Purchase of 59 homesites in Piedmont addition, announced today by J. R. Haight, constitutes one of the most important transactions in residence property during recent months. The property purchased is the last of the holdings of the Piedmont Realty company. Consideration was pot made public, but the sites are located on paved streets and are surrounded by high class residences and a conservative estimate of the value of the 59 parcels in the present market would be about $75,000.

Pledmont addition was platted more than 30 years ago by A. Quackenbush and his associates. Building restrictions providing protection against the tions providing protection against the intrusion of industrial and business plants have been rigidly enforced. Haight istated that he had purchased the property as an investment.

Vets Will Announce Personnel of Living Hall of Fame Today

San Francisco, June 28 .- (I. N. S.)-The second annual convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the World war got down to work today.

The most important business was the legislative report of Captain John H .- Dykes, who represents the organization at Washington as chairman of the national legislation committee.

Petitions urging the abolition of the Camp Sherman, Ohio, cantonment plan for caring for injured veterans was presented and action will be taken to this end.

Humphrey Sullivan of St. Louis, representing the American Legion, addresses the convention this afternoon. Formal announcement of the complete personnel of the "living hall of fame," including the greatest hero of each state of the Union, was to be made this afternoon with appropriate ceremonies.
