Lively selections from "Mile. Mo-diste" are given as Salvatore Santael-la's orchestra.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Vancouver, Wash., June 5 .- The following marriage licenses were issued

Saturday: Fred Arndt, 32, and Ida

Sprinkler, 25, Crane, Wash.; Leo F. McIntosh, legal, and Mary E. Paines, legal, Oak Grove, Or.; Silas, M. McKes, 24, and Wilms J. Jones, 18, St. Helens,

Or.; Earl R. Peterson, 23, and Emma B. Gritt, 23, Portland; Hugh S. Begg, 24, Olympia, and Emily Wright, 25, Malon, Wis.; Baxter F. Renfet, 25, and

Frances E. Whitsell, 24, Portland Harold R. Sage, 23, and Ruth M. Overa

Mary E. George, 19, Portland; Russell Davis, 21, and Ruby Straus, 18, War-

AMUSEMENTS

Tine Mosini, 23, Portland.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6 Mrs. Richard Wilder will entertain at bridge. Women's Progressive unit no-host luncheon at Laurelhurst Stage .. Screen .. Society .. Clubs

A LBERTINA KERR NURSERY will celebrate its first anniversary with president, and Mrs. W. D. McWaters,

Mrs. Alexander Thompson and Mrs.

An interesting musical program will number of charming young misses will serve tea and assist about the room, including Margaret Bleasdale; Martha Fisher, Mayanna Sargent, Katherine Hart, Nancy Carpentier, Nancy

Luckel, Katherine Martin, Frances

Morgan, Margaret Hyatt, Helene Pit-

Marjorie Dale Chessman and Barbara

Buland will greet the guests at the door. This event will give the general public an excellent opportunity to inspect the home and become familiar with the important work that is being

Eugene.-The annual rose show will be held at the Chamber of Commerce

by the Woman's auxiliary, Wednesday.

A large number of cash prizes will be offered for the best blossoms displayed.

Some of the finest roses in the state are grown here and many varieties will be in full floom by the middle of Betsy Ross tent No. 1. Daughters of meet in room 525 courthouse Thursday at 8 p. m. A full attendance is requested as this will be the last business meeting before the department

The Oregon Writers league will meet Friday at 8 p. m. in Central library hall. An interesting program has been arranged. This is the last regular meeting of the season and is open to

The Daughters of the Covenant will join with the B'nai B'rith lodge for their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

A strawberry festival has been planned members and their friends.

to follow the business session.

done for these small infants.

Edith Knight Hill board members be given by the MacDowell club.

CLUB CALENDAR

TUESDAY, JUNE 6 Women of Retary will meet to sew at the First Methodist church.
Section A Rose City Park Parent-Teacher association to meet at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Philbrook To Wed Mr. Heppner

OF INTEREST to Portland friends U is the announcement of the engage-ment of Miss Helen Philbrook and Mr. William Freeman Heppner, which was told today at a luncheon at Corwallis at the Pi Beta Phi house of Oregon Agricultural college, where Miss Philiprook is a guest and has been a resident member. In Portland Miss Philippook makes her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Philbrook of Rose City Park.

Mr. Heppner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Heppner of this city. He is a former student of Oregon Agricultural college and is now a member of the business staff of The Journal. No definite date has been set for the wedding, which is planned for the early Autumn.

Miss Alys May Brown's pupils will contribute an interesting program in the Laurelhurst club's "Jolly June Jubilee" which will be staged on a huge outdoor stage adjoining the club house Friday evening, following a basket supper. Aside from Miss Brown's program, a musical program and a burlesque minstrel show will be staged by the Men's Tuesday Night unit of the club. The public is invited. The program is entitled, "One Day in the Park" (by Alys May Brown's pupils). (1) "The Gossipers" (dance), Anita Belle Austin and Maxine Rankin; (2) When Francis Dances With Me" (song and dance), Erma Cavanagh; (3) "April Showers" (song), Maxine Rankin; (4) "Follies de Eton" (dance), Elma Rueppell and Erma Cavanagh; (') "Stumbling" (song), Anita Belle Austin; (6)
"Russe Trepak" (dance), Elma Ruep-"Chinoise" (song and dance). Anita Belle Austin and Maxine Rankin. Accompanist, Miss Lucy Giovanetti.

Dr. and Mrs. William F. Fiebig have returned to the city following a delightful motor trip to British Co-lumbla. They were at Victoria for the celebration of Empire day May 23, the 103d anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria, and officially represented the city of Portland, the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Rose Festival association at the ceremonies. Dr. Fiebig made a brief talk day festival with a bouquet of Portland roses from Queen Harriet of the Portland Rose festival. They were absent from the city 10 days. and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Harvey were dinner hosts honoring Mrs. Clara Summers on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Perrie Dolph and Mrs. Esper slept most of the time. Hansen were hostesses Saturday for a tea given at the home of the former. About 125 guests were present for the over to himself, "It must be with me, afternoon. Miss Nina Dressel sang a because everybody else is happy and group of songs. At the tea table were Mrs. Arthur Rudeen, Mrs. Ted Ludlam, and assisting them were Mrs. Maurice Robert Mann and Miss Myrtle McLean, Mrs. Frank Callahan and Mrs. C. M. Emerson.

Portland friends of Mrs. Norris B. expected to arrive this week from York city with her children to spend the summer in the city at the home of her mother, Mrs. George C. Mrs. and Mrs. Gregg and their family have been making their home in New York since last Fall.

picnic arranged for the pleasure of ranged by Mrs. Erie F. Whitney and self many times. It was soft, but the party motored to the Biddle country clear, and it lasted only a moment. place on the Columbia river.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Nielson and Mr. Sidney Ward will take place the morning of June 15 at the home of the brother and sister-in-law of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nielson, in Laurelhurst. There

Miss Julie Murphy, whose engagement has recently been announced to Mr. John Finneran of St. Louis, was a guest of honor at a luncheon and bridge party Saturday for which Mrs. William P. Sinnott was hostess.

Owing to the fact that there are five Tuesdays in June there will not be a meeting of the Housewives' Council at the library Tuesday afternoon. The first meeting to be held the following 21 as the date for her marriage to Mr. James Forrest Cobb Jr. of Berkeley, The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. H. Logan Geary will entertain

Miss Miriam Reed has chosen June

Wednesday afternoon with a tea in honor of Mrs. A. S. Kerry, who is leaving in the near future to live in Seattle.

Mrs. Nathan Sohn was hostess for a luncheon at the Benson hotel and two tables of bridge at her home at Imperial Arms apartments Thursday

The Tuesday afternoon 500 club will meet this week at 2:15 o'clock on board the floating pavilion "Swan"

Mrs. George W. Hoyt and daughter Martha left the city Thursday for California, where they will spend a

Mrs, Richard Wilder has invited a few guests for bridge for Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. I. Aronson left the city Saturday by motor for Nehalem, where they spent the week end fishing. Sellwood Hospital Alumi will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in room No. 1008 Selling building.

CANADIAN OATS TO TRINIDAD

Vancouver, B. C., June 10.—An in-eresting order to Western Canada is one just booked by a local shipping agent. It is for the movement of 0,000 tens of Western Canada oats to Prinidad. This is a new field for Canadian oats.

LYRIC—Broadway at Morrison. Lyric Musical comedy company in "The Fakers." Matinee daily at 2 p. m.; evenings at 7 and 9.

PARKS AND RESORTS

OAKS AMUSEMENT PARK—Willamette river. Cars at First and Alder. Concessions, skating, dancing, picnics. Open daily.

VAUDEVILLE

PANTAGES—Broadway at Alder. High class vaudeville and photopisy features. Afternoon and evening. Program changes Monday afternoon.

and evening. Program changes Monday afternoon.

LOEW'S HIPPODROME—Broadway at Yamhil. Vanderille and "Doublin' for Romeo."/

Continuous from 1 p. m. to 11 p. m.

PHOTOPLAYSA

RIVOLI—Washington at Park. Will Rogers and Lils Lee, in "One Glorious Day." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

BLUE MOUSE—11th at Washington House Peters, in "The Invisible Power." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

COLUMBIA—6th near Washington. "The Man From Home." 11 a. m. to 11 p. sn.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. "Charge R." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

LIBERTY—Broadway at Stark. "The Ordeal."

11 a. m. to 11 p. m.
PEOPLES—West Park near Alder. "The Bride's Play." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.
CIRCLE—Fourth near Washington. "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." 11
, a. m. to 4 o'clock the following morning.

FRATERNAL

Eugene.-The state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will convene here Tuesday for a two-day session. Business meetings will be held Tuesday forenoon and afternoon and Wednesday forenoon. Tuesday evening a large class is to be initiated into the local lodge and officers will be installed. Wednesday afternoon the visitors are to be taken on an automooile excursion up the McKenzie river, with a dance in the evening. A public meeting is to be addressed Thursday evening by Del Carey Smith of Spothe national organization of Eagles.

Make Hit at | Is Planning Hippodrome

MELODIES of long ago feature the headline act at the Hippodrome theater this week in a program of rare merit. L. Wolfe Gilbert, who a tea and open house, Saturday afterwrote such sterling melodies as "Walt- noon. Mrs. Nelson G. Pike is chairing for the Robert E. Lee," "Hitchy man of the committee on arrange-"The Dream Girl," "Granny," "Kentucky Echoes" and dozens more, other committee members is busy with sang them for the Sunday audiences elaborate plans to make this affair a in a way that brought back the old marked success. Those in the receivmemories. He was assisted by Fritzi ing line at the reception will be: Mrs. Leyton with Hiley Reilly at the plane. Ben Olcott, honorary president of the The rest of the program is up to nursery board; Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, the high standard of recent Loew of-Marie Russell and Sambo, clever blackface comedians, put on an Dr. Mabel Aken, Mrs. G. L. Buland, act entitled "The Kentucky Belle" Miss Mrs. Lou Fuller, Mrs. R. L. Russell, Russell sant her songs across the footlights in good shape. Ethel Gilmore and her girl companions have an acceptable dancing act. Miss Gilmore herself, is a good toe dancer, giving an infinite variety of steps in this style of art. In "The Fatal Wedding Brown and Elaine have some chatty patter with a good line of

Bill and Blondy in their "clever capers of high quality" prove good en-

A rollicking burlesque film take-off on "Romeo and Juliet" in a feature, with Will Rogers in the chief role. The story is of a romantic girl who insists that her lover learn how to make love effort failing, she demands the Romeo kind, which introduces the "dream story" of the Shakespeare tragedy itsself, with everything modernized and kane, past grand worthy president of current slang in the subtitles, mingled

Whitefoot Finds Out What the Matter Was

By Thornton W. Burgess

monies. Dr. Fiebig made a brief talk and presented the queen of the Em-blre day festival with a bouquet of —Whitefoot the Wood Mouse. OF ALL the little people of the Green Forest Whitefoot the Wood Mouse seemed to be the only one who was Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. Fiebig unhappy. The worst of it was he didn't know why he was unhappy, and so day by day he became more unhappy. Perhaps I should say that night by night he became more unhappy, for during the brightness of the day he

"There is something wrong, some-thing wrong," he would say over and because everybody else is happy and this is the happiest time of all the year. I wish someone would tell me what alls me. I want to be happy and somehow I just can't be." One evening Whitefoot wandered a little farther from home than usual.

He wasn't going anywhere in particular. He had nothing in particular to do. He was just wandering about be-Gregg will be glad to know that she cause somehow he couldn't remain at Not far away Melody Thrush was pouring out his beautiful evening song. Whitefoot stopped to Somehow it made him feel more unhappy than ever. Melody stopped singing for a few moments, It was just then that Whitefoot heard a faint sound. It was a gentle drum-About 30 of the younger married ming. Whitefoot pricked up his ears folk were guests Friday evening at a and listened. There it was again! He knew instantly how that sound was Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell, who have made. It was made by dainty little left the city to make their home near feet beating very fast on an old log. Klamath Falls. The affair was ar- Whitefoot had drummed that way him-

> Right then something very strange appened to Whitefoot. Yes, sir, some thing very strange happened to White-footfoot. All in a flash he felt better. At first he didn't know why. He just did, that was all. Without thinking what he was doing he began to drum himself. Then he listened. At first he heard nothing. Then soft and low came that drumming sound again. Whitefoot replied to it. All the time he kept feeling better. He ran a little nearer to the place from which that drumming sound had come and then once more drummed. At first he got no reply. Then in a few min-utes he heard it again only this time it came from a different place. White-foot became quite excited. He knew that that drumming was done by another Wood Mouse and all in a flash > it came over him what had been the matter with him.

> "I've been lonely!" exclaimed > Whitefoot. "That is all that has been the trouble with me. I have been lonely and didn't know it. I wonder if that other Wood Mouse has felt the > same way."

>
> Again he drummed and again came that soft reply. Once more Whitefoot hurried in the direction of it, and once more he was disappointed when the next reply came from a different place.

thing wrong," he would say over and over to himself

By now he was getting excited. He Mouse. Every time he heard that drumming funny little thrills ran all over him. He didn't know why. They just did, that was all. He simply must find that other Wood Mouse. He for-got everything else. He didn't even notice where he was going. He would drum, then wait for a reply. As soon as he heard it he would scamper in the direction of it, and then pause to drum again. Sometimes the reply would be very near, then again it would be so far away that a great fear would fill Whitefoot's heart that the stranger was running away. (Copyright, 1922, by T. W. Burgess) The next story: "Love Fills the Heart of Whitefoot."

CLASS HEARS PASTOR

Vancouver, Wash., June 5 .- An audience of 800 people packed the First Presbyterian church to hear the baccalaureate sermon preached by Rev. Charles Baskerville in honor of the graduating class of 90 students of the Vancouver high school. Rev. O. E. Krenz of the United Brethren church delivered the invocation, Rev. A. W. Brown read the scripture lesson, Rev J. P. Marlatt offered prayer and Arthur Henderson sang a solo. Rev. Mr. Baskerville spoke on, "A Grain of Corn." The class, the largest ever graduated from the school, assembled way and marched to the church in hody. Commencement exercises will be held Friday night at the high

More than a score of amateur radio operators in the United States have succeeded in sending messages to Scot-

TWO MORE IRISH FIGHTERS ARE BORN-Mrs. Eamonn Valera has presented the fighting former president of the Irish repul with twin sons at their Dublin home.

Paris, June 5 .- Petunia is the fash-Reception

bright and peculiar color that Parisiennes are very careful to select frocks in this shade by daylight instead of by electric light. Petunia is a vastly different tint by night than it is by day. Crystal and silver trimming is being used a great deal with petunis Even if the entire gown is not of this deep, rich red, there is at least a girdle or panel of it somewhere. In velvet, petunia is peculiarly effective

London, June 5 .- One dull spot of for flowers, whether they bloom on gowns or hats. A species of chrysanhemums or velvet or taffeta, very large and very much flattened out is a favorite decoration on various types of gowns as well as on the large crin oline hats without which at present no garden party is a success. The touch of sealing wax must be in the same shade as the flower, and on the tip London, June 5 .- The amazing outcry which went up from English when it is discovered that she is huwomen over the longer skirt edict from man and not mechanical, and she ex-Paris still persists with undiminished force. Noted hostesses and dancing teachers, as well as male painters and modistes are writing to the papers daily to express their horror at the return of skirts which touch the ankle. English women, in spite of Queen Mary's command that court gowns shall be within five inches of the floor, declare they will never wrap of cloth around their ankles except at a court reception. The re-sult of the agitation is that skirts on smart women are a little longer than last year but still a good 10 or 12 inches from the ground.

Paris. June 5 .- Tie your summer hat to your wrist and who cares how the wind blows. Large chapeaux of Chantilly lace, dyed in sprightly blues and corals or in dull gold, have today s long narrow scarf of the lace extending over the right shoulder loop and fastened to the wrist with a jewelled bracelet. Often there is a long beaded Union Veterans of the Civil War, will tassel on the bracelet, the beads re peating the color of the few bronze leaves or the tiny bouquet of metallic flowers on the far up-turned pinnacle

Quiver of Eyelash Saves Man From Fate of Interment

Detroit, June 5 .- (I. N. S.)-The licker of an eyelash changed E. M. Sarheims' destination from the morgue to a receiving hospital when Deputy Coroner Conley called for the body of tthe supposed suicide. Emergency meas-ures taken at the hospital resulted in his recovery.
Sarheim slashed his throat with rasor in a fit of despondency and was eported dead. After ordering a slab the morgue prepared for the body. Con-ley responded to the call with a cof-fin. He was about to deposit Sarheim in the coffin when a slight quivering of the man's eyelash indicated

BLANDA ALSETH

Vancouver, Wash., June 5 .- Funeral services for Blanda Alseth, drowned Saturday in Vancouver lake, were held this morning in Knapp's funeral chapel and the body was taken to her home near Mt. Vernon, Wash., for buriel, accompanied by her father, Isaac Alseth. The drowning occurred at the home of Prof. Thomas P. Clarke, a teacher in the state school for the deaf, who had invited 24 of the deaf pupils and their instructors to enjoy a swim in the take, which borders his prune orchard.

BEAR KILLED NEAR CITY Vancouver, Wash., June 5 .- Driven from the mountains by forest fires a female bear, weighing 200 pounds, visited the place of C. F. Ressiter on the Reserve street road near the city limits early Sunday morning and made a meal of 18 ducks feeding outside the barnyard. A bear hunt was organized and at first was unsuccessful but Frank Fich, returning home from the hunt, met the marauder face to face and killed her with one shot. Several other bears have been reported in the

M'MULLEN IS TRUSTEE
Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—Dale McMullen was appointed trustee Saturday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge McMaster, in the suit of Anna M. Stone and C. E. Stone to regain full possession of real estate deeded to the Vancouver National bank to secure payments on notes. The bank is willing to reconvey the land and McMullen is given full power

MRS. JEAN YALE Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—Mrs. Jean Yale, 84, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Waggener, No. daughter, Mrs. James Waggener, No. 814 West 19th street, Saturday. Four daughters, Mrs. Waggener, Mrs. Barlow and Miss Eleanor Yale of Vancouver and Mrs. A. N. Wentworth of Minnesota survive. The funeral was a simple chemise model over which is draped a graceful tunic, which is detachable and may be left off if one so desires, or the overship of the course in th rinted creps. The gown sketched is desires, or the overskirt may be made in a contrasting plain material such as Spain leads all countries in the procrepe de chine or chiffon. The wide sleeves may be either long or short. (Copyright, 1922, by Vogue, New York) duction of mercury and claims to rank second for both copepr and lead.

Millions Drink

Gowns Slightly

Draped Are an Emphasized

Note of the Season

In warm weather, to be suitably and martly dressed is essential. A frock-specially designed for the summer leason is this one of brilliantly colored

Do You?-"Irresistably Delicious"

SO DO BY BRY WITERID

A. Y. STEEVES, Agent

Old-Time Airs Kerr Nursery FASTIONS & Funmakers Are Travesty Film Magnet at Lyric

dimensions. The mere fact that the of seriousness cast to the four winds of the universe.

dell is Cissy Dooley, Mike's rightful, flesh-and-blood daughter, doesn't alter the business capacities of the pair of the universe. est bidder until she meets Fred Make, fication of some of his followers. a dashing youth impersonated by Howard Evans. Cissy escapes from her latest purchaser as she always does > Mike and Ikle get themselves into more hot water when they appear to "fall" for the wiles of Dot Raymond as Clarinda Courtney, a vampire sought by Lord Chumply (Jewel La-Velle) as well as by Fred and many other marriageable young men. Instead of "falling," however, Mike and Ike give the pretty vamp a sleeping potion and then rob her.

>
> The principal comedians are cleverly aided by Eddie Wright as Iny Blotz, the Rosebud girls appearing frequent Cissy Dooley is impersonated by Billie Bingham and Anna Chick has an important comedy role. Vancouver, Wash., June 5 .- Alice H Brown was granted a divorce from John R. Brown Saturday. She was given the custody of a minor child and $25 monthly support money.

ly in clever dance and song numbers

The French government is planning to spend about $30,000,000 this year for the advancement of civilian avia-

W. FENCE & WIRE WORK nion Ave., Cor. E. Osk Manufacturers Portland, Oregon Phone East 7078

Ash," were facilities will permit.

warned you daily.

EXTRA

ADDED

ATTRACTION

"BLUEBEARD

-A modern up-to-the-minute farce on the high

MATINEES 25c—EVES, 35c CHILDREN (ANY TIME) 10c

STECHELE'S BLUE MOUSE ORCHESTRA

Over 8,000,000 Pounds of Gasco Briquets, "All Heat and No ordered in May at the special summer price. We are still taking orders, but only for what our

If You Don't Get In

it will be your own fault, as we have

Call at the Gas Office or Main 6500

HERE NOW NIGHT ONLY

HOUSE

PETERS

INVISIBLE

POWER"

A gripping drama of the underworld.

"THE

his body again. The element of romance is found in the love between the professor and Lila Lee. One of the best features of the program is the reel depicting that naval battle of Juliand. This picture was prepared on the data of the British navy and the records of the departed high seas fleet. The general fleet movements are shown in diagramatic form while pictures of the British navy, particularly those ships in the great battle, at battle practice, are shown. Apex of Fun And Action

THE FAKERS" proved to a large number of patrons of the Lyric theatre at the Sunday shows a delightful bit of summery entertainment.

The fun show takes its name from spread of the so-called supernatural spread of the so-called s The fun show takes its name from sciences and with Will Rogers playing its principal characters. Mike Dooley the stellar role it is a comedy of many and Ikie Leschinski, who are "business surprises and laughs. A curious cor glomeration of Masterlink's "Rine Ring" men" to the extent that they are trav- and Wordsworth's "Ode to Immor eling over the country selling at high tality" is found as the basis of the prices a mechanical doll of life-size play, but it is put on with all thought funmakers and they promptly overrule mans run their affairs, he takes up the objections of the young woman to abode in the body of a professor of the manner of their livelihood.

psychic phenomena while the professor. sor's spirit is performing for the edi-Professor Botts happens to be reform candidate for mayor and is a very meek and unassuming individ-ual. Ek transforms the body into that of a regular he man, much to the surprise of the residents of the professor's home town, who fall to realise that a strange spirit is masque rading in their midet. Several free for all fights ensue that redound to the glory of the professor, who is much surprised at the changed attitude of his friends when he finds

TOR the kiddies

-OLYMPIC

Rolled Oats.

They need it and like it.

President of the LightBearers, an International Scientific and Educational Organization, WILL DELIVER

Two Free Public Lectures Wednesday, June 7th, 8:15 P. M. "LIFE LIMITLESS' Thursday, June 8th, 8:15 P. M.

"THE SCHOOL OF LIFE" Lincoln High School Auditorium

ADMISSION FREE

CHAT NO. 27 The Cortillis performed in regular style yesterday. Would like to keep them longer—perhaps we will. Watch for announcement. for announcement.
Lots more good things coming—all season.
Picnic dates should be arranged NOW!
Six-cent fare from First and Alder.
Admission free till 5 o'clock (except Sundays and Holidays).
JOHN F. CORDRAY.

OEWS HIPPODROME

TODAY-UNTIL FRIDAY L. Wolfe Gilbert Composer of a Thousand Popular Songs.

MARIE RUSSELL, ETHEL GILMORE Added Attractions

WILL ROGERS "DOUBLING FOR ROMEO"

FREE DANCE!

TONIGHT Compliments of New Management

COTILLION HALL 16TH AND WASHINGTON STS. Cheeking 10c

AMATEUR NIGHT "THE FAKIRS" Afternoons at 2-Evenings at 7 and

OUEEN OF SHEBA"