BURGESS' BEDTIME STORIES

A Meeting That Wasn't by Chance

WIFEFOOT THE WOODSMAN kept away from that new home which he and Mrs. Whitefoot had made in the old home of Melody the Wood Thrush.

"Thank you, my dear, for this fat beetle," said she, sweetly. "It was most thoughtful of you to drive him straight into my paws."

"But—but I didn't mean to," stammered Whitefoot. "I didn't know you were there. As I've just told you, it was just a chance."

"Little Mrs. Whitefoot acted just as if she hadn't heard a word he said. 'I am very hungry, for of late I haven't had much time to hunt for food,' she chattered on.

Paris, June 15.—Tiny shoulder straps of pearl and metal are used on some of the summer lingerie instead of ribbons that so easily wrinkle and soil.

New York, June 15.—It is not necessary today to have a bridal gown of heavy satin, glorious though that material always is.

Elephant Stampede Feared; Beasts to Stay in Circus Tent

Because they are but recent arrivals from India, and are not 'city broke,' the elephants forming the Howe-Van Amberg circus herd to appear at the 25th and Raleigh street show grounds Friday and Saturday of this week, are not used in the street parade Friday forenoon.

The elephants are the first to arrive in the United States since the beginning of the World war, and are not yet accustomed to city noises.

Community Church Meeting Reelects All Its Officers

All officers of the Northwest Community church conference were re-elected Wednesday afternoon at the closing business session held here in the Y. M. C. A. The officers are: The Rev. W. L. Van Nuy, director of religious educational work in Oregon for Presbyterians, vice-president; the Rev. J. D. McClure of Ridgefield, secretary; the Rev. R. A. Hutchinson of Oakland, Or., treasurer.

One of the results of the conference was a partial definition of the term "community church," the delegates deciding that the type of work, rather than the name of the organization, determines whether the church is doing community work.
