Beavers Lose After Umpire Benches Two

HALE AND COX SUSPENDED FOR FIVE DAYS FOR RUN-IN

San Francisco, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—President W. H. McCarthy of the Pacific Coast league, announced today that players Cox and Hale of the Portland club have been fined $50 each and suspended for five playing days as a result of their run-in with Umpire Carroll yesterday at Los Angeles which nearly precipitated a riot. Player Sargent, who was also banished from the game, drew a fine of $25.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 21.—Vernon triumphed over Portland in a riotous game Tuesday afternoon, 9 to 7.

Three Portland players—Cox, Hale and Sargent—were chased to the showers for disputing decisions. Cox and Hale went out in the seventh inning for protesting Umpire Carroll's decision for calling Cox out for failing to touch second base on a long hit to left field. Sargent was ejected for disputing a strike decision.

Minus these three players and without the services of Charley High, who is on the hospital list, Manager Turner was forced to play Catcher Fuhrman in rightfield and Pitcher Biemiller on third base.

The Beavers started off in the first inning with two runs, Wolfer's walk, Cox' doubles and two infield outs resulting in the runs. In the second, Jakie May was chased to the showers after McCann singled and Poole was hit by a pitched ball. Doyle replaced May and on a fielder's choice, a passed ball and a sacrifice fly the Beavers counted two more runs.

Four hits off Sam Ross gave the Tigers three in their half of the second.

In the third, Portland scored again but the Tigers came back with four runs, McCann's error being responsible for a couple of the runs.

Cox' second double and two outs gave the Beavers another run in the fifth. The Beavers had several chances to score before they put off their final run in the ninth, but were unable to hit in the pinches. With bases full in the eighth, Kilhullen hit into a double play.

Freeman, who replaced Ross, held the Tigers scoreless from the fourth to the eighth when two runs were scored on three hits and an error.

James Dunn's Will Provides for Future

Chicago, June 21.—(U. P.)—The entire estate of James Dunn, former owner of the Cleveland American league baseball club, valued at $390,000, was left to his widow, Edith Dunn, in a will filed for probate in Judge Paul Corkell's court here Tuesday.

The will requested, but did not demand, that Mrs. Dunn, as long as she keeps her interest in the baseball club, retain E. S. Barnard as president and Tris Speaker as manager.

Michigan Is Not Keen on Dempsey's Go

By Fairplay

NEW YORK, June 21.—Looks as if Kearns, Dempsey & Co. are going to be kicked into a fight with Harry Wills. A report has been slipped in from Benton Harbor that Floyd Fitzsimmons' plans to hook up the champion and Bill Brennan on Labor day have been jipped, or will be jipped by the Michigan state authorities, who do not see why they should be saddled with this fight if it is not good enough for the New York state athletic commission. It will be recalled that the New York solons put the kibosh on that particular battle some time ago.

JESS TOO OLD!

It is also true that Chairman Muldoon and his conferees would be likely to look with suspicion upon a Dempsey-Willard fight. There is a New York law that boxers over 40 cannot do battle in the ring. While Willard's age is now given as 38, everybody, including the New York boxing authorities, knows that Jess is over 40.

In fact, so far as New York is concerned the only two fights that could be arranged for Dempsey look to be a Greb or a Wills fight. As goes New York, so is likely to go the country in boxing matters, since William Muldoon's opinions on pugilistic affairs are widely respected. So if Jack Dempsey wants to make some money, which he sure does, he must take chances with the elusive and energetic Greb or the hard-hitting Wills.

WILSON MAY APPEAR

While there is talk of a Wilson-Greb match in the near future, it looks as though Wilson's next battle will find him in the ring against Phil Krug. Wilson has received a bonafide offer of $15,000 to meet Krug and the talk is that if he fulfills his fight contract he will be permitted to fight Krug in New York as a sort of warm-up for the Greb battle.

Poor Bill Brennan, with his serial affair with Jack Dempsey likely to go on the blink, will have to take to the bushes and pick money where he can find it, just as Gibbons and Bob Martin and other good men are doing.

Record Entry in Portland Junior Tennis Tourney

FORTY-SIX boys and girls have entered the Portland tennis center championships for 1922, which will be settled on the Irvington club courts beginning Wednesday morning. Of the entries 17 are competing for the junior title, 19 are out for the boys' honors, while 10 girls seek the city title among the girls.

Isadore Westerman, the Jefferson high racquet wielder and winner of the interscholastic boys' singles championship last month, is the present junior title holder and although he is the favorite in this year's tourney, several "dark horses" are expected to give him a run.

Because of the illness of Walter A. Goss, sectional delegate of the United States Lawn Tennis association, George Eisman has been named to supervise the playing off of the matches and he has been instructed to default all contestants in which one of the contestants fails to put in an appearance within 15 minutes following the schedule hour.

Following are the entries in the various classes:

Oregon Girl Asks N. Y. Jockey License

New York, June 21.—(U. P.)—It's been done in the movies, but this promises to be the real thing. Miss Lorena Tricky of Shaniko, Or., fresh from the wild and wooly, insists that she can steer a race horse as well as any hard-boiled jockey in the game. On the strength of this conviction, she has made application here for a jockey's license and is awaiting now the decision of the more or less skeptical license board.

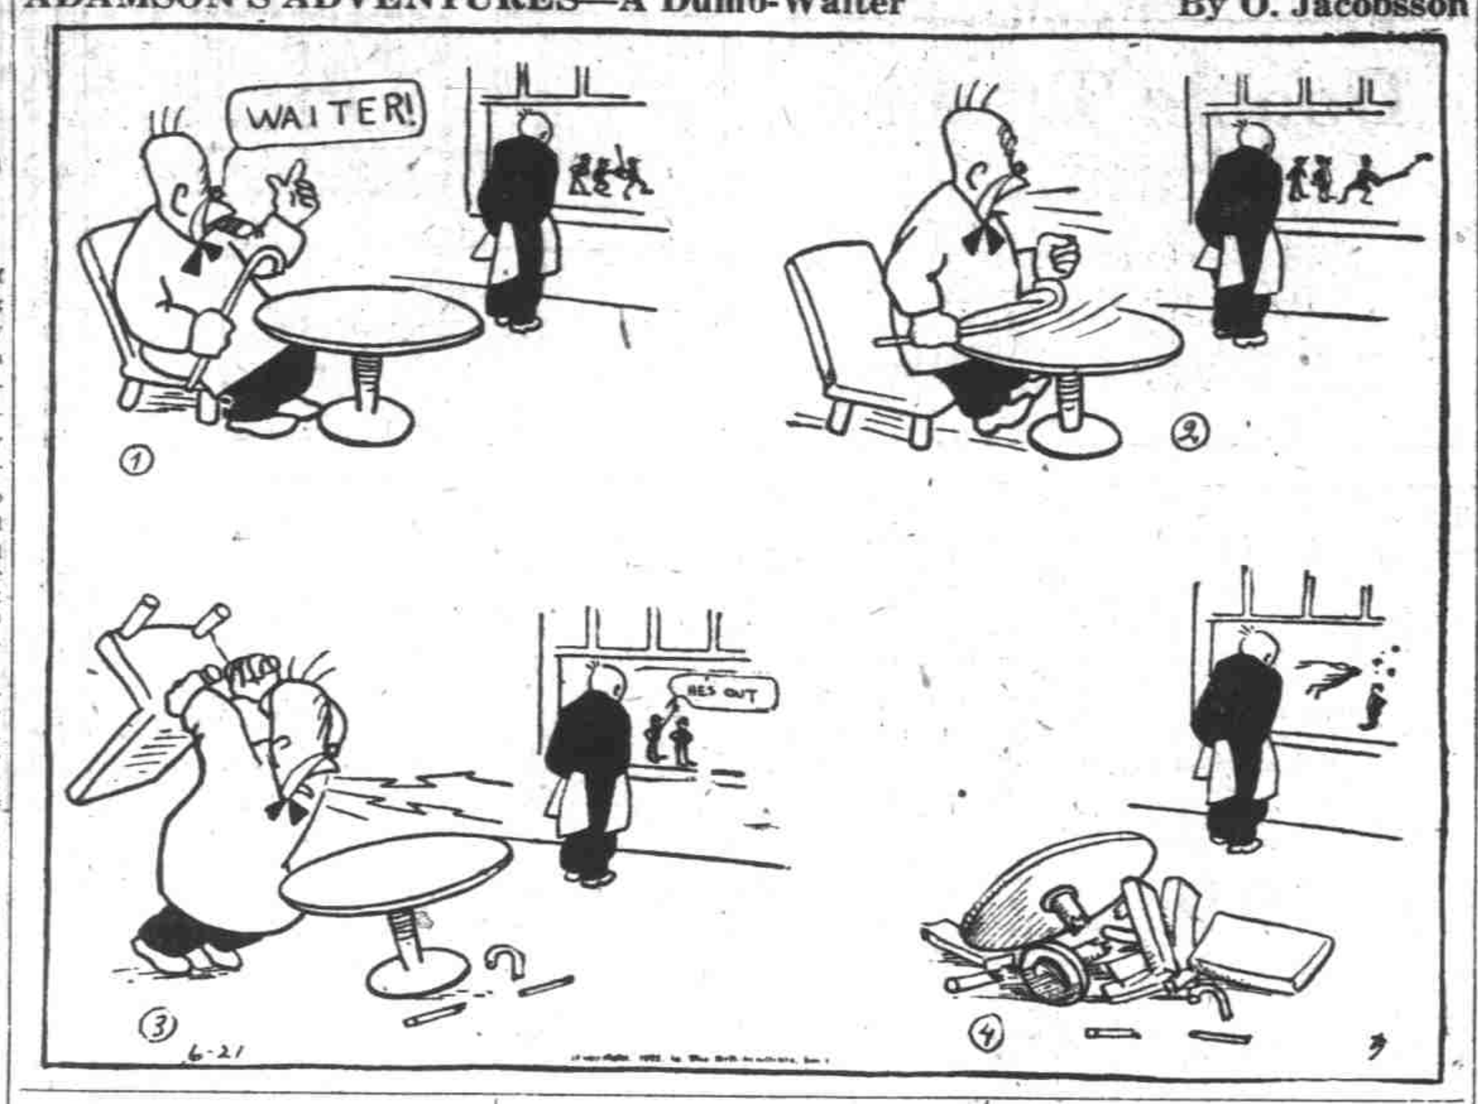
ADAMSON'S ADVENTURES—A Dumb-Waiter By O. Jacobsson



Multnomah Club Women Begin Play In Tennis Tourney

THE Agnes McBride trophy now in the possession of Mrs. Elsie Goodwin will be up for competition once more in the annual handicap spring tennis tournament of the women's annex of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. Miss Irene Campbell, former women's Oregon singles champion, is chairman of the committee in charge of the tourney, which is billed to start today.

Because of the large entry list and the lack of sufficient courts due to the fact that several of the winged "M" pavements are under construction, it has been made necessary to announce that all matches must be played on the schedule time or be defaulted. The committee in charge is composed of Miss Campbell, chairman; Mrs. Rogers MacVeagh and Mrs. Florence Bates.

Singles and doubles will be played and all contests are scheduled for mornings. The singles drawings follow:

Frances Bates (O15) vs. Mrs. J. P. Mulder (O30), bye; Chloe Bernard (R15) vs. Elizabeth Clarke (O15), bye; Mrs. C. M. Jones, (R15 3-6) vs. Mrs. J. O. THE Beavers are a fifty-fifty baseball club.

Tuesday morning, the Beavers were the possessor of an average of an even .500, representing 36 victories and 36 defeats.

Out of the 36 games won, the Beavers annexed 22 out of them on the Vaughn street grounds and 22 of the losses were administered on the playgrounds of the opponents. Therefore, 14 of the victories scored by the Beavers have been won away from home and 14 of the losses have been registered at home.

Johnny Kilbane's Title Forfeited by N. Y. Commission

NEW YORK, June 21.—The New York state boxing commission has ruled that Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, has forfeited his title to the world's featherweight champion, and Kilbane no longer will be recognized in New York.

The ruling came as the result of Kilbane's failure to accept the challenge of Johnny Dundee, of New York. The commission said that Dundee and Danny Frush, of Cleveland, are recognized as leading contenders for the forfeited title and the winner of a match soon to be held between them will be declared champion so far as New York is concerned.

Efforts were being made to match Johnny Wilson, of Boston, middleweight champion, with Harry Greb of Pittsburg, light heavyweight champion, who has challenged for Wilson's title. If the match is not made Wilson also will forfeit his crown.

MASSACHUSETTS STILL RECOGNIZES KILBANE

(By United News)

Boston, June 21.—The Massachusetts boxing commission still recognizes Johnny Kilbane as holder of the world's featherweight championship.

This statement was made unofficially Tuesday by a member of the commission, which has ruled Kilbane has forfeited his title and will no longer be recognized in New York.

Kilbane's failure to accept Johnny Dundee's challenge for a scrap brought about the ruling.

The Massachusetts commission will not follow the New York commission's ruling, it was emphatically stated.

KILBANE SAYS HE'LL BOX IF HE GETS HIS PRICE

Cleveland, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I'll fight any man in the world in my class if I get my price," said Johnny Kilbane, world's featherweight champion, to International News Service today. "I got $65,000 for my fight with Danny Frush here last fall. I am willing to take on any contender for $75,000 with the privilege of 50 per cent of the gross receipts, but as yet I have not received a bonafide offer."

Kilbane laughed at the attempt to forfeit his title by the New York state boxing commission.

"I wish them luck," was his brief comment.

BOXING

NEW YORK, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I offered Jess Willard a bout with Dempsey, but he flatly refused to fight under the terms of the match. I had not heard that he had suffered a change of heart," said Tex Rickard Tuesday, when shown a Los Angeles dispatch that Willard had accepted an offer from Willard to meet Dempsey in a championship bout.

Washington Is on Par With Cornell And Navy in Bets

By Tom Lawrence
Universal Service Staff Correspondent

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 21.—From the place usually assigned the dark horse, the University of Washington varsity crew jumped suddenly into the limelight today as a potential favorite to win the varsity race in the inter-collegiate regatta here next Monday. At least it will be placed on even terms with the Navy and Cornell in the betting.

Washington's husky eight showed its real worth in a time trial over the route just at noon Tuesday when tidal conditions approximated those that will obtain on race day. In addition the wind was blowing from the northeast, so that conditions were just right for a good trial. And Washington made the most of it.

Coach Ed. Leader sent the big crew away from the starting line at the Columbia quarters at a 36 stroke and after they had settled down they kept the boat at 33 for most of the way down the river. Then in the last half mile they opened up again and finished with a fine driving 36. There was real rowing in that trial, for the shell had pace and the men were swinging together in wonderful unison, getting a better and harder finish than they showed a week ago and swinging through to a slightly longer stroke.

Unofficial time kept on the trial showed that the eight had covered the course in approximately 14 minutes 27 seconds. Not the best time made on the river this season, but excellent in view of the water conditions.

Ruth Losing Popularity In New York

"BABE" RUTH DENIES THAT HE WILL RETIRE FROM GAME

Cleveland, Ohio, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—"I am too young to retire." Thus did George Herman Ruth, king of swat and temperamental star of the New York Yanks, dispose of rumors that he would doff his baseball uniform for the remainder of the year following his two run-ins with Umpire Dineen.

"I never said I was going to retire," Ruth, continued. "I don't know where such 2rubors originated."

By Henry L. Farrell

NEW YORK, June 21.—Tottering on his throne, Babe Ruth, once the great home run king, is defending himself in the primitive ways of the cave man.

His wrath, aroused apparently by the notion that everyone is against him, the Babe is following the inclination to wipe out those who stand between him and his former glory.

Knowing that the five weeks' suspension imposed by Commissioner Landis at the start of the season would prevent him from breaking his 1921 record, Ruth had only the solace of being the home run king of the year. With Kenneth Williams, the Brown star, making it almost impossible for him to do that, he became frantic.

American league pitchers have been making a "sucker" out of him, not so much that they have found his weakness, but because he was swinging at anything in the mad desire to kill the ball. The more he missed bad balls the more he swung at them.

New York is "off" the swat king now, and the impression prevails that he is through.

England Wins First Davis Cup Round

Roehampton, Eng., June 21.—(U. P.) England won its third match from Italy in the Davis tennis cup play when Kingscote and Risley defeated Dirobecco and Colombo in the doubles, 6-1, 6-4, 6-0.

A. H. Fyzee of India defeated Mishu of Roumania 4-6, 6-1, 6-1, 7-5. This was India's third win.

KEATON NON-SKID CORDS

Are As Essential as Your Brakes Even on a Perfectly Dry Road

KEATON NON-SKIDS

will stop your car in a much shorter distance than that required with ordinary tires. A few feet to spare on the congested streets and highways will avoid an accident, expense, injury and possible death.

The "unexpected" accidents during the touring season are largely caused by skidding. Summer fog, dew, seeping water on mountain roads, the sprinkling car, etc., cause many regrettable skidding accidents.
