

TARIFF AND WAR BONUS MEASURES WORRY LEADERS

By James E. Norris
Universal Service Staff Correspondent
Washington, July 14.—Senator Lodge was unsuccessful Thursday in a second attempt to obtain a conference with the president to discuss the legislative situation which is causing so much uneasiness to Republican party leaders in the senate.

The senator learned that the president had gone to the golf links and would be unable to grant an interview at any hour during the day.

The coal and rail problems are still demanding too much attention from the president it was stated, to permit him to consider the troubles of the senate leaders at this time.

BUSY WITH STRIKE
Last Monday when Senator Lodge visited the president in an effort to arrange for an interview for Senator Curtis, Watson and himself, the president stated that he was too much engaged with the strike situation to see the committee, and suggested that the interview be held Thursday. It was in accord with this suggestion that Senator Lodge called.

The senator said he would make another effort to see the president, and would endeavor to have Curtis and Watson brought into the conference, in order that the senate situation may be thoroughly discussed.

QUESTIONS PARAMOUNT
The principal questions which are bothering the senate leaders, which they would like to have the president solve if he will do so, are:

1. Does the president believe the political chances of the party in the approaching congressional campaign would be better served by the passage of the tariff bill or postponement until after the November elections are safely over?

2. Will the president accept the McCumber soldier bonus bill now regarded as certain to pass, despite the fact that it fails to comply with the president's previously announced requirement that it fails to comply with the president's previously announced requirement that whatever shape the bonus legislation takes, the bill when passed must contain provisions for raising the money?

3. Is the president willing to agree to the legislative program which senate leaders have adopted, that no action should be taken on the ship subsidy bill at this session and that as soon as the tariff and bonus bills are disposed of both houses should adjourn.

TARIFF CHIEF CONCERN

The first question, involving the action of the senate on the tariff bill, is causing more concern in the camp of the leaders than either of the others. Many of the old time members of the party are beginning to experience a change of heart as to the wisdom of rushing the tariff bill through before the congressional elections. They have read the history of previous defeats suffered by the party in power after having passed a high tariff bill. They have hardened also to the warnings of Senator La Follette, Borah and others that the tariff measure will bring certain defeat to the party in November.

Whether the president has any misgivings along this line or believes that the party interests would be better served if action on the bill is delayed, the senate leaders would like much to ascertain. A word from him, either in support of immediate passage of the bill or favoring its postponement would help them out of a tremendous difficulty, the worst that they have encountered since coming into full control of congress.

Man With Razor Looks for Wife; Lands in Prison

Armed with a razor, Sam Kubus, 22, a bootblack, was arrested by the police late Thursday night while he was hiding behind a tree in front of a house at 16th and Everett streets, and when he was taken to headquarters he explained his actions by saying he was looking for his wife.

Kubus declared his wife recently left him, and that he had telegraphed to Medford, Or., to her parents to see if she might be there. On receiving a negative reply, he suddenly had a "hunch" as to her whereabouts and started out to look for her while he was in the act of shaving himself.

Establishment of Lancaster Lake Camp Postponed

Due to abnormal weather conditions rendering motor travel over the road from Dee to Lost Lake practically impossible, the establishment of the Lancaster-Lake camp has been postponed for a season.

A scouting party, conducted by Samuel C. Lancaster, which went in to the lake this week, reported that use of the unfinished road during rainy weather, followed by a long period of drought, had resulted in the cutting of deep ruts covered with a layer of dust over a foot deep in many places. Improvement of the road will be begun immediately, but it will probably not be in a traversable state before spring.

WEBSTER OPENS CAMPAIGN
Spokane, Wash., July 14.—Congressman J. Stanley Webster is on the first lap of a three-week motor tour through the Fifth congressional district, planning to spend a week in Pend Oreille, Stevens and Spokane counties. This opens his campaign for reelection outside of Spokane. He is accompanied by J. H. Sexsmith.

ROOSEVELT SEES DANGER AHEAD OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

Atlantic City, N. J., July 14.—(U. N. S.)—Declaring that "there are doctrines abroad in the land which, if not controverted and overcome, may lead to the fall of this great country as the countries of the past have fallen," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy yesterday pointed the finger of warning at American economic strife in his address at the concluding exercises of the 68th annual convention of the grand lodge of Elks.

"I am going to point out to you certain matters that must be taken in hand if our country is to make its march of progress," he declared. "I am not going to try to make you cheer; I am going to try to make you think."

COAST NOT CLEAR
"Were I to tell you that I thought all things were running smoothly and that I saw for our country a course lying clear before you across a calm sea, I would be telling a deliberate lie. But a few short weeks ago, in Southern Illinois, in as atrocious murders as are known in our annals, men were killed, not cleanly killed, but brutally killed and up to the time in which I speak there is no shadow of a conviction of the murderers in sight. I know not who was to blame, whether employer or employee—but if our country is to stand, we must mete out justice in this case regardless of the affiliations. On the law depends our society. Without law, our civilization crumbles."

APPEALS FOR ORDER
"There is no excuse for breaking laws. Nevertheless, we seem to be increasingly lawless; we seem bent on destroying the structure we have builded."
