DEMAND HEAVIER

Oregon's prune crap is today estimated at from 45,000,000 to 65,000,000 pounds, the greatest output ever known in the state.

Present condition of the crop is so extraordinarily good, according to special reports received by The Journal, and by its own in-vestigation, that practically no fears are now expressed regarding the ripening of the record crep.

The crop of prunes is so great in the Willamette valley that trees are literally breaking with the fruit. The extent of the crop is far tremely good. Because of the enormous volume of fruit strawberries continue to sell around evious prices, but the quality is not good. Raspberries are slowly opping in price, but currants are lirly cheap.

bulk of the oriental cargo on the steamship West Cayote, of the Columbia Pacific Shipping company which will be due in Portland Friday from ports in South China and the Philippines. Advances to the operating com pany state that the steamship has 1500 tons for Portland. The gunnles originate in Calcutta and are transshipped at Hongkong. The differential which existed against Portland in the importation of bags has been removed and regular shipments will be received. The West Cayote will go to the boneyard after dicharging her inbound cargo.

The steamship Hannawa, of the same line is homeward bound from Cebu and the south of China. She put into Saig-non, in French Indo-China and will also have copra and bags for this port The Hannawa is listed for August salling. The steamship Eastern Sailor got away from Rainier yesterday and proceeded to sea.

The West Kader is on berth for July loading and will bet away early in the month The schedule has been so arranged that the Columbia-Pacific Shipping company will dispatch one boat a month for the Far East. The lumber trade is weak in China and Japan, but exporters look for an improvement. There has been a sub-stantial improvement in the lumber trade to South America both the east and west coasts. CAPTAIN TAKES RIGID STEPS

TO HALT DOPE IMPORTATION Efforts to put a stop to the importations of narcotics on liners of the Pacific Mail Steamship company operating in the trans-Pacific service were made plain on the sailing of the steamship Empire State from San Nelson, commander of the vessel statement in the history of smuggling of drugs. "Before we sail notices will be posted in private cabins, on notice boards and in all crew's quarters, to m. Japanese steamer Bozan Maru, for the effect that the personnel of some 240 men aboard this ship have just Tatoosh, June 26.—Passed out at 8 a. m., Butch steamer Moerdijk, for Portland.

Rotterdam, June 25.—Arrived British motor-hip Legh Katrine, from Portland and be a clean sweep from knight heads to transom, and nebody will be over-looked. This means the entire staff of officers and engineers and sailors, stewards and everybody else will go The measure is drastic, but it is necessary."

Captain Nelson went on to explain idea at all of the infinite possibilities for getting dope aboard ship. In Oriand unless the government provides
