the marriage of his daughter, Mathilde, to Max Oser, Swiss stableman.

Edith Rockefeller McCormick, vorced wife of the former head of the International Harvester company and daughter of the world's richest man, won a victory when McCormick said: nvestigate the charges that Oser is a fortune hunter. And in the meantime I will withdraw consent to the marriage." COURT ACTION ENDED

Upon the declaration of McCormick, the case of McCormick vs. McCormick was jerked from the probate court to "Gold Coast," home of the former Harvester head. And there, according to friends of the family, McCormick promised his former wife that the 17-year-old Mathilde would not marry Oser, 27 years her senior, for three years. Court action was abruptly ended just before McCormick and his wife were to appear. Mrs. McCormick had asked probate court, which had appointed her re-cent husband guardian of Mathilde, to restrain the marriage of the girl and Dismissal of the case from court, made t the instance of Mrs. McCormick, carried with it the admonition of Probate Judge Henry Horner, who said : "I expect Mr. McCormick, both as guardian and parent, to faithfully execute his trust.
