Members of the Mount Scott Mental Culture club held their final meeting of the year Thursday, at the of Mrs. William Dillon, No. 7811 59th avenue southeast. About 35 guests partook of the luncheon, which was served at small tables placed on the verandah. Following the luncheon interesting reports were given by Mrs. Harry E. Hall and Mrs. L. E. Hershner, delegates to the recent meeting of the State Federation of Women's lubs at Tillamook. The retiring president, Mrs. William Woodham, reviewed the work of the year and thanked the members for their support and encouragement. Mrs. Harry E. Hall, the new president, was then installed and asked for the cooperation of the club in the work of the coming year. The past year, under the leadership of Mrs. Woodham, has been a very successful one for the club, Through its efforts a plano was purhased for the Arleta library. Miss Mary Henthorne, librarian, was an honor guest at the luncheon and thanked the club for the gift. A short program of games under the direction of Mrs. Charles T. Webb concluded the afternoon.
