Fined for Killing Pheasant-Eight months after Frank Hickman of Pendieton killed a Chinese pheasant out of season he thought the dim and distant past had covered his misdeed, so tant past had covered his misdeed, so he told a friend. The friend thought it a good story and told another friend. On May 25 W. H. Albee, district deputy game warden, heard the story, filed a complaint and June 2 Hickman paid a fine of $25 after admitting his guilt. The pheasant was killed September 20, 1921.

Stay Granted-At the request of Assistant United States Attorney Veatch an additional 30 day stay of execution was granted Angello H. Rossi Tuesday by Federal Judge Wolver-ton. Rossi is endeavoring to secure a presidential pardon. He was convicted on an indictment charging a conspiracy to defraud the government by having altered and stolen war savings stamps in his possession and sentenced to 18 months at McNell island.
