

30,000 TO RECEIVE NOTIFICATION OF LOT ASSESSMENTS

More than 30,000 notification cards on public improvement assessments now due and payable or proposed assessments, will be sent out to property owners within two districts today and tomorrow by City Auditor Funk. Twenty-two thousand of these will go to property owners within the district formed for the construction of the Columbia slough channel, which acts as the outfall for sewage for a great portion of the Peninsula district. This total assessment is $142,131.75 and is now due and payable.

Having of Maryland avenue, from Killingsworth to Almsworth avenues; construction of a sewer in Buffalo street, from 175 feet east of Kerby street to an existing sewer in the latter street; sewer in East 26th street, from Almsworth to Dekum avenues; sewer in East 4th street, from Fremont to Kllokittat streets; improvement of Woodstock avenue, from 52d street southeast to 62d street southeast; improvement of Tenino avenue, from East 15th to East 19th streets; improvement of East 18th street, from Skidmore to Prescott streets; improvement of East 73d street, from East Gilgan to Hassalo streets.

CITY TO DELIVER $11,000 BONDS TO PURCHASERS

Mayor Baker and City Auditor Funk Tuesday affixed their official signatures to 326 bonds representing $11,000, which were sold to investors at last Wednesday's session of the city council. They are to be delivered to the purchasers immediately. The bonds, which are for general public improvements in various districts of Portland, bear 4 per cent interest, and the bulk of this issue was sold to Carl Liebbe and Abe Tichner. City Treasurer Adams took bonds to the amount of $7500 as an investment of accumu-

Formerly bar soap for all washing

now LUX for fine things and Rinso an entirely new kind of soap for the regular family wash

Old-fashioned bar soap has been supplanted by two modern soap products.

Lux for dainty things, and Rinso—the new kind of soap that does the family wash as easily as Lux does fine laundering.

Every grain of Rinso is a tiny bit of soap so pure and perfectly balanced that it soaks clothes clean without hard rubbing.

With these two wonderful soaps, you need no other soap—no soap powder.

Rinso comes in two sizes—the regular size and the big new package. Get it today at grocery and department stores everywhere. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.
