Final Initiation Of Veteran Society To Be on Saturday

The final initiation conducted by Portland Voiture No. 25, La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Cheveaux, prior to the annual state convention of the 40-8'ers at The Dalles next Wednesday, will be held Saturday when 15 "goofs" will be taken in charge by Barge Leonard and his wrecking crew. The "newcomers" have been instructed to meet at the Armory at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and then the festivities will start, according to an announcement made by Secretary Rex B. Parelius.

Quite a number of 40-8'ers are planning on leaving Portland for The Dalles conclave which will be in conjunction with the fourth annual Oregon state convention of the American Legion. Wednesday will be turned over to the "boys of the sunshine order of the Legion," while Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be taken up with American Legion affairs.

A deposit of platinum has been discovered in the mountains of a northern state of Brazil.
