Record of Former Hearing Barred in

Salem, July 25 .- Judges Percy Kelly ind George Bingham, sitting en banc the rehearing of the case of the Phez company against the Salem Fruit Union and its members, which began in the circuit court here Monday, held that the record of the previous case could not be injected into the present hearing.

Attorneys for the Phez company, which seeks to recover approximately $300,000 for alleged breach of contract relative to berry deliveries on the parof the growers in 1919, 1920 and 1921, had contended that the growers, by a decree of the court, were held to the testimony offered at the earlier hear-
