WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1922

GOOD MORNING, INVEST

THE Fat Man crumpled his paper L up in his hand, twisted it viciously into a shapeless wad and hurled is out of the car window vindletively. "They're a bunch of robbers," he snorted. "Just settling up on a soft bench and getting fat on a big pay check and they don't know what jus-

"What're you all het up about now?" T. Paer asked sympathetically. "Has ones that've got it comin' to 'em somebody gouged you for a roll?" "Not me," The Fat Man assured him pridefully. "I've been up against that brace game for the last time and a burned cat keeps his feet off the coals."

"Well, then," T. Paer persisted,
"What're you beefin about?" "Judges," The Fat Man answered. 'Judges and courts, They're the bunk." "I hadn't noticed it," T. Paer responded. "I thought we had to have 'em to unscramble the bunk that other people peddle 'em."

Unscramble?" The Fat Man repeated derisively, "they're the scramblers "You talk like somebody's nicked you," P. Paer grinned. "Did Doc Linville catch you with somethin' on your "He did not." The Fat Man boasted 'hut take it from me, brother, it's getting so in this land of the free a fellah can't even carry his wallet in punching him with his billy to see if t'll make a noise like glassware." "Well, then, blamed if I can see bunk," The Fat Man broke in. what's eatin' you," T. Paer remarked. "If no judge's handed you nothin"

They ought to be made to pay to be ain't it?" judges instead of being paid, consider- "I guess it is," The Fat Man goats that have to go up against 'em." of a game, come to think about it."
"I believe in keepin' the cost of "The rest of us." T. Paer mu "I believe in keepin' the cost of runnin' the government down," T. Paer answered thoughtfully, license to run it three shifts a day." The Fat Man said wistfully, "'nd believe me I'd make old Solomon look like a piker in short

"You talk like it," T. Paer chuckled. peach of a judge."

tion you got the better you get along." house yesterday 'nd listened to them cause I sure cut that corner feilahs operate for a couple a hours 'nd blamed if I see how they get by with it 'nd keep out'n Doc Steiner's nut factory."

"They keep happy by razzing every-

"You got to show me." The Fat Man "It ain't my experience." "When I was up there," T. Paer said.
"they was a poor goat bein' sued by a fat goof that'd been chargin' him 36 per cent 'nd got sore because he kicked the three members of the committee, about it after he'd paid more in interest than what he borrowed in the first place." Fat Man admitted, "but what'd the poor gump get hooked that way in the first place for?"

"To get money enough to keep his wife from bein' buried by the county," T. Paer answered, "'nd then they was a big bruiser'd beat up his wife that wasn't any bigger'n a pint of soap 'nd stole her kids. 'Nd they was a woman that'd swiped her old man's bank account 'nd flew the coop 'nd then asked the judge to give her the home place 'nd the furniture. 'Nd they was a gang of young folks wantin' to gyp their his back pocket without some Dick mother out'n what life insurance their dad'd left when he died, 'nd-' "I don't want to listen to all that get down to the office and beat up the stepographer." 'I don't 'spose the judge got much "I'm just full up on 'em, that's all." joy out'n it either." T. Paer suggested. The Fat Man growled. "Look at this "but it's the kind of dope that's ped-Landis fellah, and look at all of 'em. dled to him every day he's workin'.

ing all the fun they get soaking the swered. "It ain't a very cheerful kind wn," T. "get all het up just thinkin' of our "but I own troubles but it seems to me it'd wouldn't be a judge if they'd deed me be a hard job to just listen to rows 'nd the U. S. mint 'nd hand me a free wrangles all day long 'nd be in a good humor when you go home to supper."

"Well, maybe," The Fat Man conceded, "a judge's got some excuse for jazzing some of the hard boils that try to peddle stuff to him."

"You know it," T. Paer said, as the 'You got a disposition that'd make a car slowed down at his corner. "If was a judge Mary Garden wouldn't "If you're going to be a judge." The have nothin' on me when it come to Fat Man insisted, "the meaner dispositemperament 'nd bein' handy with it." "Just between us girls," "Well," T. Paer mused, "I don't know Man confessed, "I guess Hizzoner had about that. I was up in the court- that five bones comin' from me, be-

The state tax investigating commit body that comes in court," The Fat tee is against any poll tax for Oregon.

Man contended. "Just sit up there and At a meeting this morning it deterhand it to 'em every chance they get" mined to go on record to that effect in its report to the governor and the gued, "them that gets razzed is the legislature at the coming session. street, according to a hurried telephone legislature at the coming session. ective bureau. The committee also refused by a rote of three to two against a tuition fee of $100 a year for nonresident students at the University of Oregon and Brand and Chapman McKenna, thought $100 was not high enough, while Pierce and Reed thought such a sum was sufficient. LEFT TO REGENTS

The tuition subject took up a good deal of the discussion of the morning session. Walter Pierce said that the regents of the two institutions would probably vote to fix the fee at $100 raising it from $60, at the next meet-

C. S. Chapman contended that the on-resident student should be charged the cost of the fultion, or something about $200 a year, while the residen students should be charged a less amount, and all should be given the privilege of deferred payments when unable to meet the terms in cash. I. N. Day, chairman, favored the inorporation in the committee's report of a recommendation for a "substantial" tuition. The committee finally voted to give a thorough discussion of the subject in the report, and took no

Doloroso

definite action

TRIP SET FOR JULY 24 The Southern Oregon trip, post-BIG SPLINTER REMOVED Oregon City, July 5 .- Robert Treyponed some time ago, was set to begin mayne of Barlow is recovering from t Medford on the morning of Monday, July 24. The schedule adopted pro-vides for public hearings at Medford at the local hospital. A splinter three minor surgical operation performed inches long entered his arm and broke on July 24. Reseburg, Tuesday, July 25; Eugene, Wednesday, July 26; Al- off, slightly injuring the bone.

turned over

Miss Middleswartz was pay day had not come yet.

fice until the girl appeared,

Jones Back From

The writer said she was working but

Hogan knew no Cleo Middleton, but he knew of Miss Middleswartz's disappearance, and he connected the let-ter with her. The mother was inter with her. The mother was in-formed. According to the Salem message, a watch was kept at the general

Lieutenant Harold C. Jones of the sea service bureau, returned this morn-ing from Toronto, Canada, where he represented the Kiwanis of Portland.

June 19-23. Lieutenant Jones was ac-

East via the southern route and re-stopping at Banff Springs on the West-the international convention held

the Canadian Pacific,

bany, Thursday, July 27; Salem, Friday, July 28; McMinnville, Saturday, July 29; Oregon City, Monday, July 21. Runaway Girl Is Located Through

THE OREGON DALLY JOURNAL, FURTILLY URESERVE

Appeal for Money fficials threatening striking shopmen Florence Middleswartz, 15, who did in this district with loss of seniority the unusual a week ago last Tuesday by disappearing from a Sunday school nienie at Columbia park, has been found in Salem, and this afternoon is the workers remained practically unon her way to Portland with her mother, Mrs. C. Nelson, No. 273 Farge panles were hiring new men to replace the old employes.

message received by the women's pro-From the reports of railroad managers only 75 strikers returned to their work before noon today. Of this numhrough Russell Hogan, No. 1165 Michber there were reported 30 back at igan avenue, conductor on a Broadway Breoklyn shops, 20 at Albina shops streetcar. Hogan knew the girl, she streetcar. Hogan knew the girt, she having ridden on his car numerous and 25 at the Oregon Electric. Port-times. The other day he received a let. Sand yards and Vancouver shops of The other day he received a letter from Salem, signed by "Cleo Mid- the S. P. & S. dieton," asking him for a loan of $10. LEADERS MEET

Union leaders were in session this morning with the strikers and issued the advice that only a scant handful of men had returned to their work and that in nearly every instance they were long term employes who stood to loose many years of service and their pensions.

delivery window in the Salem postof-From all indications the strike in Portland was still slightly better than 80 per cent effective. Less than 5 per cent of those who walked out Saturday morning have returned to their

Kiwanis Meeting work. The ultimatum of the S. P. & S. demanding that the Oregon Electric, Portland yard and Vancouver shop workmen return to work by this morning brought out 20 or more workers. TO FILL JOBS

A. J. Davidson, general manager of the S. P. & S., went to Vancouver durcompanied by Mrs. Jones and went ing the morning to make a survey of conditions. Employment headquarters will be set up immediately by the North Bank line and the positions of all old workers will be filled without further negotiations.

The Southern Pacific, through J. H. Dyer, general manager, issued a renewal of the ultimatum demanding the return of all former employes by 7 o'clock Thursday morning on penalty turn during the day, and that the com-pany did not want the mas who did not report by Thursday morning. The Southern Pacific officials reported that their employment bureau at the Union station was jammed by applicants for positions in the shops. The agency attendants reported that many workers from Albina shops were ed matter. applying for positions with the Brooklyn forces.

An ultimatum for shopmen employed by the O-W. R. & N. to return by 3 and pension privileges, the ranks of o'clock Saturday afternoon on penalty of losing pension and seniority rights was issued today by J. P. O'Brien, general manager of that line. The ultimatum issued by O'Brien said:

ULTIMATUM ISSUED

company in protest of the decision of the United States railroad labor board, must return to duty or register for Saturday, July 8, in order to regain pension and seniority rights." The O-W. has maintained an employment agency on the fourth floor of the Wells-Fargo building and is prepared to replace the workers who remain out on the walkout. Throughout the state the strike was reported to be virtually as effective as Monday with only a few points re-porting a wavering front. S. Jacob-son, chairman of the committee of Fed-erated Shop Crafts at Eugene, reported that the car department employes were out 100 per cent and that the other crafts remained out about 75 perscent. Railroad officials report that the strike is not causing any embarrass-ment to the free movement of freight and passenger business.

Radio Talk to Explain Changes In Phone Book June dend.

On invitation of The Journal, Fred Spoeri, manager of the Pacific Tele-phone & Telegraph company, will proadcast a 15-minute talk on the telephone directory at the Hallock & Watson radio service station this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, just after The Journal announces the baseball scores. There is difficulty without more

THERE WAS A

MUCH MORE SOCIABLE

INDEED -

WHEN THINGS WERE

These and other matters of a sim character having to do with the pending change which the teleph pany is making to the "six-digit sys-tem" will be explained by Mr. Spoeri in degree of detail not possible in print-

All regular schedules of the radio broadcasting station were resumed today. Thursday the next Hawley concer-will be given. The artists, who are well known, are Paul Hutchinson, baritone; Miss Frances Byers, planist; Ida Clare Love, violinist, and Ruth Bedford, accompanist. Last night Francis Richter and his orchestra broadcast the second program of classical and semi-classical music to be rendered by the hoted blind planist. The program, which was prepared for Mr. Hawley by W. A. McDougall, was heard by even a larger sudience than the first one, and from the number of complimentary calls received by both Hawley and Richter last night and today, the music must have been enjoyed by an immense num-ber of persons in all parts of the Pacific Northwest and to some extent in

Saving Depositors Of Defunct Bank To Get Dividends

other sections of the Pacific coast as far south as Los Angeles.

About 5000 savings depositors of the this week receive dividend checks amounting to 40 per cent of their filed claims. The dividend checks will total approximately $400,000. Only June 10 will participate in this divi-

Dividend checks on commercial accounts will be held in abeyance until the supreme court hands down its decision relative to the preferred rights of savings depositors. The appea taken from Judge Tucker's dec has been set to come before the supreme court Saturday, July 8. It is the hope of State Superintendent of of loss of seniority and pension. E. L. study than people care to give, in un-king, general superintendent, report- derstanding the correct method of mak-that there will be but little delay in 12:20 p. m.

commercial accounts in accordance with the court's decision.

The liquidation headquarters of the bank are now located in a mitte of offices on the seventh floor of the Spald ing building. Third and Washington streets. Negotiations for the disposal of the leases and fixtures in the Lum-bermens building are now under way and it is expected that a deal will be consummated within the next fe

Four Fires Caused From Firecrackers Illegally Set Off

Four fires caused by the discharge of firecrackers within the city limitsdirect violation of city ordinancesoccurred Tuesday. These fires were at East 26th and Powell, No. 567 East 58th street north, 390 Everett street and No. 1242 East Clay street. Pire Mar-shal Grenfell said today that inspection by deputies of his office anow that at 30 points on main roads, just across the line from the city limits stands were in operation all day Tues day for the sale of fireworks. Per-sons returning from trips in the country stopped at these stands and be fireworks, which they brought into the city for explosion. The result was con-stant violation of the safety ordinance. Grenfell said an attempt would be made at the next session of the state legislature to amend the act on this subject so that the prohibition wos defunct State bank of Portland will apply to the entire state. Recently the attorney general declared such prohibition ineffective under the pres-

Of Brazil Revolt, Report Declares

Buenos Aires, July 5.—(II. P.)—An unconfirmed report was received here today that the Brazilian army had revolted at 11 a. m. today. No messages Banks Bramwell that the courts will had been received from Rio De Janeiro

GONE FOREVER!

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER-To Be Sung Andante-And Heavy on the Sentiment

By A. Posen

Rich Girl, Poor Girl By VIRGINIA TERHUNE VAN de WATER

(Copyright, 1922, by Star Company) CHAPTER 50

DELAIDE BROWN returned to the A sick room. "Your son will be here in a few minutes," she told the moth-"Mr. Hollingshead has gone to She shut the door carefully, that the odor of flowers should not reach the patient.

To Adelaide it seemed that the house held an atmosphere of heard father and son coming slowly the hall She moved a chair rather noisily across the floor that the sick woman might not notice how slow and halting the men's steps were. But when Richard entered room he let go his father's arm and came straight to his mother. "how are things with you now?"

"Well, mater!" he said, cheerily, "Oh, son, I am so glad to hear your the invalid exclaimed. "Kiss me, dear."

She put her arms about the young man's neck as he bent over her. The side of Richard's head on which was a strip of adhesive was towards her face. Quickly, Adelaide slipped her fingers over the plaster that it might not touch the woman's cheek. Richard noted the action, and, with a glance at her, turned his head so that the left temple instead of the right was next to his mother. "You're a peach, all right!" he muttered. He meant the words to reach Adelaide only, but his mother heard them "No, I am not, dear," she said. "! am only a poor old woman who is very Richard flushed. "Well, I think you are a peach, anyway." he insisted.

"But, as you are ill, I must not tire you talking to you. I will come in again later in the day." As he moved away he flashed a meaning look at his mother's attend-Had the man no heart? the girl won-dered. How could he attempt to flirt at such a time as this?

She noticed that Dr. Carter had entered the room while Richard was with his mother. How much of the little by-play had he seen? But his manner was just as usual, anything more professional than heretofore. The nurse followed him from the room for his directions. When she returned the physician appeared again in the doorway and beckoned to Adeunderstand that you are to be with the patient this afterneon during the services," he said, almost curtly. "How are you going to keep her from hearing the movements downstairs?" "I do not know," she replied truth-ally. "I had thought that I might read to her, if she was well enough -but I am afraid it might make her nervous.'

"Yes, it might. Moreover, no matter how much care is taken, it will be almost impossible for even a few people to come and go without some stir reaching the sick room. And of course, the sound of vehicles-

He paused, frowning. "I do not want to administer an opiate to make her sleep as heavily as she did yesterday," he continued. "Then her nervous condition demand-ed it. Today it does not. But her heart is not behaving well, and she must be kept quiet. The only thing that would drown all those sounds

* TAKE a 20 PAY LIFE POLICY

With Us

608 Artisans Building Assets Over $1,500,000.00 Your Rome Society for 27 Years

vould be music, and that is out of the question Adelaide spoke without taking time for a second thought. "I could sing to her," she said. Then she caught herself up-flushngly hotly. "Do you sing?"

The question was as sudden as the "Only a little-that is-I have sung A step behind her made her turn. This was in her mind as she Henry Hollingshead was coming toward the pair. Before she could pro-

Dr. Carter was explaining to him his fears about the afternoon. "I was just asking Miss Brown." concluded. "if she could sing. If so, that might soothe your wife and deaden the sounds from below. It would be a painful ordeal for Miss Brown, of course, just now-and perhaps you would not be willing. Mr. Hollingshead"-"I would be grateful if Adedie would sing," Mr. Hollingshead said. "My dear-would you?" "If I can sing well enough," she fal-

"Of course you can. If you could sing well enough at"-Then he stopped, checked by an appealing look in the girl's eyes. All at once he remembered their compact.
"If you could sing well enough at home for your family to like to hear you, you certainly will sing well enough to please my poor Hannah," he amended. "Let it be some oldfashioned songs-such as she loves."

was musical," Adelaide heard Dr. Carter say as the two men went down-"You have heard her sing?" "Yes, once," was the brief reply.
Adelaide feared that his very brev

"I did not know that Miss Brown

ty would arouse his companion's spec-A sensation of fear she could not explain crept over her. She was strangely afraid of having the physi-

by singing at Heyman's cabaret. (To Be Continued Tomorrow)

that she had made money

MRS. DON GUMM

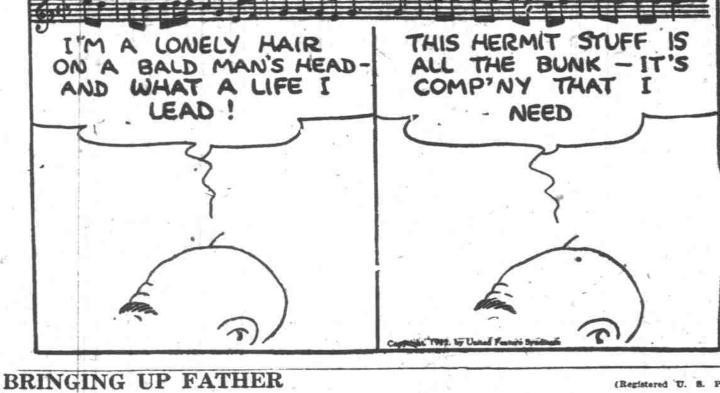

Kelso, Wash., July 5 .- Mrs. Don Gumm died Monday at the Lyson's home on Gobie creek, following an extended illness. Her husband and her mother, Mrs. Cora David of Portland.

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists.

Free: Write Bauer & Black, Chicago, Dept. 135 for valuable book, "Correct Care of the Feet."

ID HATE

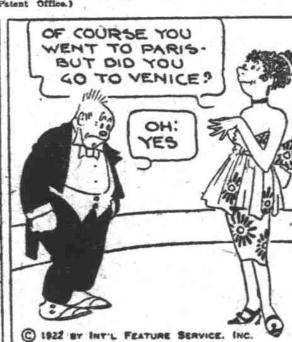

THE REST

OF 'EM!

TO SEE

(Registered U. S. Patent Office.)

KRAZY KAT

(Copyright, 1922, by International Feature Service, Inc.) GOLLA, DO AND WOT DO

THERE'S MRS. ELLA

TO HER - SHE IS

SWELL SOCIETY

THE LEADER OF

NOISE - GO AND TALK

HERE IN

MWOT

ABIE THE AGENT

