YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Nature's Most Wonderful Laboratory and Out-of-Door Paradise

"The wildest peysers in the world, in bright, triumphant bands, are dancing and singing in it amid thousands of boiling springs, beautiful and awful, their basins of gorgeous colors like gigantic cauldrons whose whole contents are of every color and consistency, splash and heave and roar in bewildering abundance.

"Here, too, are hills of sparkling crystals, hills of sulphur, hills of glass, hills of cinders and ashes, mountains of every style of architecture, lay or forested, mountains boiled soft like potatoes and colored like a sunset sky.

"The air is electrical and full of ozone, healing, reviving, exhilarating, kept pure by frost and fire, while the scenery is wild enough to awaken the dead."—John Muir.
