The selling of a used car is a prob-lem. There is such opportunity for misrepresentation. An unscrupulous house, or salesman, can very easily de-ceive you as to the condition of the average used car, no matter how "motor wise" you are. You should be able to rely pretty much upon what you are told—in fact, you HAVE to.

A USED CAR IS NO BETTER THAN THE HOUSE FROM WHICH YOU BUY IT.

It is the policy of this house to veal to you as accurately as we can the exact condition of any used car we "ALWAYS THE BEST CARS AT THE LOWEST PRICES."
